NOTABLE DEDUCTIONS

Temporary Senior Deduction: A deduction of up to $6,000 may be available for seniors for tax years 2025–2028, subject to income limits.

2025 Standard Deductions

- Single or Married Filing Separate: $15,750.

- The IRA deduction for 2025 is $7,000 (under the age of 50) and $8,000 (aged 50 and over). The RMD (required minimum distribution) age is 73.
- The single greatest tax “loophole” available to most employed taxpayers is contributing the maximum allowable amount of earned income to an employer-sponsored retirement plan, such as a 401(k) or 403(b). For individuals under the age of 50, the maximum annual contribution is $23,500. Taxpayers aged 50 and older can take advantage of additional “catch-up” contributions, allowing them to contribute up to $7,500 more annually.
- There is a new automobile loan interest deduction available for qualifying American-assembled vehicles purchased in 2025, subject to income limits.
- State and Local Tax (SALT) Deduction: The maximum federal deduction for state and local income, sales, and property taxes has increased from $10,000 to up to $40,000, which may allow eligible taxpayers to deduct more of the taxes they pay.

Dear Valued Client:

We trust this letter finds you with good health, high spirits and lasting peace. It is our sincere pleasure to service you and we look forward to continuing our valued partnership in the year ahead.

With the passage of the One, Big, Beautiful Bill last year, there are several new deductions that may benefit you. These include potential deductions for seniors, sales and use tax, tips, overtime, and qualifying American automobile loans. We will apply any of these deductions that you qualify for; however, please note that some of the new provisions do have income limits.

If you are a W-2 employee who receives overtime pay, please provide any additional documentation or attachments from your employer that relate to your overtime earnings.

While the home improvement credits ended in 2025, if you installed a new furnace, air conditioning unit, boiler, heat pump, or similar system in 2025, please provide that information so we can determine whether you qualify for a credit.
