JAGUAR CAMP, THE RIVER ESSEQUIBO, GUYANA

FEBRUARY TO APRIL & SEPT TO NOVEMBER

THE TRIP

'Welcome to Guyana, and our Jaguar Explorer Camp'

Our Jaguar Explorer Camp just gets better and better, with two new locations located on the banks of the Upper Essequibo, both providing the best in sport fishing within the region.

Our twin camp adventure provides the sport angler with the ultimate in multi-species fishing with the real potential for that 'bucket list' capture. The trip runs between two camps, both on the upper reaches of the river, with each camp providing a differing and unique set of fishing opportunities.

- Downriver for giant Arapaima in the jungle's lakes and lagoons with Redtail, Surubim Cats, Peacock Bass and Payara on the main river,
- Upriver for the bigger Cats, more Peacock Bass, Payara and much, much more.

This trip offers so much to see and do, for solo anglers, couples, fishing partners, families (with kids of 9yrs and above), small groups, and even corporate events up to a maximum of twelve anglers at any one time.

Species include:

- Giant Arapaima.
- Catfish species including: Redtails, Piraiba and Jau.
- Catfish species including Flat Whiskered, Driftwood & Surubim.
- Payara (Vampire Fish), Peacock Bass (2 species).
- Pacu (Red & Black), Couti, Bicuda.
- Electric Eels and Stingray.
- Traira (Wolfish), Arowana.
- Piranha (sp), Jacunda.
- Dogfish, Pescada, plus just so much more.

With over three hundred known species within the River Essequibo, the opportunities are endless. Our camp tally currently sits at 47, so there is headroom for you to add more.

THE LOCATION

The River Essequibo

The Essequibo is the largest river in Guyana, and the largest river between the Orinoco and Amazon. Rising in the Acarai Mountains near the Brazil-Guyana border, the river flows to the north for 630 miles through forest and savanna into the Atlantic Ocean.

On location (time of season dependent), you will experience a diverse and exciting range of fishing landscapes including enticing sand bars, wild rapids, extensive rock gardens, deep catfish holes, tranquil lakes, and secluded lagoons, each of which will provide you with incredible angling and species opportunities, guaranteed to stretch both you and your tackle to the maximum.

OUR CAMPS

Camp one, is our brand new 'lodge', set within the heart of the jungle. Far enough back to avoid the high waters of the rainy season, this superb lodge serves as our base camp. Recently built, the lodge provides accommodation for twelve, with a huge deck, full kitchen / bar, with 24/7 power, showers, WCs, and the vital social area.

Camp two, is our mobile or 'fly camp' which is around 2 hrs downriver from the lodge. This is tented accommodation, but still retains a level of comfort, with shower / WC, mains power, camp kitchen and social area – but remember – it's the jungle and is more rustic than base camp. It is this camp that connects you to the incredible lakes and lagoons, brimming with Arapaima.

Food is local and plentiful. You will have a hearty breakfast, a 'day pack' whilst out fishing, and a wholesome evening meal, and there is always an ample supply of water, soft drinks, and beer, all maintained at a chilled temperature in the on-camp freezers or whilst fishing, in the cooler.

Both camps run a daily laundry service for your clothes and bedding, and whilst out fishing, our staff keep the camp safe and maintained. We have incredibly knowledgeable boat captains / guides who will keep you safe throughout your trip and will help and provide advice on the fishing to ensure you are 'on the spot'.

TRAVEL ADVICE: Covid-19 is not going away, and Guyana, like most other countries, has 'travel protocols' in place. Check your vaccination status, talk to your GP about your plans, and keep in contact with us, we will provide you with the latest travel advice for this trip.
