Message from Pastor Glenn

We are making a change in the timing of our Blue Christmas service this year. Instead of having a special service we are making it the focus of our 10:30^{AM} worship with a lunch fellowship to follow.

I encouraged this change as I have led and participated in to have a truly Advent focus. It is a service whose purpose, as I see it, is to prepare us to receive Christ into our world and our lives with joy and peace, even as our grief, loss, fear, anxiety, disease, despair, loneliness sadden and distract us from believing that God had chosen to dwell with us.

Blue Christmas services seek to prepare us to trust God's presence with us in the midst of the pain, suffering, disappointment and doubt we experience in this world. They allow us to express those emotions while affirming the reality of 'God with us'.

Please join us for our Blue Christmas service on December 8 at 10:30^{AM}. I do request is that you contact me by phone 402-393-5553 or email GLSchacht@gmail.com if you intend to attend the luncheon.

Peace,
Pastor Glenn

ADVENT

From Sundays & Seasons

The Gifts of Advent: A Weekly Study Series for Advent

A gift is given freely and offered in love. In the weeks before Christmas, we often race around finding just the right gifts for friends and family. The season of Advent is itself a gift—a time set apart to prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ. We give thanks for God’s gift to us in the baby of Bethlehem. This series highlights four aspects of Advent that become blessings and gifts in our lives: patience, speech and silence, hope, and family.

WEEK 1: The Gift of Patience

Waiting is hard. We eagerly anticipate the desires of our hearts and want them to come soon. We wait for the first day of school or the first snowfall. We wait to see a loved one or to hear a doctor’s news. Just as the farmer waits for crops or the fig tree waits for summer, we are reminded to be patient until the coming of the Lord.

READ:

Psalm 37:7 Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him; do not fret over those who prosper in their way, over those who carry out evil devices.

Hebrews 12:9 Moreover, we had human parents to discipline us, and we respected them. Should we not be even more willing to be subject to the Father of spirits and live?

WEEK 2: The Gifts of Speech and Silence

Encountering the angel of the Lord, Zechariah was struck speechless. His imposed silence became a time to reflect on the wonders of God. Like Zechariah, we are called at times to be silent and listen, at other times to shout with joy.

READ:

Ecclesiastes 3:1,6 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away.

Psalm 62:1 For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

Psalm 40:10 I have not hidden your saving help within my heart, I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation.

Psalm 19:14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

WEEK 3: The Gift of Hope

Hope is a word on which our future rests. We cannot know what will come, but with faith we place our hope in Christ. Like Zechariah, we hope for the tender mercy of our God, light in the midst of darkness and death, and the knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of our sins.

READ:

Isaiah 42:16, 30:26, 11:6, 35:1, 7:14 I will lead the blind by a road they do not know, by paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them. Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, like the light of seven days, on the day when the LORD binds up the injuries of his people, and heals the wounds inflicted by his blow. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus Therefore the LORD himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.

WEEK 4: The Gift of Family

The Gospel of Matthew begins with a family tree from Abraham to Jesus. Between the recitation of names, we also hear the story of God at work in our world from generation to generation. The Advent and Christmas seasons highlight the significance of family and friends in our lives. We witness Mary and Joseph, Elizabeth and Zechariah, and the shepherds together tending their flocks. As God’s children, we become part of the family tree.
