GRAND KNIGHT REPORT

Grand Knight Report,

Summer is coming to a quick end. The kids are heading back to school. The Fall Festival can not be far behind. The dates for the Fall Festival 7th, 8th and 9th of Oct. We still have many volunteer slots to fill. We need everyone to sign up. The shifts are only two (2) hours long. Please sign up as often as you can. The sign up sheet will be at the planning and business meeting during the month of September. Let's make this another successful festival.

The Knights first annual John "Rob" Baker Golf Tournament is fast approaching. The date is Saturday the 24th of September at Tanglewood Golf Club.. We will have a 1 P.M. Shot Gun start. You don't have to be a Great Golfer to play. The format is best ball. Which means the best ball is selected out of the four shots. The rules are simple. This is just a fun Tournament. We will be Honoring one of our Brother knights who has gone to be with the Lord. So come out and show your support both for the Knights and our Brother Knight Rob.

That's it for this month. May God Bless you and your family.

Fraternally,
John Recke GK

"Being unwanted, unloved, uncared for, forgotten by everybody, I think that is a much greater hunger, a much greater poverty than the person who has nothing to eat." ~ Mother Teresa

We would like to mention that Sunday September 11 will be the 10th anniversary of that tragic day when over 3000 innocent individuals lost their precious lives. We must not forget. Please fly the American flag at your home, at least until then, to honor them. We will also be doing something at the masses that week-end to recognize the Police, Fireman and EMT's of our Parish.

We are also asked the next Sunday to help with the "Saint San Lorenzo Ruiz De Manila Celebration Mass" - September 18 10:30 Mass. Other dates to remember in October are Fall Festival, Columbus day Commemoration and the St Rose of Lima Fall Festival. Plans are also in the works for Veterans Day Parade and Dinner and in December a float at the Milton Christmas Parade.

DEACON'S TEACHING ARTICLES

Is the Eucharist Truly the Body and Blood of Christ?

by Deacon Christopher

In his First Letter to the Corinthians (11:23-26), St. Paul echoes the words of Jesus over the bread and wine at the first Eucharist, the Last Supper: "This is my body... This is my blood" (Mt. 26:26-28). Nothing in these passages suggest that our Lord was speaking only symbolically.

In fact, Jesus stated repeatedly that whoever would eat his flesh and drink his blood would have eternal life (Jn 6:51-56). When some of his listeners had objected to this statement and had left him as a result (Jn 6:52, 60, 66), he didn't call them back, saying, "Wait a minute! You misunderstood! I was only speaking symbolically." Instead, he let them go.

If they had in fact misunderstood Jesus - if He had been speaking only figuratively - would He have let them go, considering that their eternal destiny as at stake? Wouldn't He instead have cleared up the confusion to spare them unnecessary scandal? No doubt. But Jesus was in fact speaking literally. Read the entire "Discourse on the Bread of Life", Jn 6:30-60, to get a feel for how hard Jesus tried to get his listeners to accept this teaching on the Eucharist.

St. Luke's account of the disciples' encounter with the risen Lord on the road to Emmaus also points to Christ's real presence in the Eucharist. There our Lord took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them - whereupon they recognized him - and then physically vanished from their midst (Lk 24:30-31). Later, when they reported to the apostles what they had witnessed, they told "how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread" (Lk 24:35).

As a side note, this "Road to Emmaus" incident can be likened to the two part structure of the mass: The Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The travelers who were "foolish" and "slow of heart to believe" were first instructed by Jesus, "beginning with Moses and the prophets", everything in the scriptures that referred to him - Liturgy of the Word. He then "took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them" - The Eucharist (Lk 24:13-31).

If any doubts remain about the intent of Jesus' words, we need only consult the words of St. Ignatius of Antioch (and so many other Church Fathers), who learned his faith from and was consecrated as bishop by men who had been at that first Eucharist. Ignatius wrote, "The Eucharist is the flesh of our savior Jesus Christ, who suffered for our sins and who, in his goodness, the Father raised."

The change of bread and wine into the body and Blood of Christ (called "transubstantiation") is of course a mystery we will never fully understand. But even though we may find it difficult to imagine how this event takes place, we can be sure that the God who created the universe out of nothing has the power to accomplish this miracle as well.

In our next article we'll ask, "Why Can't Non-Catholics Partake in the Eucharist?"

Ladies Auxiliary Notes:

Well folks, we have just had our Auxiliary meeting on August 10th, after taking a break in July. What an action packed meeting. That President didn't give us much time to think about things.

Looks like we will be busy with a number of things,

Clergy Night, where we honor our religious who serve us so faithfully, on September 9th (that's a Friday night). Social begins at 6 p.m. Dinner at 7 p.m. with Comments following. Tickets are $8.00 per Single and $15.00 a couple. Come and enjoy a wonderful Dinner and good company.

Next stop along this huge calendar of events is the Knights Family Breakfast. I just know that all of you have missed this fantastic once a month gathering and especially all the good food. From what I hear it is going to be a great breakfast. So come and enjoy, you don't have to cook. Now while you are at breakfast you can stop off at the Bakery Corner and get some of those homemade baked goods to take home for the rest of the day or week. Joan is gearing up for lots of goodies for everyone. If you have not signed up to help or bake give Joan a call at 981 - 1061, she would love to hear from you.

Well, I know that you do not want to miss out on getting your 'HANDMADE HOLIDAY GOURMET CHEESE BALL' made, so that you can have them for the holiday's. Linda Burkhalter will have a table at the Breakfast and in the Church Vestibule for your convenience. (see additional article elsewhere for details)

If you golfed at one time and haven't for awhile why don't you consider signing up and getting a team together to Golf in the John Robert Memorial Golf Tournament at Tanglewood Golf Course on September 24th. Cost is $40.00 per person. If you have friends who golf and would like to participate contact John Recke 981 - 8078 or Kateri Baker .at 206 - 3334. Proceeds goes to Special Olympics.

Thanks to all who brought food items to share with those who are less fortunate. Don't forget to bring them to the next meeting in September.

Thank you Ladies for all your help with providing food for the fall festival workers and bring food for the Feast of St. Roe on August 21st and helping with everything. Your time and talents are greatly appreciated.

The Knights has a Social every Friday night beginning at 5:30 p.m. in the Knights building. We all bring a dish of something to share, enjoy each others good company and some case try to solve the worlds aches and pains, which we can't. Come and join us.

Next meeting will be September 14th at 9:30 a.m. in the Knights building.

God Bless,
Martha Skalsky, Publicity
