

Travel Directions from New Street Station to Carrs Lane Church

Address: Carrs Lane Church, Carrs Ln, Birmingham B4 7SX

New Street Station is a large station with several exits.

Use the ground floor exit which leads you to the Birmingham Bullring.

If you've found the Birmingham Bullring exit as you go through it and go outside the station, you should see a taxi rank and TK Maxx on your right.

Keeping TK Maxx on your right, head towards the pedestrian crossing.

Cross over St. Martins Queensway towards the Birmingham Bullring.

Once you have crossed the road, take a left.

Follow the pavement as it curves round the side of the building. You'll go past several bus shelters.

Keep following the pavement underneath the underpass.

As you emerge from the underpass you'll see Moor Street Station.

Continue to follow the pavement to a pedestrian crossing.

Cross over Moor Street Queensway and immediately take a left, to cross the road again.

You will now be facing the back entrance to Primark.

Take a right and walk past two more bus shelters.

Cross over the road towards Carrs Lane Church (a large brown brick building).

Once you have crossed the road, take a left and head towards Tesco Express.

You'll see a large square of grass on your left with trees. Before you reach the grass square, take a right, down a ramp towards a car park.

At the bottom of the ramp, take another right and The Trans Tearoom is through the entrance with the red door.
