Spring Fling went well and I think there were about 45 to 50 people in attendance with some only being there 1 day. The weather was great in the low to mid 70's. We did have a little rain during one night but that didn't bother anyone as most tents were under cover. Many were in trailers or motorhomes. We had good meals and there were always many activities going on to keep people occupied. There was a good turnout for the Religious activity on Sunday morning. Mel Teigen

June 7 – Casa de Fruta

277 miles round trip! Those miles included meeting in Antioch and returning home after the ride to Concord. In the past, that was a small number but today it is a perfect number and just enough. Harry and Karen met Richard and Mel in Antioch and enjoyed wonderful weather and reasonable traffic heading south to a meet-up with Dan. The rest area was packed full! The group then rode together going towards Gilroy and ending up at Casa de Fruta. Lunch at Casa de Fruta was a pleasant experience, good food and fun ambiance. Everyone rode home in warm weather – the high was 93 degrees. Chapter P members are looking forward to a great riding summer.
