By-Laws for Lake Petersburg Association

ARTICLE I: Authority

The Lake Petersburg Association ("the Association") is governed by the Common Interest Community Association Act (CICAA), 765 ILCS 160, the By-Laws as adopted and Rules and Regulations as approved.

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern this Association where they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these By-Laws. If there is a discrepancy between these By-Laws and CICAA, CICAA prevails. If there is a discrepancy between the Rules and Regulations and the By-Laws, the By-Laws prevail.

ARTICLE II: Offices

The principal office of the Association in the State of Illinois shall be located at 17754 North Shore Dr. Petersburg, Illinois, County of Menard. The Association may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Illinois, as the Board of Directors ("the Board") may determine or as the affairs of the association may require from time to time.

The Association shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Illinois a registered office and a registered agent whose office is identical with such registered office. The registered office may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office in the State of Illinois, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III: Members

Section 1. Classes of Members

The association shall have two (2) classes of members, namely:

- A. Regular Members. A Regular Member is a person who has leased a lot owned by the Association for such terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe from time to time. No person can maintain more than one (1) membership no matter how many lots are owned by said member. There can be only one (1) membership per lot even though a lease for a lot may be in more than one (1) person's name.
- B. A Regular Member may sublease the entire leased property and all improvements thereon for a period not less than six months nor more than one year. Short-term transient rentals, including but not limited to rentals such as "Airbnb", "VRBO" are prohibited. A Regular Member may not sublease a portion less than the entire leased property and all improvement thereon. A Regular Member entering into a sublease shall be jointly and severally liable for any and all dues, fees, fines, damages, and any other debt or liability incurred by the sublessee and accruing to the Association.
- C. Associate Members. An Associate Member is a person who resides for a period not less than six months nor more than one year on a lot leased by a Regular member who does not reside in the household. Associate Members may be granted lake privileges but are not entitled to vote on any items submitted to the Regular Members.
- D. For purposes of these By-Laws, the terms "unit owner", "lot owner", "lease holder", and "lessee" are used interchangeably and mention of one includes the other.
- E. A Regular Member who leases more than one leasehold improved by a residence shall pay regular membership dues for only one leasehold; however, Associate Member dues shall be paid by occupants of the other leaseholds. An occupant is someone who resides on the premises for up to one year. A Regular Member shall be jointly and severally liable for any and all dues, fees (including attorney fees), fines, damages and any other debt or liability incurred by the Associate Member accruing to the Association.

By-Laws for Lake Petersburg Association

- F. A sublease includes occupancy by anyone other than the Regular Member whether a written lease exists or not.

Section 2. Termination of Membership

The Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3's) of the Board of Directors present at any regular constituted meeting of such Board of Directors, may suspend, expel or terminate a Regular member or Associate Member for cause after an appropriate hearing. Said cause may include, but is not limited to, non-payment of the dues, assessments, or claims for payment as set forth.

Section 3. Resignation

Any Regular Member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary, but such resignation shall not relieve the member so resigning of the obligation to pay any dues, assessments, or other charges theretofore accrued or unpaid.

Section 4. Reinstatement

Upon the written request signed by a former Regular Member and filed with the Secretary, the Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3's) of the Board, may reinstate such former Regular Member or Associate Member to membership upon such terms as the Board may deem appropriate.

Section 5. Member Powers, Duties, and Obligations

The provisions of the Common Interest Community Association Act ("the Act"), the declaration, bylaws, other community instruments, and rules and regulations that relate to the use of an individual lot or the common areas shall be applicable to any person leasing a lot and shall be deemed to be incorporated in any lease executed or renewed on or after the effective date of the Act. With regard to any lease entered into subsequent to the effective date of the Act, the Member leasing the lot shall deliver a copy of the signed lease to the Association or if the lease is oral, a memorandum of the lease, not later than the date of occupancy or 10 days after the lease is signed, whichever occurs first.
