October 2026 ED-PNCC Mission /Evangelism Prayer: Worship, Praise, and Celebrating					Worship is the result of having had an encounter with God. It is an outward expression	of profound honor, reverence, and devotion to God, Who is supreme, holy, and good.
Worship is more than a Sunday song or prayer in church, it encompasses all aspects of life.	We praise God for His character - for Who He is, and we thank God for what He has done.	Loving God and obeying His commands are outward proofs of authentic worship.	Every day we can celebrate the One Who has created us, saved us, and sustains us!	1 (Luke 10:1-12) Have I experienced the nearness of God? Can I share this with others?	2 Guardian angels are daily at our side, to light and guard, to rule and guide.	3 (Luke 10:17-24) “Rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”
4 “Restore us, Lord God Almighty, make Your face shine on us, that we may be saved.” Psalm 80:19	5 In knowing and loving Jesus we are set free to be all that the Father intends us to be.	6 “Eternal life means to know You, the only true God, and to know Jesus Christ, Whom You sent.” ~ John:17:3	7 Pray for us, O holy Mother of God , that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. †	8 (Luke 11:5-13) God answers prayer in His time and in His way. He knows best; be patient and trust in Him.	9 Read and pray Psalm 51. Confess your sin, receive His forgiveness, and tell others of His mercy and goodness to you.	10 (Luke 11:27-28) “Blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it!” May we be faithful and fruitful.
11 May our Christian Family be blessed as we revere God and walk in His ways. (See Psalm 128)	12 (“How Great Thou Art”) - Name something you recently experienced that revealed God’s greatness.	13 May our love for God express itself in our eagerness to do good for others. ~ ★(Liturgy of the Hours)	14 Read and pray Psalm 103. Think about the ways that God has blessed you; praise and thank Him. †	15 “You are God: we praise You; You are the Lord: we acclaim You” (Te Deum). Prayerfully read Psalm 147:1-11.	16“ God of mercy, guide us toward spiritual growth, fill our minds with thoughts of truth , justice and love.” ★	17 Lord, keep our hearts open to You, always ready to listen, to trust in Your guidance, and to obey. (See Luke 12:8-12)
18 “Sing to the Lord, praise His name; proclaim his salvation day after day.” Celebrate Him by praying Psalm 96.	19 St. Luke gave us the gospel message and proclaimed Christ as the dawn from on high. ★	20 Read and pray Psalm 24. How can you prepare your heart to welcome the King of Glory?	21 Read and ponder Luke 12:25-48. Jesus will come again. How are we preparing for His coming? †	22 “Praise be to the Lord, to God our Savior, Who daily bears our burdens.” (Ps.68:19) - Bring them to Him today.	23 “Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7). No need is too big or too small for prayer.	24 Archangel Raphael - his name means “God heals.” We pray for healing for our loved ones and for ourselves.
25 Read aloud and pray Psalm 18. Celebrate God Who is our Strength, our Rock, and our Deliverer.	26 Read Matt. 22:34-40 and consider: How do I love God with all my heart and my mind? Teach me, Holy Spirit.	27 Read Luke 13:18-21. What are my thoughts about the Kingdom of God? How do I imagine it? (Sacred Space)	28 Ss. Simon & Jude, apostles -”Their message goes out through all the earth.” Read and pray Psalm 19 aloud. †	29 Read Psalm 25 aloud and prayerfully consider those verses which stand out to you. Tell God what’s on your mind.	30 “Once you have surrendered yourself, you make yourself receptive...	31...In receiving from God, you are perfected and completed.” - Ven. Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

† Wednesday noon prayer: Almighty and Eternal God, with Your holy Presence bless our home and all who live here. Graciously grant that we may enjoy spiritual and physical well-being and our home be filled with piety, goodness, love and peace. May Your holy angels guard and protect us from all harm and danger. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. †
