GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

Brother Knights In Christ:

I want to take this opportunity to especially thank Analyn Dixson, Tom Kubalewski, Jason Ybarra, Ron Winn, David Hinkle, Bruce Donatelli, Gene Skalsky, Martha Skalsky and Ed Faxlanger that help the Valentine's Dinner Party be such a success. And the Hilton Garden staff which includes Debra Rose/ Assistant Food and Beverage Director, Thierry Reverse/Executive Chef, Alysa Iorio/ Sales Coordinator and their server staff who have worked so hard to bring that day together. And thank you all that came to the Valentine's Dinner Party. The 2018 Valentine's Dinner Party was a big success. I want to congratulate Deacon Massey who won the Bottle of Hearts game who guess 1,587 hearts who came close to the number of candy hearts in the bottle which was 1,600 hearts. And congratulations to Margo Recke who won the door prize.

The winner of the 2018 Mr. and Ms. Valentine was Tim and Liz Maynard. Congratulations!

We move forward to March which eventually brings Spring. Spring officially begins on March 20th, when night and day are approximately the same length. However, before that, on March 10, Daylight Savings Time begins as we set our clocks AHEAD one hour.

As we do spring cleaning, washing away the dirt and grime that accumulates during the winter months, so too Lent is a time for cleansing our souls and our hearts, making them a beautiful dwelling place for the Lord. The season of Lent is the herald of a new springtime in our spiritual lives. A sign of hope for a more Christ-centered way of life. Penance practice are indicators and tools of God's mercy which is always available to us. With this outlook in mind, let's briefly review the three principal Lenten practices, with our eyes fixed on the goal of renewed spiritual joy and greater holiness of life.

Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are in fact inseparable. In this way, our Lenten observance leads us to experience a renewed life in Christ and joy in the Holy Spirit.

The practice of charity is how we open the windows of our souls to God's love, forgetting our own wants and needs and concentrating instead on the needs of others, especially the poor and vulnerable.

The fresh air of Jesus is self giving love circulates through our inmost being, and we are thus spiritually given new energy. For us as Knights, this practice of charity should be second nature.

Let this Lenten season become the breath of fresh air in your spiritual walk with Christ. Let us entrust ourselves to Jesus, let us give ourselves over to him, because he never disappoints anyone. Have courage as you do not have to carry your cross alone as Jesus carries it with you. Remember, the certainty of the faithful love which God has for us is a treasure that no one else can give. Teaching us always to look upon others with mercy and tenderness, especially those who suffer. So make a promise to yourself to improve upon who you are today for the person you will become tomorrow.

DEACON'S TEACHING By Deacon Chris Christopher

Iconoclasm Heresy (Greek for "image-breaking")

People who support iconoclasm are called iconoclasts. In a Byzantine context, people who revere or venerate religious images and statues are known as iconodules, or iconophiles.

In Christianity, iconoclasm has generally been motivated by a literal interpretation of the Ten Commandments, which forbid the making and worshipping of "graven images" per se:

Judaism: King Hezekiah purged the Temple of pagan symbols

Romans destroyed Christian images

Islam against Christianity, Buddhism, and ancient Arabian cultures

Protestants against Catholicism

1700s Easter Island large stone heads toppled in

French Revolution

Russian Revolution

Communist China revolution

In 695 Justinian II put a full-face image of Christ on the obverse of his gold coins. The effect on iconoclast opinion is unknown, but the change caused Caliph Abd al-Malik to break permanently with his previous adoption of Byzantine coin types to start a purely Islamic coinage with lettering only.

Sometime between 726-730, the Byzantine Emperor Leo III began the iconoclast campaign. He ordered the removal of an image of Jesus prominently placed over the ceremonial entrance to the Great Palace of Constantinople, and its replacement with a cross.

THE ICONOCLAST POSITION

1. The only true and permitted "icon" of Jesus was the Eucharist, which was believed to be his actual body and blood. The assertion being that the biblical commandment forbidding images of God had been superseded by the incarnation of Jesus, who, being the second person of the Trinity, is God incarnate in visible matter. Therefore, the Eucharist was not depicted as the invisible God, but God as He appeared in the flesh.

2. By making an icon of Jesus, one separates his human and divine natures, since only the human can be depicted (separating the natures was considered nestorianism).
3. Combining Jesus' two natures into just one nature (monophysitism) conflicted with Christ being both human and divine without division or separation.

THE ICONODULES POSITION

By 780 an ecumenical council needed to be held to address the issue of Iconoclasm. On 24 September 787 a second general council was reassembled at Nicaea (Nicæa II). During those proceedings the following was adopted:... "the production of representational art is quite in harmony with the history of the spread of the gospel, as it provides confirmation that the becoming man of the Word of God was real and not just imaginary." Jesus, "The Word", the incarnation of God on earth, himself was an icon.

In Exodus 25:18-22 Moses was instructed by God to make golden statues of cherubim angels on the lid of the Ark of the Covenant, and

In Exodus 26:31 God instructed Moses to embroider the curtain which separated the Holy of Holies in the Tabernacle with cherubim.

John of Damascus declared that he did not venerate matter, "but rather the creator of matter." However, he also declared, "But I also venerate the matter through which salvation came to me, as if filled with divine energy and grace." He includes in this latter category the ink in which the gospels were written as well as the paint of images, the wood of the Cross, and the body and blood of Jesus.

In a 'nutshell', images, statues, art work, etc. (icons), depicting God and his plan of salvation for mankind are to be encouraged because the Savior of mankind himself is an icon of God the Father.

Next month we'll look at, How Has God Revealed Himself?

Fourth Degree St. Teresa of Calcutta Assembly 2823

Worthy Sir Knights,

As we get into our gulf coast spring (seems we went from winter straight to summer), please be a participant in this Lenten season, not an observer. Avail yourself of the grace granted us by the sacrifice of our Savior, Jesus Christ. And, as we "gear up" for the spring, remember we have a big event scheduled for April 14th, 2018. It is going to be called the B-B-Q Under The Pines Cook-off. The Assembly (lead on this event) voted to host it at St. Rose of Lima and we have the blessing of Msgr Reed to carry on with the event. In addition to the BBQ Cook-off, we will host a Horse Shoe Tournament, Corn Hole Tournament, a Log-Saw competition (for the lumberjack in some of us), some games for the kids, lots of food, music, and Biergarten of sorts set up on the Pavilion. Now, I need as many knights as I can muster to help us out. It is a 1-day event, so we can all pitch in for a few hours and cover everything without straining any one person too much. No, I DO NOT need you all to volunteer for the biergarten! Thanks, but we also need help to manage the events and help with the Cook-off. This is a joint event with our council. This way, both the Council and the Assembly can claim it on the program submissions next year. By the council meeting on the 8th, I will have a sign-up sheet available. Please, please, please help us out for a few hours.

If you know anyone with a business or company, we could always use a bit of "sponsor interest" (cash/check, some door prize type coupons or certificates). I will have a form letter you can present to your friends or business acquaintances asking for their participation. I really want this to be in the Milton/Pace/Gulf Breeze/Navarre communities. This is going to be "our" (Santa Rosa County) event and we want to ask for community support and participation and provide some benefit to: #1 – Our parish, #2 – our local community project(s) that will benefit our local folks. If the Assembly and Council can break even, we did good – especially for the first year. I will also have a projected budget available at the Council and Assembly meetings this month for everyone to see and review. I encourage suggestions and ideas!

Lastly, to avoid a conflict with the church service scheduled for March 15th, we will postpone our March Assembly meeting until March 22nd, 7pm. Please note that on your calendars or smart phones.

Vivat Jesus,
Ron Winn, PGK, FDD, RD1
Faithful Navigator, #2823
