The building will be open for your use one hour prior to the start time of your event. If more time is needed, please indicate above what time you need access to the building. We expect you to leave our park as you found it. Please refer to the attached “Rules & Use of Park Facilities.”

The Lillian Recreational Park is a not-for-profit park that depends solely on donations. We have no paid staff. Members of our Board of Directors are all volunteers who work hard to keep the Park beautiful and in good working order. We thank you for your support and appreciate your help in taking good care of the park and its facilities. We hope your event will be a success.
