Building Relationships – Keeping Them Strong

Schedule of Events	2
Presenters	6
Sustaining Members	7
Board of Directors/Officers	29
Pearlman 2015 Attendees	30
Driving Directions	45
Notes	47

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Sustaining Members of the Pearlman Association, I want to express our sincere appreciation to you for choosing to attend the Pearlman events this year. Whether you traveled across the country or across town, whether this is your first visit or your 15th, we have worked hard to make your time with us a rewarding and memorable experience and we hope we surpass your every expectation.

Pearlman is an organization designed, built and managed exclusively by company-side surety professionals. Its close, continuous access to the collective heartbeat of a large number of surety companies makes for a unique, targeted perspective on the needs, goals and challenges facing the industry – a perspective available to no other similarly situated organization. Our annual events draw from this special vantage point as we design our curriculum, training and recreational events.

As you take part in our events this year, please keep in mind that Pearlman has but one mission; to strengthen and enhance the talent, professionalism and career prospects of the surety professional. We will accomplish this mission through our scholarship distribution, our educational programs and our commitment to building industry relationships and keeping them strong.

Thank you, again, for joining us this year.

All the best –

R. Jeffrey Olson
Chairman/Director
Pearlman Association

Snow Christensen & Martineau traces its roots to Provo, Utah, and 1886, ten years before Utah became a state. One of its founders, George Sutherland, later became the only Utahan to serve on the United States Supreme Court. The firm now enjoys a complement of more than 55 attorneys (including a recently retired but still energetic federal magistrate judge) and a strong staff including more than 15 paralegals. With physical offices in Salt Lake City and St. George and virtual offices wherever needed, the Firm serves some of the Intermountain West's most vital and influential businesses and institutions. Snow, Christensen & Martineau benefits from an impressive history of service, growth and innovation in the legal community, and continues to build toward an equally impressive and significant future. The Firm is recognized for its preeminent trial work, but its attorneys are experienced in a broad spectrum of legal specialties, including complicated business transactions, patents, trademarks and other intellectual property. Many are recognized as among the best in their fields of practice, combining national expertise with personal service. The firm is committed to providing timely, superior legal services at a fair price. Its commitment to the practice of law is manifest in the general lackluster performance of most of its members on the golf course.

Sage Consulting Group provides consulting and expert witness services to the surety and construction industry on projects throughout the United States and Canada. Our expertise is focused on the heart of construction projects: time and money. The background of the Sage Team makes rapid and precise evaluation of costs to complete and project status possible. Sage's extensive background in construction claims and litigation is an asset when reviewing actual or potential defaults since troubled projects often have significant construction disputes. Favorable resolution of those disputes can be a significant source of salvage and reduce losses. Construction disputes arise out of the need by one of the parties to recover monetary damages. Sage focuses on first the areas of damage and then focuses on causation to narrow the research effort to the relevant areas of performance, resulting in a more cost-effective approach to claims assessment, development and defense.

Strasburger & Price has been at the forefront of the fidelity and surety industry for over fifty years. From the quiet days of the 1960's to the mercurial 1980's dealing with the banking and real estate crisis throughout the country, to the advent of electronic banking and mega-construction projects of the 1990's and 2000's, the lawyers in Strasburger & Price's Fidelity & Surety group have worked in partnership with our clients in every aspect of the industry.

Strasburger's surety lawyers provide experienced representation in all facets of the surety industry. The group's lawyers have significant experience representing sureties in connection with all types of bonds, including performance, payment, probate, public officials, subdivision, and various other miscellaneous commercial surety bonds. Our lawyers have successfully handled countless complex contract surety claims, expertly guiding sureties through pre-default investigations and negotiations and completion of construction projects after default, including drafting and negotiating completion contracts, takeover agreements, ratification agreements, financing agreements, and other pertinent surety agreements. Our lawyers likewise have extensive experience handling complicated and varied commercial surety bond claims, from the initial investigation and analysis to conclusion. Our expertise and experience extends to protecting the surety's interests in bankruptcy proceedings, including pre-bankruptcy and post-filing negotiations of reorganization plans, conflicts regarding unpaid proceeds of bonded contracts, negotiations regarding assumption of bonded obligations, and other issues affecting the surety in bankruptcy.

The nationally recognized attorneys of Krebs, Farley & Pelleteri have litigated cases all over the United States. Our attorneys' skills show not only in the courtroom, but also in negotiation. The personal commitment and dedicated effort that our attorneys put forth make a difference in every case we handle. We are smart, pragmatic and diligent. And we are dedicated to creatively pursuing the best solutions for our clients.

We understand the importance of prompt, correct, and concise responses; foreseeing and accounting for future contingencies in contract drafting; resolving disputes that can be amicably resolved; and positioning those matters that cannot be settled for a successful outcome in litigation. We do this while remaining cognizant that litigation often impacts business considerations beyond the case at hand. We also work closely with our clients in developing and operating within a litigation budget. Whether it be in negotiation, in mediation, in arbitration, in trial or on appeal, the attorneys at Krebs, Farley & Pelleteri seek pragmatic solutions for our clients.

YUSEN & FRIEDRICH

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Founded in 1988, Yusen & Friedrich is the only firm in the State of Washington exclusively representing sureties in construction and fidelity matters. Whether routine or complex, all of our attorneys are well-versed in representing sureties in payment and performance, license, permit, and miscellaneous bond claims. We also represent sureties in a wide-variety of subrogation and indemnity matters. Most importantly, we have extensive experience defending against surety-related bad faith claims, which can present complex issues for sureties in the State of Washington.

Yusen & Friedrich represents some of the largest surety and fidelity companies throughout the United States in connection with public and private construction bonds, court and commercial bonds, fidelity bonds, and financial guaranty bonds. We are experienced in negotiation and finalization of agreements for construction, preparation of claims, mediation, litigation, arbitration, and appeals.

Yusen & Friedrich closely monitors legislative developments involving construction, insurance, and surety law, and is very active with legislative and industry groups relating to the surety industry. Its members have authored numerous articles dealing with the surety industry and are frequent speakers at seminars relating to surety issues.

As a boutique law firm, we give clients high quality service and personal attention. One of the firm's primary objectives is to get to know its clients on a personal level so that it can meet their legal needs in a cost-effective and timely manner. The firm enjoys a superior reputation for excellent, competitive, and cost-effective legal services.

Jennings Strouss

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Founded in Phoenix, Arizona in 1942, Jennings Strouss is a dynamic law firm with the talent and insight to address a wide range of business legal issues. With law offices in Phoenix, Peoria and Yuma, Arizona, and Washington, D.C., the firm leverages its resources regionally and nationally.

Our litigation department stands as one of the most respected in the Southwest, with a proven track record of trial victories and successful outcomes for clients. The transactional department handles an array of business legal matters, from the negotiation and closing of complex transactions to providing counsel on common legal questions.

One of the many benefits of a relationship with Jennings Strouss is our pragmatic and results-oriented legal advice coupled with a healthy, well-managed and friendly relationship with our attorneys. In fact, several of our key clients have been with us for 30+ years. We feel privileged to enjoy lasting relationships with them, which we take as a testament to their confidence in and comfort with us.

We believe that to offer excellent advice and service, we need to understand our clients, as well as their business. Excellent service also means taking a long-term view and investing in relationships with clients as well as in our own people, processes, and services. No client service could be better than that given by a united firm, which values collaboration and teamwork. We believe everyone at the firm can make a difference in serving all of our clients.

Williams Kastner has been serving clients in the Northwest since 1929. With more than 90 attorneys in offices located throughout Washington and Oregon and affiliated offices in Shanghai, Beijing and Hong Kong, we offer global capabilities and vision with a local sensibility.

We are well known for our vast trial and litigation successes. Our deep bench of seasoned litigators have extensive trial experience in federal and state courts. In fact, over the course of the last three decades, Williams Kastner has tried (and won) more cases to jury verdict than any other firm in Washington.

The Construction Litigation & Surety Practice Team at Williams Kastner serves clients involved in all aspects of the construction industry, including general contractors, specialty subcontractors, owner/developers, architects, engineers, lending institutions, sureties and insurers. In the surety context, the Team handles the entire spectrum of issues, such as: analyzing and responding to default terminations and other performance bond claims; providing advice regarding complex bond claim investigations; addressing various project completion scenarios, including tenders, takeovers and financing the bond principal; defense of performance and payment bond claims under the Miller Act and state law, including discharge, exoneration and other surety-specific defenses; defense of extra-contractual claims by claimants, bond principals and indemnitors involving claims brought under the Washington Insurance Fair Conduct Act, the Consumer Protection Act and common law bad faith; prosecution of affirmative construction claims to mitigate surety losses; prosecution of indemnity and other salvage actions on behalf of sureties; resolving priority disputes between sureties, banks, trustees and public agencies; and defense of claims on miscellaneous bonds, including license bonds and public official bonds. When the situation warrants, the Team draws upon other practice areas within the firm to serve the needs of our construction industry clients. These practice areas often include: labor and employment, collections, bankruptcy, land use and real estate.
