

Employee of the Month “Orientation – How To”

- The employee of the month is distinguished using a combination of things from “You`re Hired”, “You`re Fired” and your Family Values.
 - Eligibility: Throughout the month, the Kid must have applied AND completed minimum 5 jobs.
 - Examples:
 - Could also be the one who earned the most Kids Kash in a month or the one who applied and completed the most jobs.
 - Could be the Kid who has the least amount of X`s, or the only Kid who wasn`t fired
 - Could be the Kid who demonstrated the most Family Values
 - The employee of the month is decided by the parents and announced at the monthly family meeting.

- The Employee of the month gets rewarded by deciding what they want for the entire upcoming month. The parents must approve the winner`s request. (Our Kids always fight over where to sit in the car so they always chose the seat they wanted for the entire month).

- Take a picture of the employee of the month and post on the fridge or somewhere prominent with ``Employee of the Month for _____ at the top, then the picture and their Name on the bottom`` (download our free EOTM template).

- Make a big deal about it, share with friends etc.

- Share with us too at hireandfireyourkids.com. Each month we draw one winner of all the employees of the month. We will send your Kid a small gift and feature your family and your employee of the month on our site if you wish!
