SUBJECT: OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO

OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO returns to the Summit Center in Roselawn on February 22, 23 and 24, 2019. It is an outgrowth of the nationally renowned Cincinnati Black Book Fair (1990-2001) and Ourstory Expo (2005). Founder, Bomani A. Tyehimba is the common thread linking these two events together. Mr. Tyehimba brings the same level of enthusiasm and organization to OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO which helped make the Book Fair a Cincinnati tradition and Ourstory Expo a stunning success.

OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO features national and local authors, artists, orators, and educators, who share stories of culture and achievement through their unique talents. On Friday, February 22nd, preschoolers, area students, and senior citizens will experience a highlight of the Expo, when special programming will be featured during "Field Trip Day." Throughout the weekend, attendees will celebrate and learn about a rich cultural heritage by participating in educational sessions and book discussions, viewing historical exhibits and experiencing lectures, interactive art demonstrations, and author signings. OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO is free and open to the public and promises to be a weekend the entire family will enjoy.

Enclosed is a vendor registration form for OURSTORY BOOK FAIR & EXPO. To reserve your booth space, complete the application and mail back with full payment. The Early Bird special of $200 for a 10'x10' booth expires on February 15, 2019.

If you have any questions call the Vendor coordinator at 513.402.4662.

Sincerely,

Bomani A. Tyehimba
