Grand Knight's Report

Brothers United, Stepping Up to Serve

Brother Knights,

As we enter November, let us give thanks for our faith, our families, and the brotherhood we share. In a difficult season for our parish and community, you have put that faith into action.

Hurricane Isaias brought destruction and pain, but our Brother Knights showed up—and continue to show up. From cutting trees and picking up fences to tarping roofs, your generosity has demonstrated God's love for our neighbors. The mercy and strength shown before and after the storm will continue to build a stronger council.

That service continues through the church's volunteer initiative, where our council has taken point in connecting parishioners in need with willing hands. Both lists are extensive, and I NEED a couple of Brother Knights to spend a couple of hours on the phones helping coordinate assistance. This is a practical way to keep our recovery efforts moving and get help where it is needed.

Our commitment to serving others also helped bring the Ultrasound Initiative to a successful close. Although the outcome was not what we expected, we helped bring the mission to a solid completion. We will share more at our council meeting on Thursday, November 12.

Looking ahead, there are more opportunities for service and fellowship. Our 2nd Annual Boston Butts sale resumes this weekend, and our planning/officers' meeting returns on November 4. That same day, Kolbe Ministries begins a three-day prison retreat, with volunteers needed to help cook, primarily in the mornings. Please consider lending a hand. We will also be holding our Knight's breakfast for Magella House on November 8 before our November 12 council meeting.

Thank you for showing up for one another and for our community. Let us carry that spirit of generosity into the month ahead. May you and your families have a blessed Thanksgiving.

Vivat Jesus!

From the Deacon's Bench

By Deacon Jeff Massey

Brothers,
Brothers,
Greetings as we end October and begin November
Late in the month, on Tuesday the 24th to be exact, we welcome the Full Beaver Moon
It is always the first full Moon of November, every year.
This was the time when beavers finished preparations for winter and retreated into their lodges. In the 1760s, Captain Jonathan Carver heard this Native American term during his travels.
Also in the realm of animals, Deer Rutting Moon (Dakota, Lakota) refers to the mating season.
Digging/Scratching Moon is a Tlingit term for when bears dig their winter dens.
Whitefish Moon (Algonquin) describes the spawning time for this fish.
As cold temperatures deepen, the terms Frost Moon (Cree, Assiniboine) and Freezing Moon (Anishinaabe) were also used.
The Full Beaver Supermoon of November 2026 peaks on Tuesday, November 24, just days before Thanksgiving, making it the final Full Moon of autumn.
A "Supermoon" in case you were wondering, is when a full moon is at Perigee, the point its orbit around Earth is closest to us; appearing about 6.5% larger and 13.5% brighter than a typical full Moon. The Beaver Supermoon is the first in a run of three; followed by the December Cold Moon, and the January 2027 Wolf Moon.
Looking at the Liturgical calendar...
It seems unusual that our church liturgical calendar schedules two major celebrations on days that are back-to-back. But that is precisely the situation with the Solemnity of All Saints, a Liturgical feast, and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls), a Liturgical Observance.
All Saints is a Churchwide holy day of obligation and normally celebrated on Nov. 1. If the first day of November falls on a Saturday or Monday, at least in the United States, the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated.
All Souls' Day takes place on Nov. 2, unless it falls on a Sunday, then the celebration is held Nov. 3.
During these early November celebrations, those of us still living, the Church Militant, unite our hearts with the Church Triumphant, the faithful departed, those who are in Heaven
Or with the Church Suffering, those in Purgatory.

All Saints' Day, most likely began as All Martyrs' Day which can be traced to the earliest Christians. By the third century, the followers of Christ were annually honoring their brothers and sisters who had given their lives (martyred) while witnessing for and defending Jesus Christ.

Tombs were sometimes decorated and altars built over the tomb. According to church historian Henry Chadwick, "From the third century the anniversary of a martyr's death, called his 'birthday,' was commemorated at his grave by a celebration." The belief among the first Christians, which continues today, is that believers who died defending Christ were borne by angels to heaven and are face-to-face with the living God, in the presence of the beatific vision.

In those first centuries, especially during the savage reign of the Roman Emperor Diocletian (r. 284-305), more and more Christians accepted death at the hands of the Romans rather than deny Christ, rather than worship false gods or the personage of the emperor.

As this number of martyrs and confessors became greater, the need for a common feast day was recognized.

On Nov. 1, 735, Pope Gregory III (731-741) dedicated an oratory in St. Peter's Basilica to house the relics of the apostles, martyrs, saints and confessors. Thereafter, Nov. 1 became, at least for the churches in Rome, the feast of All Saints.

Other countries and cities began to celebrate the feast on the same day as the Rome churches, and soon a vigil of All Saints was added. Eventually, Pope Gregory IV (827-844) assigned Nov. 1 as the date of the feast of All Saints throughout the Latin Church and proclaimed it a holy day of obligation.

In sum, there is ample historical evidence that Christians have annually, on some date or another, been acknowledging the collective lives of all martyrs and saints for over 1,200 years.

Now, Offering prayers for those who have died is ancient in origin. In the Old Testament's Second Book of Maccabees, written around 100 B.C., Judas Maccabeus orders his army to pray and offer sacrifices on behalf of their fallen comrades. Tombs found in the Roman catacombs are inscribed with prayer requests for the deceased.

Thus, the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, or All Souls' Day, evolved onto the church calendar long after All Saints' Day.

Sometime between 998 and 1030, St. Odilo, the abbot at the Benedictine monastery in Cluny, France, encouraged all the monks to pray for the souls of those who had died, those awaiting the joys of heaven.

He instituted this commemoration on the day after All Saints' Day, and soon other religious orders and churches began, on that same date, to annually remember all who had died.

Remembering and praying for the faithful departed is tied directly to our belief in purgatory. On All Souls' Day the universal church prays for all those in purgatory, people who were much like us, whose offense may have been less than ours. By pleading for them, we are inspired to lead purer lives. On that day, and during the entire month of November, we remember our departed brethren. We may go to the cemetery where they are buried, attain indulgences for them, give alms, do some good work, ask for Masses to be said in remembrance, all on behalf of those close to us and to others we may have neglected during the year.

We may also light candles, and in some parishes the faithful display pictures of their deceased loved ones in the church. Church bells are sometimes rung to remind everyone to pray for the poor souls in purgatory. Priests are authorized to say three Masses on this holy, somber day.

For us here at Saint Rose,
Thursday 19 Nov. Mass of Remembrance at 18:00
followed by a reception in the Parish Hall.
I pray I see many of you there.

Pax

Brothers,
In November, we fulfil our obligation and vote. It is important to remember that who we vote for will make a difference. It is also important to know what each candidate believes. One source of information is Florida family Voice, who lists each candidate and their positions on important issues. The website is www.FLFamily.org.
The Life Options golf tournament has been rescheduled to November 14. They still have some team openings. Life Options has also been hit with storm damage to trees and roof. They have a $35,000 deductible and will be needing some assistance. We may be able to apply to state Knights of Columbus for some relief. Life Options has also had the opportunity to receive a new Ultrasound machine from Preborn Society. They are still in need of $3000 to complete the purchase

Sir Knights,

November comes from the Latin novem, meaning "nine," reflecting its original position as the ninth month in the early Roman calendar.

November is significant for its historical events, cultural observances, seasonal transitions, and spiritual symbolism, making it a month of reflection, gratitude, and preparation for renewal, reflecting nature's shift from autumn to winter and the symbolic completion of a yearly cycle. Whether you're looking to enrich your spiritual life or simply curious about the month's significance, this exploration offers insights that can resonate with you. Get ready to uncover the deeper meanings that November brings to your faith journey. As November progresses, it transitions into Advent, inviting spiritual preparation for the celebration of Christmas and reinforcing feelings of hope.

The major U.S. holidays in November 2026 are Veterans Day on Wednesday, November 11, and Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, November 26, with Black Friday on November 27 and Cyber Monday on November 30 also widely observed. The major Catholic holidays in November are All Saints' Day on November 1 and All Souls' Day on November 2, followed by additional feast days such as St. Martin de Porres (Nov 3), St. Charles Borromeo (Nov 4), and the Feast of Christ the King on the last Sunday of the month.

Spaghetti Dinner after Holy Hour is the first Friday of the month which is on 6th November. VA Hot Dog is on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, which is 11th November. Since the Veteran's Day Parade was canceled and we are not having Veteran's Day Dinner this year and we are all recovering from the hurricane, the best way to honor and thank our veterans in our church is by having a Veteran's Day plaque with their name and a flag honoring our veterans displayed in front of our church on November 11th (Veteran's Day). We will have a table set up after each mass on November 7 & 8 and have an announcement at the end of the mass if anyone is interested, please see us at the KOC Fourth Degree table. They would fill out a plaque to all living and past members of the United States Armed Forces who have served in wartime or peacetime. A veteran thank you coin will be given for their service at the table. Donations container will be set up for donations to cover the cost.

Our next meeting scheduled is on November 17, 2026, at 7:15 pm in the Risen Room. I want to thank you all for all you do. I want to take this opportunity to wish you and your family Happy Veteran's Day and Happy Thanksgiving Day!

Supreme Chaplain's Challenge

by Archbishop William E. Lori

"He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.'" (Gospel for Nov. 22, Mt 25:45)

Sin can be categorized in two ways, sins of commission and sins of omission. We ask God to forgive us of both kinds of sins in the main form of the Confiteor at Mass — "in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do." It is a sin to do evil, and it is a sin to neglect one's moral obligations. The true disciple sees the suffering Jesus in the poor, the sick, the oppressed and the lonely — and offers what he can to help.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to be aware of those in need around you, just as Blessed Michael McGivney did, and take action to serve those in need, perhaps by participating in your council's Knights of Columbus Coats for Kids program.

Questions for Reflection:

Who are the "least ones" among you? Do you recognize Christ in these "least ones" in need? In what ways do you respond positively to their needs, and in what ways do you ignore or neglect them? How might you do better in this regard?
