There are many pages on Facebook, and the web, that have just about everything for the Hard Rock enthusiast and collector. Whatever you collect, do a search and you will find it. The below have been instrumental in helping me put this book together.

Andreas Buergelt. A big thank you for allowing me to use your pictures. This would be a much smaller book without them.

Scott Northup, Scott's Hard Rock. Scott's Hard Rock is a tribute and museum of all things Rock & Roll and the place that brings us all together.

Kay Kalkbrenner Admin of Hard Rock Cafe News and Rumors. Here you find the latest informations on planned new Hard Rock Cafes / Hard Rock Hotels or closing news.

HRC Worldwide follows Hard Rock Café News & Events, all things Rock N' Roll & the Global Communities dedicated to the culture of Peace, Love & Freedom of Expression.

Charlie Lester. I'm grateful to Charlie for all his contributions over the past 15 years. Charlie shared his extensive photographic library for all my projects, especially the Almost Everything Hard Rock book.

Hard Rock Cafes

Spanning over 265 locations in over 70 countries, Hard Rock has become a truly global phenomenon. From its first cafe in London, England which opened in 1971, to properties around the world, Hard Rock International continues to offer great American food in a rock 'n' roll environment. In 1983 Hard Rock opened the first cafe in Jackson Tennessee followed by Los Angeles, California. In 1983 Hard Rock expanded to Asia with it's first cafe in Tokyo.

Every Hard Rock Café offers a unique experience, from specific memorabilia that pays tribute to emerging and legendary musicians rooted in each area, to authentic, collectible merchandise that reflects the spirit of the city.

Visited by millions of guests each year, Hard Rock Cafe offers high quality American fare and great service in an energetic music atmosphere. There are some Hard Rock Café's which did not belong to the Rank Group or HRC International. Most of them opened before the Rank Group took over the Hard Rock name. It is unknown how many are open at this time or how many have closed. There are probably a dozen or so out there, some which are listed in this book under renegade cafe's.

Hard Rock International is the world's original curator of music memorabilia with the most far-reaching and world's greatest collection. Celebrating new and legendary music icons, the collection is showcased at Hard Rock Cafes, Hard Rock Live venues and Hard Rock Hotels and Casinos around the world. A fulltime staff oversees all aspects of the Hard Rock collection, from the initial procurement of an artifact to its maiden installation at a Hard Rock location. Among the pieces in the collection are photos, guitars and other instruments, clothing and costumes, platinum and gold LPs, posters and album art, and other rare music artifacts.

The story of the birth of Hard Rock's memorabilia collection is itself a part of music history. The collection started with a Eric Clapton guitar, a Fender Lead II. It was the beginning of something that nobody even knew was beginning.

It was just a joke among friends.

Back in the seventies, Clapton, the founder of Cream and Derek & the Dominoes, creator of the immortal "Layla", liked to eat at this quirky American diner in London called the Hard Rock Cafe. The place was this funky old building that used to be a Rolls Royce dealership, and it was run by a couple of young Americans who liked to keep it loose. Founded by Isaac Tigrett and Peter Morton, two enterprising and music-loving Americans, Hard Rock Cafe was an instant classic. You could be yourself at the Hard Rock. It was good food and a good time.

So Clapton got to be friends with the proprietors and asked them to save him a regular table, put up a brass plaque or something. And the young proprietors said, "Why don't we put up your guitar?" They all had a chuckle, and he handed over a guitar, and they slapped it on the wall.

No one thought much more about it. Until a week later, when another guitar arrived, a Gibson Les Paul. With it was a note from Pete Townshend of The Who which read: "Mine's as good as his. Love, Pete." The young proprietors put it on the wall. After that, the guitars never stopped coming.

In 1986 Hard Rock started its memorabilia collection by purchasing Sotheby's memorabilia collection. In 2015 Hard Rock purchased the Elvis Presley gold piano making it the 80,000th piece of music memorabilia in their collection. Today there are more than 80,000 guitars, drums, pianos, harmonicas, microphones, shirts, pants, scarves, shoes, handwritten lyrics, cars, bikes, a bus and assorted rock memorabilia - by far, the largest, most valuable such collection in the world - on the walls of over 200 locations in 74 countries around the world.

Only 50% of the memorabilia is donated while the rest is purchased from auctions or collections.

Some stars ask for a charity donation for the stuff. Others, particularly younger bands, prefer cash. Hard Rock won't take just any instrument or leopard skin cape. To qualify as memorabilia, items must have been used in commercial recording, live on stage or while writing a song.

In 1996 the Hard Rock brand is consolidated into the Rank Group bringing the cafe's and hotels under one roof. In 2007 the Seminole Tribe of Florida buys the Hard Rock International brand for $965 million.

The guitar that started it all.

Legendary artist Alan Aldridge created the original Hard Rock Cafe logo. From there one of the most notable logos on the planet was born.

Isaac Tigrett and Peter Morton

Isaac Tigrett and Peter Morton borrowed money from their parents to open a quirky restaurant. They were only 22 years old at the time, and they selected Park Lane in London's fashionable Mayfair district as the site of their 'Hard Rock Cafe.' The decor and menu contrasted sharply with the lavish hotels lining posh Park Lane, where strictly enforced dress codes were the norm, and hamburgers, milk shakes, and the music of the Rolling Stones most certainly were not.

Rita Gilligan, Hard Rock ambassador

She started serving since the Hard Rock opened on June 14, 1971 and continues to this day as an international ambassador.

Album Photo by Henry Diltz

Hard Rock Cafe in Los Angeles opened in 1970. The picture was used in the Doors album Morrison Hotel. A year after the album came out they got a call from England and the guy says 'Hello. Would you mind if we use that name on the back of your album? We're starting a cafe over here in London and we would like to use that name.' And they said, 'No, go ahead,' The rest is history.

Good Luck Brass Tokens

These brass and plastic promotional tokens were produced in 1991 by the Hard Rock Cafe and not the casino. They are not casino chips or tokens, just souvenirs. They also came in blue, green and yellow.

The Vault

The Vault, Orlando, Florida

The Hard Rock Vault, a 17,000-square-foot music memorabilia museum owned by Hard Rock Cafe International, was located at 8437 International Drive at the Mercado shopping plaza in Orlando; the same building that had previously housed the defunct Guinness World Records Experience museum.

The museum's "Total Immersion Tour" was a guided stroll through the various galleries including: "The Back Alley" (dedicated to punk rock), "The Psychedelic Meltdown" (from The Grateful Dead to Pink Floyd), "The Dressing Room" (rock 'n roll fashions), "The Light and The Dark" (the Beatles vs the Rolling Stones), and "The King's Chamber" (all about Elvis). The attraction also featured a listening room, poster and art display, a recreation of the original Memphis Sun Studios, and, of course, a Hard Rock gift shop.

The grand opening was held January 16, 2003. It closed in September, 2004. Apparently tourists weren't that interested in paying $14.95 to see the same kind of memorabilia they could see in a restaurant for the price of a cheeseburger. After the closing the various artifacts were distributed back to the Hard Rock chain's various restaurant collections.

The Vault and gift shop, London

The Vault in London originally opened to celebrate the Hard Rock Cafe's 30th birthday. A small selection of rare and priceless memorabilia representing the giants of Rock and Pop music has been gathered together and is now displayed in what was originally a bank vault located underneath the new Hard Rock merchandise shop at 1 Old Park Lane. Fans are welcome to take a guided tour and get a close and personal look, with no glass cases or velvet ropes, at these precious artifacts that tell the story of Rock n' Roll.

The Vault is often used by television companies, publications, and visiting celebrities and musicians for photo shoots.

Renegade Cafes

There were many “Renegade” Hard Rock Cafe’s which did not belong to Hard Rock International but they still used the same logo. Most of them opened before the Rank Group took over the label.

The Hard Rock Cafe Frankfurt for instance, was the second Hard Rock Cafe after London when it opened in February 1978. Like other Hard Rock Cafe’s in the world, they did not belong to the official chain.

These were some of the allegedly unofficial hard Rock Cafe’s: Amsterdam, closed in 1999, Athens, Ayia Napa Cyprus, Mombassa, Moscow, Mykonos, Paros, Protaras Cyprus, Rhodes Greece, Bochum, Chiang Mai, Formentera, Gran Canaria, Istanbul, Johannesburg, all closed in 2003. Frankfurt closed in 2007 and Sao Paulo is also closed. Many renegade cafes have turned into legitimate cafes.

Hard Rock Calling

The History of Hard Rock Calling Festival -
Last concert was in 2013

Hard Rock Calling (formerly Hyde Park Calling) was an annual music festival held in Hyde Park, London, which first took place on Saturday July 1 and Sunday July 2, 2006. The music played was primarily rock music, and various performers, including The Who, Aerosmith, Neil Young and Bruce Springsteen have played at the event. The festival was organized by Hard Rock Cafe and Live Nation.

The inaugural festival had two stages, and was headlined by Roger Waters (performing in its entirety the Pink Floyd album The Dark Side of the Moon as part of his set) and his band (featuring Pink Floyd drummer Nick Mason) on the Saturday and The Who on the Sunday. Gates opened at 2:00 and the show ended at 10:15 on both evenings. The Who's Sunday headline performance was released as part of their Encore Series 2006 of CDs & DVDs.

The festival was a peaceful one (in part probably because of the older demographic that the headline acts were targeting). Being inside the city the event required attendees to rely on external accommodation – unlike more popular festivals such as Download Festival or Reading and Leeds Festival, which require camping on site for most people.

Despite the veteran status of the headline acts, most other bands were younger and with a more 'contemporary' audience, providing a contrast in musical styles. Since this festival, Razorlight particularly has acquired much fame and in under a year has gone from second slot in a smaller inaugural event like Hyde Park Calling to headlining the long-running and respected Reading/Leeds Festival. The festival main stage proved to be unusually British, with the British Isles being represented by seven English bands and one Scottish, with only one American and one New Zealand band from abroad. However of the ten second stage bands, three were from Canada and two from the USA.

Hard Rock International announced that it will not stage its iconic open-air festival Hard Rock Calling in London in 2014.

“Hard Rock International looks forward to hosting new world-class music events, both in London and around the globe, and anticipates announcing major European music programmes shortly.”

Promoter Live Nation later said it intended to find a new sponsor to keep the “Calling franchise” alive.
