My Go 2 Girl

Founders Speech

As the founder of My Go 2 Girl, I believe in sharing knowledge. I aim and strive to support as many starter VA's in their journey.

The value of our starter VA course, called Keep It Simple Stupid, or KISS, lays in the coaching calls. I guide you through the process of changing from employee to Girl Boss.

Yolandi

What it's about:

- 2 hours worth of one on one coaching calls
- What is a VA?
- Templates (for what you need)
- Intro to various VA software to use, with training
- Price lists designed specifically for what you do
- Advice on (and only if you want to or should) niche
- Email structure training
- Social media advice
- Script for making cold calls to get business in
- Access to information on other avenues to make money from home
- Which social media groups to follow for job leads and learning

Final note:

The course is customisable and we can add and replace things, that fit your specific need.

How long you take to do the course is in your hands, you can also split the 2 hour coaching calls as you like.

For the coaching calls, I use either Skype, Zoom or Facebook Messenger.

I look forward to connecting with you!
