Grand Knight's Report

George Elliott

Dear Brother Knights and Families,

We welcome three new brother knights to our order and to our council. Brother Hugh "Buzz" McCaffery IV was proposed by Brother Mike Stafford. Brother Hugh McCaffery V was proposed by Brother Jeff Fischer. Brother Benjamin Paul was proposed by Brother Cesar Mascardo. Congratulations and welcome to our new brother knights.

Thank you all our knights, knights' families, and parishioners for participating in the Emerald Coast Walk for Life. Special thanks to Deacon Jeff Massey for driving the Saint Rosa of Lima parish bus. After listening to inspiring speakers, we walked for a little over a mile in downtown Pensacola. The sheer number of people in attendance was really impressive. Everyone who went seemed pretty enthusiastic about participating again next January.

Thanks also to all of you who submitted your Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity worksheets, and to Worthy Financial Secretary Bill McDonald for providing charitable contribution data for 2021. Based on all the input, we reported that for 2021 we provided $7,620 in charitable assistance and 27,482 volunteer hours during the second year of the pandemic!

Our planning meeting will be on Thursday, February 3, at 7 pm. We have several activities and events to plan, and your input is important and very welcome.

Our regular monthly meeting will be on Thursday, February 10 at 7 pm. Please plan to participate in the meeting. Both the planning meeting and the regular monthly meeting are open to all knights, and both meetings are in-person and online. Please see the details elsewhere in this newsletter. Whether it's in person or online, please plan to share some time with your fellow knights.

As a reminder, before our monthly meetings, we gather on the second Thursday of each month in the Saint Rose of Lima Chapel for Vespers at 6:00 PM. We're blessed to have one of our deacons, recently Deacon Phil Czajkowski, to lead us in praying The Divine Office. There's always room for more knights to give glory and praise to God before our meetings.

A Valentine's Comedy Night, benefiting The Majella House is Saturday, February 12. See the information in this newsletter. The Majella House is the area's only maternity home ministry dedicated to homeless pregnant mothers.

We have many opportunities to grow in faith and fraternity in the coming weeks. Please see the calendar in this newsletter, and take advantage of these opportunities. If you cannot be with us physically, please pray with us and for us, and know that we are praying for you.

Vivat Jesus! Blessed Michael McGivney, pray for us!

Field Agent's Report

jeff.fischer@kofc.org <https://www.facebook.com/KofCfischer>

Love is in the air! We spend a lot of time thinking about our loved ones during the month of February and especially around Valentine's Day. Technically, it's St. Valentine's Day, originally the feast day of a Roman saint from the third century. There is much speculation about the origins of the feast and even some discussion about the identity of the saint. We do know that this St. Valentine was martyred on February 14, 269 and the feast day was instituted by Pope Gelasius I in 496. But how did St. Valentine, a martyr, come to be associated with love and romance? Again, there is much speculation and one popular story is that he cured the blind daughter of his jailer. Before he was led off to his death, he wrote her a note and signed it "Your Valentine."

Unlike St. Valentine, most of us are not called to martyrdom, but we do think about our loved ones...and we write love notes and greeting cards. Gifts are commonly given to the ones we love. But have you ever considered some special gifts for the ones you love?

That's really what insurance is all about. People buy insurance because they love someone. I bought life insurance because I love my wife and children. If I'm not here to provide for them I want to make sure they can stay in the same home we love. Many say, "I want to make sure that my children will have the college education they will need; I want my family to continue to live the lifestyle I've been so fortunate to be able to provide." My policy even has living benefits that I can enjoy!

More to consider. I want to make sure that if I am sick or hurt and can't work, my family still has money coming in to pay the bills. Disability Income Insurance helps provide for that. I've been able to provide a certain lifestyle for my family, but sometime down the road, I'll take the assets I've accumulated and retire. Long Term Care Insurance helps me protect those assets in case of an extended care event. You shouldn't have to spend down all that you've saved to pay for care...you can shift that risk to the Knights. My retirement annuities will help my wife and me enjoy our golden years. With a lifetime minimum interest rate guarantee I know I'll always be in the black with my account.

All the products we have available are centered around protection; protection for me, for my family and for what I've been able save. Is your protection where you want it to be for your loved ones?

At this Valentine's Day, let's sit down; you, me and your wife and see where you stand. Make sure you have insured your love. Go ahead and buy that greeting card, write her a love note...maybe even get a beautiful arrangement of flowers or a dozen roses. But remember, the gift of protection will be there when it's needed most.

Vivat Jesus and May God bless you all.

Deacon's Teaching

When Do We Bow Our Heads at Mass?

The faithful are asked to make this simple gesture several times during the liturgy.

Among the lesser-known gestures at Mass is the action of bowing the head. It is a simple movement used in many different cultures as a sign of respect and has its own place within the Catholic liturgy.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) explains, "A bow signifies reverence and honor shown to the persons themselves or to the signs that represent them. There are two kinds of bows: a bow of the head and a bow of the body [also known as a profound bow]." The GIRM then lays out several moments during the Mass when those present should bow:

1) During the Creed – "The Creed is sung or recited by the priest together with the people (no. 68) with everyone standing. At the words et incarnatus est (by the power of the Holy Spirit . . . and became man) all make a profound bow; but on the solemnities of the Annunciation and of the Nativity of the Lord, all genuflect" (GIRM 137).

2) After the consecration (if you are not kneeling) – "In the dioceses of the United States of America, [the faithful] should kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer, except when prevented on occasion by reasons of health, lack of space, the large number of people present, or some other good reason. Those who do not kneel ought to make a profound bow when the priest genuflects after the consecration" (GIRM 43).

3) Before receiving the Holy Eucharist at Communion – "When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister" (GIRM 160).

4) During a solemn blessing at the end of Mass – "If a prayer over the people or a solemn formula for the blessing is used, the deacon says, Inclinate vos ad benedictionem (Bow down and pray for God's blessing)" (GIRM 185).

5) When hearing the name of God or specific saints – "A bow of the head is made when the three Divine Persons are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated" (GIRM 275). As an aside, you'll notice that we are in a short period of Ordinary time between Christmas Tide and Lent. Due to Easter being a moveable feast, this year that interval will only be seven weeks long.

Next month we'll take a quick look at Ash Wednesday and the Lenten Season.

Pray for Dobbs

When we step back, it's shocking that God, in the person of Jesus, entered the world as a vulnerable baby. And yet this baby would grow up and die on the Cross for the sins of the world (John 3:16-17). The pro-life implications of the Incarnation are stunning and motivate us to work for a culture that honors, values, and protects life.

Our work is not over until abortion is unthinkable, which is why we must continue devoting ourselves to prayer and fasting in the coming months, especially as we await a decision from the U.S. Supreme Court in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization.

To that end, we will be sending out monthly emails with prayers and information related to the case. Additionally, we will host a monthly prayer call with national leaders that you can join.

As we celebrate the birth of Christ, let us recommit to loving, serving, and honoring God in the new year by seeking to protect his precious gift of life.

P.S. Invite your friends and family to join Pray for Dobbs!

Emerald Coast Walk For Life - January 15, 2022

Keynote Speaker Kristan Hawkins

Students For Life President Kristan Hawkins delivered the keynote speech at the Gazebo in Seville Square Saturday, January 15, 2022, prior to the Emerald Coast Walk For Life in Pensacola. Her remarks centered on the probable changes that would be handed down by the U.S. Supreme Court this year and how it will affect Roe v. Wade and abortion availability in this country. More pictures of the march follow on the next page.

St Rose Of Lima Food Pantry

In the food pantry for the month of December we fed 1037 people. Our last year's total for people fed was 9606 people. We continue to see a great need for food in our community.

Last year we received 38757 pounds of food donations from our partner Winn-Dixie. We also must thank our generous parishioners for donations of rice, beans, cereal, peanut butter and other staples that help us feed the hungry.

I again must thank all our volunteers for their help, because without them none of this would be possible.

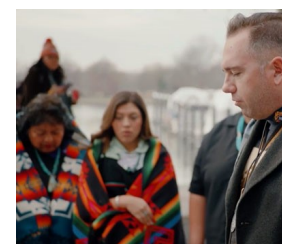

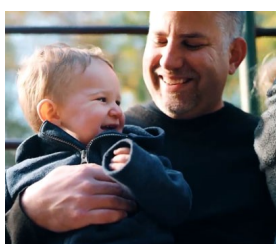

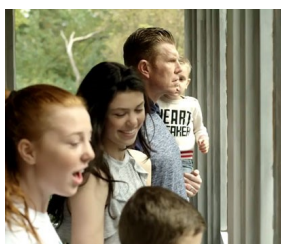

O glorious St. Joseph, model of all who labor, obtain for me the grace to work in the spirit of penance in expiation for my numberless sins; preferring devotion to duty to my inclinations; to work with joy and gratitude, regarding it as an honor to develop and employ by work the gifts which I have received from God; to work with order, peace, patience, and moderation, without ever recoiling before weariness and difficulties; to work, especially, with a pure intention and detached from myself, ever having death before my eyes and the account which I must give for time lost, for talents unused, for good omitted, and for vain satisfaction in success, so fatal to the work of God.

- Blessed Hyacinth Marie Cormier
