Living Into Our Baptismal Vows

As United Methodists, we affirm our baptismal calling to “resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.” This commitment is deeply rooted in Scripture and in the life and teachings of Jesus. The prophet Micah reminds us of God’s clear expectation: “What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?” In a world where injustice and suffering persist, our faith calls us not to turn away, but to stand firmly on the side of love, truth, and compassion.

Jesus himself modeled this holy resistance, proclaiming good news to the poor, freedom for the oppressed, and dignity for the marginalized. As the Church, we are invited to continue this work through prayer, advocacy, service, and courageous love. Romans 12 urges us, “Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.” May we be a people who speak up for those without a voice, work for systems rooted in fairness and mercy, and live out Christ’s justice in our daily lives. Together, guided by Scripture and the Spirit, we can be faithful witnesses to God’s transforming love in the world.

God bless!

-Pastor Seth LaBounty

Across our Connection: Beresford Zion UMC Partners with Feeding SD

Zion UMC has expanded its relationship with Feeding South Dakota, becoming a regional partner equipped to serve individuals and families from Alcester, Beresford, and Hudson, as well as the surrounding communities of Centerville, Canton, Irene, Harrisburg, Viborg, Vermillion, Wakonda, and beyond through the Share and Care ministry.

Share and Care, a food distribution ministry of Beresford Zion UMC, is the result of collaboration, community partnerships, and a growing conviction that churches are called to use all their resources—especially their facilities—to love their neighbors in tangible ways.

The ministry is intentionally designed to create a welcoming, dignified experience for every visitor. A greeter outside helps direct guests into the building, where a second greeter answers questions and assists with registration. After checking in—tracking information required by Feeding South Dakota along with ministry-specific data—participants receive bags and move through a large room with tables of food. Limits are clearly marked, but individuals are free to choose items that best meet their household's needs. Volunteers are also available to help carry groceries to vehicles.

According to Feeding South Dakota, Beresford Zion is part of a growing network of churches helping to address hunger statewide. Olivia Sip, communications specialist for Feeding South Dakota, notes that churches can partner in many ways, including backpack programs for students, church pantries, meal sites, mobile distributions, food drives, and volunteer support.

Churches and individuals are encouraged to explore Amplify Dakotas, using it in worship, small groups, youth ministry, leadership training, and personal discipleship. Together, these resources create a stronger foundation for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world—right here in the Dakotas. To learn more, ask Pastor Seth!
