

Kicking DIS Ability – Facebook Privacy Policy

Effective Date: August 1st, 2025

Kicking DIS Ability (“we,” “our,” or “us”) is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals who visit and interact with our official Facebook page. This policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard information shared through our Facebook presence.

1. Information We Collect

When you interact with our Facebook page, we may collect:

Information you provide directly (e.g., messages, comments, form submissions).
Public information from your Facebook profile as allowed by your privacy settings.
Any contact information you voluntarily provide (e.g., email address, phone number).

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information you provide to:

Respond to your inquiries and messages.
Share information about our programs, events, and volunteer opportunities.
Process requests to participate in our programs or partner with us.
Maintain a record of communications for customer service and organizational purposes.

3. Information Sharing

We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal information. We may share information only:
With your explicit consent.

As required by law or to protect legal rights.

With trusted service providers who assist in operating our programs and communications.

4. Facebook Data Practices

Our Facebook page is hosted on the Facebook platform, which is owned by Meta Platforms, Inc. Your use of Facebook is also subject to Facebook’s Data Policy and Terms of Service. We encourage you to review Facebook’s privacy practices:

<https://www.facebook.com/policy.php>

5. Your Privacy Choices

You can control what personal information you share with us by:

Adjusting your Facebook privacy settings.
Contacting us directly instead of posting publicly.
Requesting that we delete information you have provided.
