

Code of Conduct for Staff and Volunteers

Elite Studio (EA) Ltd
Expectations
In this code of conduct we set out what the acceptable standards of behaviour are for all staff and volunteers at our organisation. We all have a duty of care to safeguard the children we work with. All staff and volunteers are made aware of this Code of Conduct during their Induction Programme. If the organisation suspects, or becomes aware, that a staff member/volunteer has breached the code of conduct, the organisation will address this in accordance with the Disciplinary Policy.
There are some examples of safer working practices below which could be covered within a code of conduct (this is only guidance, include only what is relevant to your own organisation and what the expectations are on staff/volunteers).
For further guidance can also refer to the following document in the Safer Member area of our website 'Safer Working Practice Guidance'.
Here are some examples of Safer Working Practices: Confidentiality Behaviour Dress and appearance Gifts, rewards, and favouritism Online Safety (including Photography, Videos, Mobile Phones, Smart Watches) Physical contact One to one situations Transporting children Trips and outings Intimate/Personal Care Reporting concerns The following safer working practices above form the basis for our Code of Conduct.
-You must be clear about what information can be shared and when. -You are expected to treat information received about a child in a discreet and confidential manner. -You must seek advice from the safeguarding lead if you are in doubt about sharing
-You will treat all children with respect and dignity. -You must not use your position to intimidate, bully, humiliate, threaten, coerce or undermine children or young people. -You will ensure that children's welfare is always paramount.
