The Magnificat The Prayer Of Mary

*My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
and my spirit exults in God my Savior,
For he has looked upon his handmaid in her lowliness;
henceforth all ages will call me blessed.
For the Almighty has done great things for me,
And holy is his name.
His loving mercy is from age to age
for those who fear him.
He has made known the strength of his arm,
and has scattered the proud of heart.
He has put down the mighty from their thrones
and has exalted those who are lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and has sent the rich away empty.
He has always helped Israel his servant,
mindful of his loving mercy.
Even as he promised our fathers,
to Abraham and his descendants forever.*

Michael Stafford

My brothers and to all who read this newsletter - greetings!

Thank you PGK George Elliott for your steadfast and faith-filled leadership the past three years, especially for piloting our council through the turbulent waters of the COVID-19 pandemic. Thank you to past and present council officers for your faithful support of the council and the values of the Knights of Columbus. And thank you to all of you that have contributed to our council in any way. Even the smallest and unnoticed contribution is important and needed.

It is my prayer and hope that I will be able to serve you my brothers, our church and our community well. Therefore, as Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly did, I also consecrate my time as Grand Knight to St. Joseph. I ask for his help, guidance and intercession with our Lord Jesus to enable me to do my best in serving you. I ask for your support and patience in that endeavor.

Prayer: O blessed St. Joseph, faithful guardian of virgins, to whom God entrusted Jesus and Mary. I implore you by the love you didst bear them to preserve me from every defilement of soul and body, so that I may always serve them in holiness and purity of love. Amen.

I ask that if you know of any brother knight or family member that is in need of prayers or assistance to please let me know. I can be reached at:

309-453-5860 mikedeb75@gmail.com

I was at the grocery store and the cashier had on a T-shirt that said "Unity is Awesome" so I leave you with that thought.

Vivat Jesus!

Blessed Michael McGivney. Pray for us.
St. Joseph. Pray for us.

On June 9, 2022 a check for $1,000.00 donation was presented to Ms. KeithAnn Campbell, Executive Director of Santa Rosa Kids House. The funds for this donation were raised at the May, 2022 Knights of Columbus, Council 7027 Pancake Breakfast and presented by, Worthy Treasurer, Dale Sogor.

Santa Rosa Kids House is a non profit agency serving the needs of Abused Children in Santa Rosa County. Our Council proudly adopted this agency and provides annual and special purpose donations since 2019.

Welcome to the middle of summer! July means most are in full summer vacation mode. Kids are out of school (And parents are already counting down the days till they return!) and family vacations are planned or maybe already taken. For many it's the time to get outdoors and enjoy some good weather. The temperature, much like Goldilocks and the Three Bears, for some will be too hot, for some too cool and for others...just right.

I hope you get to spend some quality time with your family as the summer moves on. A shady spot in the yard or on the porch may be all you want or need. You might just get away all by yourself for some quality rest and relaxation. For some that might mean the family road trip, kids and parents driving to that favorite vacation spot. For some that are older it might mean the trip to see the grandkids. Whatever it is that recharges your battery and strengthens the family bonds, I hope you get to do it.

*This is a solicitation for insurance.

Speaking of driving, it isn't prudent to drive without proper auto insurance. Anyone who does could be in a bad spot should the unexpected happen. The same is true for the insurance coverages that the Order has available. The Knights of Columbus has the products to protect you and your family as you drive down the road of life.

I appreciate the opportunity to meet with brother Knights and their spouses and continue the tradition of protection that Blessed Michael McGivney envisioned. Although I've met with many members of the council, my goal is to meet with each of you so you can take advantage of the free service I provide. The financial needs analysis tool that the Order has provided will take a snapshot of where you stand today, what your goals and objectives are, and help identify any gaps in your coverage.

Let's get together. Call me soon. This drive through life has many unexpected sharp turns, speed bumps and blind spots!

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Some Basics of Ordinary Time

In the liturgy of the Roman Rite, Ordinary Time (Latin Tempus per annum) is that part of the liturgical year that is not part of the two Great Seasons: Advent/Christmas or Lent/Easter. These two great seasons celebrate what could be thought of as "The Main Events in the life of the Church," namely, the Incarnation, Birth, Passion, Death, Resurrection, Ascension of Jesus, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

Technically, Ordinary Time has two parts, but it remains one season. There is a short break between Christmas and Lent; then after Pentecost it begins again until the following Advent.

Because the term ordinary in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many think that the Church's Ordinary Time refers to parts of the liturgical calendar that are less important. Not so! It's called Ordinary Time not because it is common or humdrum, but because its weeks are numbered.

Our word Ordinary originates from the Latin word, ordinalis. In Latin, ordo means order or ordinal. Thus, the ordinal numbers by which these weeks are identified are applied from the 1st week of Ordinary Time in January to the 33rd or 34th week of Ordinary Time toward the end of November - depending on how the Church's feast days fall: 1st Week of Ordinary Time, 2nd Week of Ordinary Time, 3rd Week of Ordinary Time; etc.

The Sundays are likewise so numbered, with one exception: there is no 1st Sunday of Ordinary Time because it is replaced by the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord immediately after the Christmas season ends.

Ordinary Time contains the rest of Jesus' earthly ministry and some of the major events of the Gospels we have come to know and love: the miracles, the parables, the calling of the twelve, the sermon on the mount, the bread of life discourse...we get all that and much more during this season. It is a great time to explore the lives of the saints on their feast days. As we follow the saints' feast days and share their stories with our children, we can find significance in their lives that can be related to our own.

This season is a time for our spiritual growth in applying what we learned about Jesus in the two Great Seasons. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Thus, for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There's nothing "ordinary" about that!

The liturgical color for Ordinary Time—for those days when there is no special feast—is green. Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the period in which the Church founded by the risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and to spread the Gospel to all nations. Like spring, it is a time of hope, new growth, and new life.

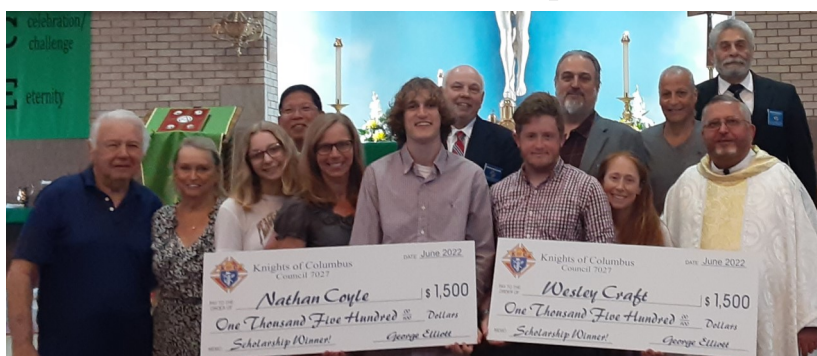

Next month we'll look at:

The Conclusion of Prayers

Let us pray:

O Heavenly Father, God of Love, You gave us Your Son Jesus to be not only Physician of our souls but also Healer of our bodies and minds. Lord Jesus, We turn to You in this time of illness. Please come to us now, and lay Your healing hand on us and all who are in need of your Mercy. Let the warmth, peace and healing power of Your Spirit fill all of us now with Your life and love. We receive You, Lord Jesus! Heal us according to Your Divine Will, Lord Jesus, and enable us to serve You with a healthy body, soul, and spirit. May Your Joy, O Lord, be our strength this day.

Amen.

Supreme Chaplain’s Challenge
by Archbishop William E. Lori

“But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.” (Gospel for July 31, Lk 12:20-21)

We may know the dates of countless upcoming appointments on our calendars, but we don’t know the date and time of one of the most important events of our lives: death. The end of our lives could come slowly or suddenly. How can we plan for that? Jesus urges us to seek to be “rich in what matters to God.” Our earthly life is only temporary; may we keep our true focus on the next life, knowing that our real and lasting treasure can be found in heaven alone.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to demonstrate what you truly treasure by making at least a brief visit — even just a few moments — to the Blessed Sacrament every day. Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Holy Hour program.

Questions for Reflection:

What do you treasure most? What is it that “matters to God”? Do you seek to be “rich in what matters to God”?

For the elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.
