

Post Colonial

"Assumes the literature written by colonizing forces (I.E. Western Literature) downplays or minimizes the effect of colonization, or somehow justifies the colonization of that population.

- How are colonized people portrayed if referenced in text?
- What cultural conflicts exist? How are they resolved?
- How are the colonized portrayed as "Others" within the text

"Post colonialists will look at the "Others" perspective in the story, and try to find the counter-narrative embedded in every story.

- Think about pieces of literature you have read that showcase this.
