If the Purchaser declares title unmarketable or insurable and either the Purchaser or Seller elects to cancel the Contract within the 30 calendar day deadline set forth herein, the Earnest Money Deposit and Buyer's Premium shall be refunded in full to the Purchaser without any further recourse by either Party.

Purchaser shall hold harmless, indemnify and defend Seller and Seller's representatives and agents from any claim arising from or relating to the Property. Upon Closing and transfer of title, Purchaser hereby fully and irrevocably releases Seller and its representatives and agents from any and all claims of any kind whatsoever, whether known or unknown, arising from or relating to the Property. Seller makes no warranties or representations as to whether or not any leases of the Property are in force; whether or not anyone else has a right of possession; whether or not any rent concessions were given to any tenant; whether or not any other contracts were made with the tenants; whether or not any rent charged violates any applicable rent control ordinance, statute, or law; whether or not any other violations of any applicable ordinance, statute or law exist; and whether or not Seller or any tenant is in default under any lease. Notwithstanding the fact that the Property may be occupied, Purchaser acknowledges that the occupancy status shall not provide grounds for Purchaser's failure to consummate the transaction or an excuse for performance required by Purchaser pursuant to this Contract. Purchaser is purchasing the Property "AS IS, WHERE IS, WITH ALL FAULTS AND LIMITATIONS" regardless of occupancy status. Purchaser further acknowledges and understands that Purchaser is solely responsible for the undertaking, processing or completion of any eviction proceedings, including, but not limited to, unlawful detainer or other legal proceedings, including the cost and expense associated therewith in order to secure the right of possession. 10. LOCAL REQUIREMENTS, BUILDING AND ZONING CODES. Some counties, cities, municipalities and other state subdivisions may require a certificate of occupancy, certificate of use or code compliance certificate and/or inspection required in order to transfer and/or occupy the Property. If such or the like is required for the Property to be transferred to or occupied by Purchaser, Purchaser waives such local requirements to the extent waivable. To the extent any such local requirement is not waivable by Purchaser, Purchaser shall comply with the Local Requirement at Purchaser's sole cost, including, without limitation, the correction of any violations or performance of other work which may be required in connection therewith. Seller makes no representation as to whether a Local Requirement applies. Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless from and against all fines, penalties, costs, expenses, claims and liabilities arising out of or relating to any local requirements. This indemnification shall survive Closing and shall not be deemed to have merged into any of the documents signed or delivered as of Closing. 13. WILLFUL DEFAULT. If Seller shall have performed or tendered performance of his or her obligations under this Contract and Purchaser shall have willfully defaulted hereunder, then, Seller, at his or her option, may: (a) Retain the down payment as liquidated and agreed upon damages, or (b) Pursue other legal remedies. This option of liquidated and agreed upon damages is not a penalty, the Purchaser understands that the Seller has bound (her)himself to the sale of the Property to the Purchaser and has removed the Property from sale at a time when other parties would have been interested in acquiring the Property. Seller, therefore, will have sustained substantial damages which are not capable of determination with precision if the Purchaser willfully defaults.

14. ATTORNEY APPROVAL. This Contract is contingent upon Purchaser and Seller obtaining approval of this Contract by their respective attorneys as to all matters contained herein without limitation. This contingency shall be deemed waived unless Purchaser's or Seller's attorney on behalf of their client notifies the other party or that party's attorney in writing by facsimile, email or certified mail of their disapproval of this Contract, no later than three (3) business days after this Contract has been signed by both Seller and Purchaser. If Purchaser's or Seller's attorney provides such notification, then this Contract shall be deemed cancelled, null and void.
15. NO ASSIGNMENT OR RECORDING. Purchaser may not assign or record all or any part of this Contract without the express prior written consent of Seller. Despite the foregoing, Purchaser may assign this Contract to any entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by Purchaser, provided, however, that, in such event, the undersigned Purchaser shall remain liable for the obligations of Purchaser under this Contract.
