GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

GEORGE ELLIOTT

Happy New Year! With Advent upon us, a new liturgical year begins for our Holy Church. Let's take the time to reflect on what this season means. At Saint Rose of Lima Catholic Church, there are several events to help us, including the Advent Day of Reflection on December 7 and the Advent Penance Service on December 10. Please take the time to review the newsletter calendar so you don't miss out.

In November, thanks to Brother Knight Jim Cashman's inquiry, we learned that a member of our council, Father Edward McMahon, had passed away. Father McMahon's obituary lists some very interesting things about his life. I am sorry that I never met him. Please check out the feature about Father McMahon in this issue (page 8).

Also last month, Brother Knight Clayton Gremillion joined our council at the Admission Degree on November 18. Please be sure to introduce yourself to Brother Clayton and welcome him.

The Knights of Columbus Christmas Party is Friday, December 13. Doors will open for us to socialize at 5:30 pm, and our traditional buffet-style Christmas dinner will begin at 6 pm. The main dishes (turkey, ham and such) will be provided. We ask that you bring a side dish based on the first letter of your last name. If your last name begins with the letters A through H, please bring a dessert. If you are in the I-Q group, please bring a vegetable. And if your last initial is R through Z, please bring a salad.

As usual, if you would like to participate in the Dirty Santa Gift Exchange, please bring a wrapped gift. Men bring men gifts, women bring women gifts. The cost of each gift should not exceed $20.00 and can be significantly less.

Don't forget – we will be having our Fourth Thursday Special Dance on December 26 in the Parish Hall. If you haven't been to one yet, you have to check it out. If you have been, I don't have to tell you how much fun it is. Last month, one of the parents told me that our volunteers don't realize how much these dances mean to the kids and their families. Throughout each month, these kids are simply left out of many other activities. But, this father told me, at these dances the kids can fully participate, and brings joy to them and their families.

As the year winds down, I ask that you take the time to fill out the enclosed Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity – Individual Member Worksheet (page 9). The information gathered from individual council members is vital as the council prepares its annual report to Supreme Council. The compiled data serves several important purposes, including protecting our tax-exempt status and telling our story as the premier Catholic family-centered fraternal organization in the world. When our story is told, men want to be a part of it. You can turn in the survey at our December or January meeting, mail it to the council's PO box (PO Box 951, Milton 32572), or email it to info@kofc7027.com. Thanks in advance for turning it in.

Thank you for all your charitable deeds, words of encouragement, and prayers for the benefit of our council, our Church, and our community. My wife, Nina, and I wish you a very holy and happy Advent and Christmas season.

Vivat Jesus!

FIELD AGENT'S REPORT

We seem to say it ever year, "It's almost Christmas, where has the year gone?" As we look back we measure the passing of the seasons, from one holiday to the next, and see how our lives have changed over that time. Christmas and the end of the year mark a milestone for most of us. The season gives us pause to thank God for sending his only-begotten Son to redeem us and it is a time to reflect on all the gifts we've received from him. God's gift to us inspires the gift-giving so many of us enjoy at Christmastime. We certainly enjoy receiving those gifts, but reflect for a moment of what the giving of gifts does for the gift-giver. Some gift-givers aren't so good with words, so they use gifts: Remember "Say it with flowers," the slogan of FTD. Some get a sense of satisfaction in seeing the happiness of the recipient, some feel appreciation that they are able to share what God has given them. It seems to fulfill the need to please, encourage or help someone. It makes us feel good to give. As I look back at 2019, I can't help but think of all of the selfless members of the Order who gave gifts to help others. As our Supreme Knight highlighted in his address at the Supreme Convention just a few months ago we are "Knights of Charity." And we prove this every day with the many people who give of themselves; give of their time, their talent or their treasure, to help those less fortunate and those in need.

Supreme Knight Anderson spoke about the disaster relief provided by our Knights of Charity; $4.2 million supporting hurricane victims alone. The one thousandth ultrasound machine has been placed in service to help save more unborn children. He talked about our mission of charity to the Middle East and the Christian community there that faces extinction. More than $20 million has provided food, shelter, clothing and a new 140 unit apartment building for Christians and those of other religions who need our help. Knights of Charity helped provide coats for more than 105,000 kids who will now stay warm this winter.

Knights are known for their generosity. We are indeed, Knights of Charity.

All of these important initiatives help many others, but don't forget about your own family... and I'm not talking about gifts that you'll put under the tree. This holiday season as we think of giving and receiving, when we think of all the good gifts we have been given and all we are able to give, make sure you give your family the gift of peace of mind. Secure in the knowledge that whatever challenges they may face, you have protected them.

The Knights of Columbus has the products that will do just that: Provide financially for your family if you aren't here, make sure you have enough for a comfortable retirement, give the care needed if you can't care for yourself and make sure all of this comes to pass if you are sick or hurt and can't work. It's painless to sit down with me to analyze your particular situation.

As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, let us be thankful for all the graces God has showered on us, especially the gift of his Son, our Savior! As Isaiah 9:5 says: For a child is born to us, a son is given to us; upon his shoulder dominion rests. They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace. (New American Bible, Revised Edition)

May God bless all,

WE ARE KNIGHTS, WE ARE PRO-LIFE!

DEACON'S TEACHING By Deacon Chris Christopher

What Is The Millennium?

What exactly is the nature of the "millennium" – that is, the "thousand-year" reign of Christ with his saints as described in Revelation (20:1-10)?

I. Some Christians, among them a few of the ancient Church Fathers, have taken what is called the "premillennial" interpretation of the verses. This position holds that after Christ returns to the earth in glory, He will reign for a thousand years in a literal earthly kingdom before judgment Day and the end of the world. Premillennialists teach that this period will be a golden age of natural, social, moral, economic, and political conditions.

The Church, however, eventually rejected this interpretation. In one statement on the Church's position, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith replied in 1944 to a formal query about the teaching "that Christ the Lord before the final judgment...will come visibly to rule over this world." The Church's answer to the question was: "This notion 'cannot be taught safely.'"

II. "Postmillennialists," under the influence of the Protestant reformer John Calvin, teach that the kingdom of God is now being extended throughout the world by preaching the gospel, social activism, and the work of the Holy Spirit through conversions. Through this process, the world will eventually be Christianized. Then at the end of this "millennium" (figuratively 'a long time'), Christ will return to earth at the climax of a long period of righteousness and peace.

The Catholic Church rejects this view as well. As the Catechism (677) teaches: "The kingdom will be fulfilled, then, not by a historic triumph of the Church through a progressive ascendancy, but only by God's victory over the final unleashing of evil, which will cause his Bride to come down from heaven (Rv 13:8; 20:7-10; 2:2-4)." "

III. Since the time of St. Augustine, most Catholics have tended toward the so-called "amillennial" ("no millennium") position he made popular. Amillennialists might more accurately be termed "present millennialists," because they do believe in the "millennium" referred to in Revelation Ch. 20. But they insist that the "thousand years" refer symbolically to the present age between Christ's two advents rather than to some era in the future.

St. Augustin's views on this issue, though they have dominated Catholic thinking for many centuries, have not been officially adopted by the Church. In fact, the magisterium has never defined the "millennium" that St. John saw in his vision; it has only rejected certain interpretations of the term.

Next month we'll ask, Are Catholics 'Born Again'?

Some Thoughts on Advent

Beginning the Church's liturgical year, Advent: (from, "ad-venire" in Latin or "to come to")

The season encompassing the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas.

The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

Some traditions and Advent devotions including the Advent Wreath, which remind us of the meaning of the season.

An Advent calendar also can help as well to fully enter in to the season with daily activity and prayer suggestions to prepare you spiritually for the birth of Jesus Christ.

One can be found at the USCCB's website. <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year/advent/>

I encourage all Sir Knights to spend some time during this Advent Season, AWAY from the distractions, the sporting events, the food, the shopping, all of which are in themselves not bad, but can become a distraction from our much needed Preparation for the Nativity of our Lord ; Christmas, which is the reason for the Season.

I wish all a Blessed and fruitful Advent Season and a Merry Christmas

Until our next appointed meeting, 19 December

WE ARE KNIGHTS, WE ARE PRO-LIFE!

McMahon, Edward J.

Died 16 July 2014

Jesuit Father Edward J. McMahon died on July 16, 2014, at Murray-Weigel Hall in the Bronx, New York. Aged 84, he was born in Bergenfield, New Jersey, of Arthur and Lillian (Smith) McMahon on Nov. 19, 1929. A Jesuit for 66 years, after completing his secondary school at Xavier High School in New York City, he entered the Society of Jesus on Sept. 7, 1947, at the Jesuit novitiate of St. Andrew-on-Hudson in Poughkeepsie, New York.

He professed his first vows there two years later and then continued his college studies in the juniorate from 1949-51. He studied philosophy at West Baden College in Indiana (1951-54) and then returned to Xavier High School where as a seminarian he taught Latin and English from 1954-57.

For the study of theology in preparation for priesthood he moved south to Woodstock College in Woodstock, Maryland (1957-61). He was ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal Spellman at the Fordham University Church on June 18, 1960, and thus served as a priest for 54 years. His final year of Jesuit formation, tertianship, was at Port Townsend in Washington, 1961-62. His first assignment was to be assistant director of the Jesuit Seminary and Mission Bureau in New York (1962-65). His service to the missions led him to volunteer and then travel to the newly established mission in Nigeria. From 1965-67 he served as chaplain at the University of Nigeria in Nsukka, Nigeria. The civil war there forced his return to the U.S. From 1967-70 he directed retreats at Gonzaga Retreat House in Monroe, New York.

In 1970 he began a long career, 21 years of service, as a chaplain in the United States Navy, retiring in 1990 as Commander and Chaplain in the United States Navy of Seal Team One.

He returned to retreat ministry in 1991 based at Auriesville, New York. In 1993 he was assigned to the Jesuit community at Xavier High School in New York. He was the director of the Catholic Medical Mission Board (1994-95) and then engaged in pastoral ministry, including part-time chaplain to veterans at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in New York City. Always eager to be of service, he then served as chaplain to the New York Yankees baseball team for eleven years, celebrating Mass for team members and staff (and an occasional umpire) before Sunday games at Yankee Stadium. He remarked that it was "a great treat to work with the Yankees," and described them as "a great bunch of guys." In April 2013, due to declining health, he was assigned to the Jesuit infirmary, Murray-Weigel Hall, where he passed away.
