

Suggestions for Where to Post Outreach Flyers

These are in no particular priority order:

- Libraries
- Mental health facilities, particularly the ones with addiction programs (Examples: Inter Community Mental Health, Community Renewal Team, Chrysalis Center, Advocacy Unlimited, Wheeler Clinics)
- Institute of Living
- Family Centers; Family Support or Family Therapy Centers
- Better Choice Programs:
 - Positive Directions, Westport
 - United Community and Family Services, Norwich
 - CT Renaissance, Norwalk & Bridgeport
 - The Connection, Middletown & New Haven
 - Wheeler Clinic, Hartford, Plainville & New Britain
 - MCCA, Waterbury, Danbury, New Milford & Torrington
- Senior Centers
- Hospitals (most have addiction or mental health specific departments)
- Other addiction recovery centers & programs (many addicts have multiple addictions)
- Community Centers
- Salvation Army, Goodwill
- Wellness Centers
- Yale Psychiatric Hospital
- CT Valley Hospital
- Supermarkets & other stores with bulletin boards
- Catholic Family Services
- Youth Centers
- Churches and other places of worship
- Police Stations
- City and Town Halls
- Senior Housing complexes
- Private therapist's offices
- Anywhere you see a bulletin board!

NOTES: * Don't forget to pre-cut the phone # tags on bottom of flyers

* Tear off one or two tabs when posting (makes it look like others are interested)

Other suggestions for doing public relations work in your community:

- Local newspapers, Town "Reminder" newspapers, Local public access TV, radio programs, Group or organization Newsletters, speaking to community groups or organizations