GCJPR JOINS METRO DISTRICT COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

We are delighted to introduce ourselves, Gordon C. James Public Relations (GCJPR), and look forward to providing you and the broader community with monthly updates and valuable insights important to the Metro District.

Through collaboration with the local businesses and community leaders, we are committed to overseeing the management of the Metro District to enhance its initiatives. We are excited to be your partners throughout this period of remarkable progress and growth.

We would also like to thank Shannon McBride for her stellar work in establishing the Metro District Community Collaboration. We look forward to building on her great foundation.

A Successful Training

Thank you to all the businesses that took part in the Authority to Arrest training program on April 16th. It was a day filled with valuable insights into maintaining safety within our local areas. Your participation emphasizes your commitment to security, and we thank you for your involvement in this initiative.

Authority to Arrest Program

Participate in the Authority to Arrest program to learn how your business can comply with certain requirements to allow the Phoenix PD to make arrests of trespassers on your property during non-business hours.

By participating and filing your ATA's, you'll qualify to receive FREE No Trespassing signs for your business. Join us in taking proactive measures for the benefit of our entire business community.
