

THE TUCKED TIE

Etiquette

1. Treat Everyone with Respect and Dignity. We're all here to have a good time and share a space, so let's make sure everyone is feeling safe and relaxed.
2. Enjoy our space like it was your own. We created everything for you, yes you, so relax, feel at home, and soak it all in (but please keep your clothes on . . . Bob!).
3. Ask Questions! We spent a lot of time curating everything you see, and we'd love to tell you about it! And, while we may not have all the answers, we'll always pretend like we do (and no, gaslighting isn't real).
4. Drink Responsibly! We don't want to have to babysit a bunch of toddler(ing) adults, so enjoy, but don't take it too far (I see you Bob!).
5. Don't touch or take anything that doesn't belong to you (girlfriends, wives, phones, monocles, decorations, garnishes, prosthetic limbs, etc.) . . . I mean, do you really need to be told that?
6. Have Fun and Thank You for being here, it means the world to us to see each and every one of you . . . except you Bob!

This cocktail pays homage to the first bar where the owner (Tobias) started as a barback years ago in Colorado Springs, CO. "The Archives Underground Libations" was a classics cocktail bar with amazing drinks and even better people.

It was here that he learned the noble art of bartending, flair, and mixing, and also where he fell in love with the world of hospitality and the industry as a whole.

The bar you are currently enjoying would not have been possible without the support and training of Dylan Currier and Shane Baldwin, owner and head bartender respectively of the Archives.

The ingredients of this cocktail are the flavors and bottles he associates with his time there.

If you ever visit Colorado Springs, you need to stop by and let them know Tobias says hello: it's really worth a visit!

TAKE A JOKE, LEAVE A JOKE.

HAVE A GOOD ONE? WRITE IT DOWN, WE'D LOVE TO READ IT.

The CEO's of Budweiser, Coors Light and Guinness are all sitting at the bar together. The bartender asks the Budweiser CEO what he'd like. He says, I'll have the king of beers, Budweiser. He then asks the CEO of Coors Light what he'd like. He says, I'll have the only beer brewed with Rocky Mountain spring water, a Coors Light. Then he asks the CEO of Guinness what he'd like. He says, I'll have a Coke. If those two aren't drinking beer, then I won't either.
