

MARY CASSATT A NEW WOMAN

Saturday, March 21, 2:00 p.m.
Southworth Library

Join local art historian Jill Sanford for a presentation on Mary Cassatt, one of America's most prominent 19th century artists, whose accomplishments helped forge an open-mindedness about what art could be and what a woman could do.

*The Child's Bath, 1893, Mary Cassatt
Art Institute Chicago*

For more information, e-mail fodl.libraries@gmail.com.

Free and Open to the Public