General Briefing Highlights

- Dog must enter/exit ring on leash but run “naked” OR with just a flat buckle or snap collar (no dangling attachments) - put leash in bucket, on ground, carry, or put in pocket
- Time starts when ALL dog’s feet leave start box/line (dog leaves first OR with handler)
- No intentional touching of dog/equipment (except where judge permission rule applies)
- Can treat & use toys in ring (start, rat, B/B, recall) but may NOT use treats to lure
- Can’t push/shove/force dog in/onto burrow or bridge
- Eliminating in ring = NQ & dismissed
- If NQd but not dismissed, judge can show a RAT tube if desired
- Must call RAT before reward dog or touch tube (but OK if pick up before judge confirms)
- If tube is Litter and game allows faults, can remove tube after fault and continue
- Tube removal = Remove/Restrain (4 feet from wrangler)/Redirect (same as Barn Hunt)
- Praise period - after correct call, can touch dog, can pick dog up (if replace same spot)
- Handler can end run with no penalty: stops time and team keeps accumulated points

Faults (typically -10 points)

- False Alert (may keep searching, see games for exceptions)
- Dropping Food
- Luring with food or toy
- Physically assisting dog unless is older/disabled and needs it or gets “stuck”
- Moving items without judge’s permission
- Roughing the rat, i.e., dog picking up, carrying, rolling the tube
 - Rolling rat out of its container or tie-down in Maze/Rat Trap/Road Rage/Village
 - Repeated roughing = NQ
 - Note: Biting/scratching at tube is fine, no fault
- Stalling, i.e., handler delaying call while dog is roughing or rolling tube
- Handler picks up tube by end and doesn’t keep level

Faults (typically -10 points)

- Dog chasing Rat Steward (wrangler) or Judge:
 - Lightly jumps on person with friendly manner, no perceived ill intent → judge may issue a 5-10-point fault
 - Chases or charges person = 10-point fault
 - Jumps at/on person with perceived ill intent = 20-point fault (host's discretion whether to remove dog from that search and/or remainder of trial)
 - Bites at clothing or person = NQ & removed from that search and remainder of trial
 - Note: follows wrangler a few steps, then returns to hunting at handler's cue is fine
- Dog grabs, bites, shakes, bruises, abrades, or breaks skin of human or dog:
 - Removed from remainder of trial
 - Incident Report Form must be filed with Happy Ratters
 - HR office reviews & makes determination on fitness of dog to continue competing

Extreme Level

This is the metallic level for Extraordinaire so almost all rules are the same...

With this one exception:

- NO faults allowed: fault ends run, team keeps points earned

100+ points available each run; to title:

The XREX award is given to the team that accomplishes thirty (30) 100- or 130-point or higher runs at Extreme level, after earning the REX (Extraordinaire) title.

- The REX legs do not count towards the XREX.
- Ten (10) of the 30 must be 110- or 130-point or higher runs.

IDOT Award

Unique to City Sniffers

Awarded to the dog each day with the most Bridges and Burrows performed during the course of a single Standard run

- Doesn't matter if handler directed or dog performs on own
- BUT: only the first Bridge performance & first Burrow performance actually earn points towards titles!
- It's NOT recommended to interrupt your dog's hunting (we already do that in Earn A Rat game) - this award is just for serendipitous fun!

A-Maze-ing Rat

100 points available per run, divided by # of rats; subtract faults to determine total awarded towards Village Rats title (300 pts to title)

Rat Scoring/Staging Clarifications

At All Levels:

- A judge may allow a find, if dog shows a change of behavior, handler calls rat and dog is not right on top of the rat.
- The handler may point to where a rat has been found by the dog previously, but not called by the handler and receive credit for the rat. The dog does not need to “re-find” the rat.

Extraordinaire & Extreme Classes Staging:

Depending on the physical set up of the facility, teams can wait outside, or in another room, where they can't hear how many rats are found. If there is no way to isolate the competitors, the judge may change the number of rats for each run.

If Extraordinaire teams can be isolated and not hear the number of rats found, the judge may use the same number of rats for each group of competitors or change for each person as above.
