

Club Associate Membership

What is a Club Associate?

A Club Associate is a member of an British Canoeing affiliated club, for whom the club has paid a capitation fee

How much does my club pay for my Club Associate membership?

For adults, your club pays British Canoeing £2.20, for juniors your club pays £1.20

What do I get?

Insurance for all of your club activity plus access to entry level British Canoeing events and competitions

Does it include a waterways licence?

No, if you are using your own craft on managed waterways you will need a licence. If your club sessions are on a waterway that requires a licence, your club should have purchased licences for each of their club owned craft.

Can I paddle outside of club sessions?

Sure! However, you won't be covered by your Club Associate insurance. You can get insurance and a waterways licence by becoming an On The Water member

What counts as club activity?

Any activity that has been assessed as part of the club's safety framework and promoted on the club calendar, website or noticeboard. Club activities also include inter-club activities where the responsibility for risk assessment and management is carried out and shared between all participating clubs

Can I coach?

Your Club Associate insurance covers you for leading or coaching club activity. You are not covered to lead or coach outside club activity. If you want to make sure you have adequate insurance cover for coaching and leading outside of club activity, you are advised to join as an On The Water member or purchase your own insurance that includes professional indemnity cover
