SCENE?

Liberty University. Lynchburg VA Football locker room. Defensive End Dan Murphy was sitting in the whirlpool treating a sore back from a come from behind clip he received in the game last Saturday. It was like any other day for the Senior Biblical studies major. Dan knew he was not going to have a NFL career but he was a great teammate and really good TD for the Division I Big South Conference. Dan had his heart on becoming like his dad and grandfather, a local church pastor and serve the Lord. He and his high school sweetheart Jeanette who also has been attending Liberty, are engaged to be married right after graduation.

Its 8:45 and Dan just settles into the steaming hot whirlpool tank. He's sitting there with another teammate DB Charlie Brice who is his best friend on the team. Charlie is sitting there with his left foot in a bucket of ice water nursing a sprained ankle. They both were putting in an hour of treatments before going to class at 10 AM.

Dan: Hey Charlie. How's the ankle today?

Charlie: Better than your back. Man I saw the clip on the game film. That guy must have been pissed at you for blowing him up on that last play.

Dan: Yeah...I was beating him off the ball on every play. He had to do something to slow me down, so like the chump he was he just hit me when I was turned around and following the play.

Charlie: Well bro I hope you're going to ready to go against Delaware State this week.

Dan: Don't worry bro. I feel the Lord is healing me already. This hot water feels so good. I got to get this treatment done and into my Biblical studies class. I got my first exam today.

We're going over Genesis. For the last 3 years Professor Bart and I have enjoyed a great relationship with his studies in the New Testament. But I have never really studied the Old Testament bible. There are so many things I don't understand.. Why would an all loving God destroy every man woman child and the animals in the Noah flood, and again when Moses passed the torch of leadership to Joshua, where he was commanded to kill them all, along with Caleb, when leading the people into the Promised Land? It just doesn't compute with me. There has to be something I don't quite understand about this book. I pray that God will show me what bothers me is finally made clear.

Charlie: I took that course last year with Professor Bart. He knows the bible better than my father and he has been preaching from the bible for 25 years. He knows the answer to that question. He taught us that when Adam and Eve fell in the garden that God cursed the serpent and told him that Eve's seed was going to destroy him. So Satan tricked the fallen angels into mating with women and created an evil bloodline of what he called Nephilim giants. They did all this really evil stuff with cloning and DNA manipulations to ALL FLESH before the flood. He showed us where these monsters were always trying to destroy the seed of Eve. You'll see. It will make total sense to you once you go through his class.

Dan: Giants? You say Satan created giants to fight God's chose leaders?

Charlie: Yep...and other creatures like Minotaur, Centaurs, Satyrs.

He teaches how the old gods like Zeus and Odin were actually a result of these fallen angel called the Watchers, establishing themselves as gods to the primitive humans of the ancient times before the flood of Noah. This class is the most interesting studies of the bible I ever learned. The professor takes you to the book of Enoch to show where God used Enoch to chronicle this amazing fall from grace and the creation of the false gods and monsters that we were all taught as fables, but in truth actually existed before the flood.

Dan: Charlie...The book of Enoch was not in the bible.

Charlie: Yes I know but Jesus, John, Peter, and Jesus half-brothers James and Jude all actually quoted from the Book of Enoch. Don't worry Dan, the professor makes it all come clear as a bell when you're finished with the study? You're going to love this study. It make the bible come to life for the first time in my life I finally understand the amazing events that Satan took to stop the arrival of Jesus our Savior.

They stopped talking about class and started to talk about the game and the loss.

Both men are still in really bad mood from the 30 to 7 beating they took from Eastern Kentucky on Saturday. As they were talking about what went wrong in the game there was a news alert on the TV on the wall above the training table; saying that a plane just struck the Twin Towers in NYC.

Dan and Charlie are in total shock as they see for the first time the video with a fireman doing some test on the street in NYC, when a huge jet flew overhead and crashed into the tower. Dan jumped out of the tank and stood there dripping wet as he turned up the sound on the TV. For the next few hours bot the men were transfixed to the TV.

At 9:03 they watched in horror as another plane crashed into the South Tower. It was at that time that Dan knew we were at war and America just suffered a major attack from a horrible cowardly enemy.

SCENE?

Jeanette is a beautiful brunet. She is Dan's fiancé. She is standing with her mom watching as the 2nd tower falls. She is so horrified that she goes into her bedroom to pray. As she closes her eyes, she is taken in a vision to a hot dry land where she see Dan hiding behind a rock and firing a gun at some men that are firing back at him. Dan doesn't see her as she is standing out in the open between the two groups of warriors shooting at each other.

She sees a man come up from behind Dan and was about to shoot him in the back when she see an angel appear out of no where and pushes Dan to the side just as the man shot off a few rounds. Dan rolls to a knee and fires off two shots hitting the other man in the chest. Jeanette comes back to her bedroom drenched in sweat.

SCENE?

Dan blew off classes and drove straight over to Jeanette's house. On the way over Dan started to think about all the great times they had since they met at a High School victory party, over his teammate Jack Labonti's house.

Dan was a stud high school player and very handsome. He had many young ladies in class admiring and pining over his good looks. During this party he was talking with a group of teammates about the big win, when he looked up from the backyard to the top of the porch stairs. On the back porch was standing a group of 3 girls all under classmen. In the middle there was this petite little brunet with the loveliest eyes just standing there staring at him.

When their eyes met it was love at first sight. He ran up the stairs and introduced himself to her.

Dan: Hi...I'm Dan Murphy...maybe you heard of me?

Jeanette: I know who you are Dan Murphy.

She said she knew who he was and just turned her back on him.

He was fascinated. No girl ever did that to him. He could see in that first look that she was connected to him but was now playing hard to get. It took 4 months of trying to find a way for her to become his. It was madding because he could tell that she was crazy for him but just wouldn't give in to his constant charming attempt to win her over. Until that first kiss on New Year's Eve that year.

Back to now

SCENE?

Pulling in front of Jeanette's house he jumps out the car and flies up the stairs and knocks on the door.

SCENE?

Being a beautiful fall day the front screen door was open. Dan yells into the house.

Dan: Jeanette...Jeanette

Jeanette: Dan come into the kitchen. Were in here.

Dan walks into the house. Jeanette, her mother, brother and Dad were all in the kitchen watching the TV. The news was on and going over the days tragic events. As Dan is watching he pulled his eyes away from the TV and was looking at all of Jeanette's family. The look of fear was embedded into their faces. The unknown that this day has produced into their souls.

That was when he made up his mind. He felt the strongest pull on his heart strings to become a protector of all his loved ones and friends. He knew what he was going to do. He was going to become a Navy SEAL and defend his county and loved ones from this evil that has attacked his country.

Dan: Jeanette...let's take a ride and talk.

Jeanette: OK Dan. I guess I knew that this was going to change the country and you. I know your heart Dan and whatever you decide to do I will back you 100%.

SCENE?

They climb into his car and drive off. They drive to their special place near the banks of the James River.

Dan: Sweetheart. I know you know how much I love you and need you in my life forever. I need to fight for you and my county now...on forging soil because if we don't defeat them in their land we will be fighting them on our land in the future. These people will never stop unless we stop them.

Jeanette: Danny I know how passionate you are about God and country. I know whatever you decide to do God will be leading you in all you do. I know and trust your relationship with Jesus and know that if you do as He leads you, that you will be in his will and nothing else matters.

Dan: Jeanette I have the strongest calling in my heart to do something that will make a difference for the fight against these cowardly Muslim Extremist.

Jeanette: When the towers came down I went to my knees and prayed for clarity for what God wants us to do now. I saw a vision of you in the service fighting for us. I knew God was going to be directing you to become a warrior for His Kingdom. I know God has a special plan for your life and I can't stop that from happening.

Their eyes were held together in a grip of love that they both never felt before. They embraced and kissed with a passion unbridled.

SCENE ?

The next day he was outside the Navy recruiting center in down town Lynchburg. He joined the Navy as a Seaman and filled out the Seaman to SEAL program documents. He took the PST test and passed with ease. He was assigned to a local Special Warfare/Special Operations Mentor and was reclassified with a SEAL contract. He was given another PST 14 days before Boot camp and passed again easily. Dan was in great shape at 6'4 280.

SCENE?

Oct. 2001 Dan headed to Coronado California. He end up in Buds training in class 239. He arrives on the main quarterdeck of the pre-training office in Coronado to check in for Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL training. Because of his superior physical condition he was fast tracked to BUD/S, totally aware that the odds of making it through the course were somewhere between 1 and 3 out of 10. He was nervous knowing he was going to be pushed to the end of his endurance both physically and mentally, but felt that with the power he maintains while in Gods will, he can do anything. And he never felt the power so strongly in his heart as now.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Grunt 1: Ok tadpoles fill out these docs and sign them. Check them off the list I gave you and bring them to me when their signed. You have your Medical, Dental, Admin, and Physical Training Rest and Rehabilitation.

As Dan scanned the page he heard this loud roar like the crash of a gigantic wave coming from outside. The sound practically shook the whole building.

50 men shouting: "FORTY-NINE!
FIFTY! FIFTY-ONE!"

It was a BUD/S class doing their PT on the grinder, the legendary concrete-and-asphalt courtyard just outside the quarterdeck doors where BUD/S calisthenics take place. Dan had shivers run down his spine as he stood there, hearing the thunderous roar those guy produced in unison.

SCENE ?

Walking outside, Dan saw about 50 hard-looking guys in tan UDT shorts and brown shirts doing PT in the concrete courtyard with a chiseled black instructor leading them through the exercises.

The men were lined up on the black concrete, their feet positioned atop staggered rows of small white frog-feet outlines painted onto the grinder's surface. Just off the edge of the concrete there hung a shiny brass ship's bell with a well-worn braided rope trailing down from the ringer. At the foot of the bell, more than a hundred green helmets lined the ground in a neat, mournful row, each helmet inscribed with the name and rank of one more would-be SEAL who would never go on to graduate training.

50 men shouting: "SIXTY-ONE! SIXTY-TWO! SIXTY-THREE!"

This was the most dreaded symbols of SEAL lore. The infamous brass bell. If you reached the beyond where you decided you just couldn't take it anymore, where the training was just too brutal to go on, a tadpole would signify that he was not worthy of being one of the rarest men on the planet, by leaving the grinder and ringing the brass bell three times. They would leave your class helmet behind. The brass bell was a one-way street out of BUD/S.

Dan thought It was good to finally see that symbol of defeat, sitting there silently suspended in the air taunting the very soul of every man there.

Dan: "Go on, sit there and wait,"

Dan murmured out loud.

Dan: "I'll be damned if I'll ever touch you."

SCENE ?

He walked to the PTRR check-in office to get his processing started. The door was closed and he had to knock quite loudly to be heard over the roar of the class as they counted out their push-ups.

50 men shouting: "EIGHTY-FIVE!
(MORE)

EIGHTY-SIX! EIGHTY-SEVEN!"

Grunt 2: "Have a seat,"

Said a guy about Dan's age, sitting on a bench outside the door.

Grunt 2: "They'll be right with us."

Dan sat down next to him.

Dan: "what duty station are you from.?"

Grunt 2: I just came here right out of boot camp

Dan: Me too. I was fast tracked because I was the first in my class.

Dan nodded at the guys they were both watching.

Grunt 2: "They just finished Hell Week," "That's why they look so hard and fired up."

They both sat there and watched the 50 guys pounding out their PTs.

Grunt 2: "That's why they're wearing those brown shirts." "They give you those when you survive Hell Week. If you survive Hell Week."

Everyone in the Navy knew about Hell Week, which comes near the end of Phase One, typically starting on a Sunday evening and ending the following Friday. Hell Week is where you are pushed hard for five and a half days straight, with scarcely more than an hour's sleep per day, right up to the limits of physical and especially mental fortitude.

Dan sat there admiring these guys but yet envious that they were done and moving on.

Dan sat there chatting with his new buddy, swapping bits and pieces they heard about Hell Week, when he was suddenly snapped to attention by a voice that sliced the air like a buzz saw.

Black instructor: "What the fuck do you think you're doing?!"

The instructor had focused his attention on the two of them.

Black instructor: "What are you looking at?!" "You are not fit to breathe the same air as this class. If you know what's best, you will turn the fuck around and shut the fuck up, or I will personally ensure that you are on the first boat leaving San Diego Bay for the western Pacific Ocean this week!"

Dan hadn't even started checking in, and here he was already being faced with the threat of going back to the fleet. They both turned around and kept quite as a church mouse. A few minutes later they were let into the PTRR office and given their room assignments. They would be starting the following week.

On the outset the BUD/S Class 239 consisted of 220 men.. That number wouldn't hold for long. BUD/S training is broken into three phases. That is preceded by a five-week indoctrination phase, called indoc. The six weeks of First Phase focused on physical conditioning and included the infamous Hell Week. Second Phase consists of eight weeks of diving and water skills, and Third Phase, nine weeks of land warfare.

The whole thing adds up to more than seven months, the whole purpose of which really boils down to one of two things: to prepare you for the real training, which comes after you graduate-or to spit you out by ringing that dam bell. It started spitting us out right away.

That first week of indoc they all did the initial BUD/S PT test over again, and not all of them passed. Boom. ...Just during indoc, they lost twenty guys. Ten percent of the class, gone, and they hadn't even started First Phase yet.

There were two guys in my BUD/S class whom I already knew from that pre-BUD/S course we'd taken in Great Lakes boot camp: John John " Star" Starky and Lars the huge blond Swede "The überman" with the tree-trunk thighs. John " Star" Starky was quite the comedian and we became a good friend. Lars was quiet but friendly. He was a guy you knew you could depend on...really serious.

The first week completely flipped Dan out. Seeing guys that looked like superman quit, especially so early on, was a revelation. This was not about who could do the shortest run times or the most pushup and pull-ups

This was about not quitting, persevering. These guys might be able to pump out as many pull-ups as Dan could, but that didn't necessarily mean they could handle the mental stress-being constantly yelled at, put down, ripped apart. All the while they were being put through the most physically punishing environments.

Over the coming months, Dan saw guys who looked like Superman, accomplished athletes who had been at the top of their game in professional sports, who had qualified for Olympic trials, seriously tough, mean-looking dudes, crying like babies as they walked across the grinder to go ring that dam brass bell. And he saw guys who weighed barely over a hundred pounds take the most brutal physical and psychological punishment and keep on trucking without complaint.

However, there was little time or cause to feel smug about any of this. Dan never trained so hard in his life before BUD/S so he was not surprise to have made the first cut. He knew that the first six weeks was a weeding out process-and that he was already a pretty good candidate for being one of survivors.

In fact, Dan learned it on the first Monday morning of First Phase.

SCENE ?

The PTRR instructor in charge said a few words and turned us over to the First Phase instructor staff.

Black instructor: " OK you Tadpoles-
 Your about to enter the twilight zone. You will never believe that you will possibly finish the zone.
 Most of you will be ringing that bell, but somehow, a very few of you will find that something inside you that will cut you away from the pack. That something that you never knew you had inside you, is what we need to discover- Good luck".

Everyone in the class knew that we were about to enter a nightmare, and the moment they were handed over to the First Phase staff on that warm mid-October morning, they did. All two hundred of them had lined up on those staggered white frog feet painted on the black grinder, and now faced someone we would quickly recognize as our worst enemy.

Men who gravitate to become First Phase instructors are among the most physically fit people on the planet. They see themselves as guardians of the gate, and they are there to punish you and bring the pain. They are the most feared, the meanest, ugliest, most physically conditioned guys you'll ever meet. There were eight instructors for First Phase, but four of them made up the A list. The ones who would be a constant abrasive presence in our lives until we either made it on to Second Phase or rang that damned brass bell.

SCENE ?

Instructor Gillespie was a monster of a guy, six-foot-four, pushing three hundred pounds and all of it muscle and bone.
 He walked right up to Dan and put his nose against Dan's.
 They were the same height eye to eye, but he had at least 40
 LBs of muscle on Dan.

Gillespie: "What's your name Tadpole?"

Dan: Murphy...Dan Murphy sir.

Gillespie: Well Dan Murphy the next time I come in your face you don't eyeball me. You hear me maggot. You look down, never in my eyes. Hit the deck and give me 100 pushups.

Gillespie sees Lars and runs right up to his face.

Gillespie: Well...Well. Look what we have here. Another He-man. Well He-man just so you know. I'm the biggest son of a bitch to ever make it out of BUD/S. I'm going to take great delight in breaking your big ass down to ring that bell. Your lunch meat He-man.

Instructor Gouda a menacing Italian with raven black hair, six-two 220 LBs and completely ripped, looked like he was carved out of a freaking piece of granite.

Instructor Buckman was slightly younger and not a monster in appearance: smaller, with a more average build. But he had a cocky swagger and the excellent conditioning to back it up, a tremendous athlete and mean as hell.

And finally, there was Instructor Edson.

In Greek mythology Nemesis was the spirit of divine retribution against those who succumb to hubris, that is, arrogance before the gods. Nemesis was a goddess without remorse, a deity whose sole motivating force was exacting vengeance. In modern usage, the word has come to mean archenemy. Sherlock Holmes had his Moriarty, Superman had his Lex Luthor.

In BUD/S, Dan had Instructor Edson.

Dan never knew Instructor Edson's first name. He was a small guy, Norwegian, with ice blue eyes and an ice cold heart. He was all business. Of the four, he had perhaps the least imposing appearance, at least superficially-and appearances most definitely are deceiving. All the instructors were incredibly tough on them, but if they were demons from hell, as far as Dan was concerned, Instructor Edson was no other than Satan himself.

Dan would learn about Instructor Edson in time. Today it was Instructor Buckman who gave them their initiation. Shirtless, cut like a jungle leopard, he stood on his four-foot podium looking down at them, ready to stomp them all to hell. His vantage point ensuring that any weakness would be immediately identified and dealt with accordingly.

Then it started.

SCENE ?

First evolution, as they call it, was grinder PT, and he truly brought the pain: two hours of grueling punishment.

Buckman: "Push-ups! Are you ready?"

"Hooyah!"

Buckman: "One! Two! Three! Four!"

After they passed a hundred Dan started to shake a little. Many couldn't support their own body weight, their arms were on fire and giving out.

Buckman: "On your feet ... On your back ... Push-ups! Ready? Begin! One! Two! ... Flutter kicks, are you ready? One! Two! Three! ... One hundred five! One hundred six! ..."

From that very first PT session Dan immediately stood out as the most fit Tadpole. He kept right up within the cadence.

All eight of our First Phase instructors were there to welcome them, and within minutes Dan had arrived at the very top of all their "To Be Broken "lists. It wasn't just Dan's great physical condition that pissed them off. It was the ease that he seemed to be able to succeed at. Coming right from boot camp Dan was the paragon of male fitness and that didn't sit well with these warriors.

Dan stood out like a shark in a swimming pool. Everyone in the class and instructors were amazed at the physical condition he was in for such a big man. He was like Conan the Barbarian. Dan was in the front of every run. He would be first climbing to the top of the rope. He climbed over the wall faster than anyone. Dan was always first. Edson was really starting to get on him. Dan teammates were also starting to get on him because they were all pushed so hard because the instructors were trying to break him.

Lars was really starting to struggle because of the pace that they were going at it.

Gillespie: "Swede, you fucking piece of stinking dog shit! How the fuck did you make it through the door?! If you look up weakness in the dictionary, they have a picture of you next to the text!..."

After the first week over 20 guys had rung the bell and quit. Swede was really struggling. Being as big as he was, he never had people treat him like the instructors did. Total disregard for his wellbeing and self-respect was now almost nonexistent. Swede was starting to feel like quitting.

SCENE ?

That night at lights out Swede heard Dan praying.

Swede: "Dan...what are you doing on your knees?"

Dan whispered to him

Dan: "I was asking God to give the team an extra dose of inner strength like He has done for me. I was thanking God for answering my prayers. For giving me the strength to overcome all that they threw at me today.

John " Star" Starky: Hey Swede. We got us a Preacher man who has been powered up by God...LOL

Dan: Hey Star ...It's no joke. I am powered up by the guarantees God gives all His children. Guarantees that they will accomplish anything they set their mind too if they give 100% of themselves to Him.

Star: Hey bro...there is no doubt that you have something extra going on here, but to say the sky fairy has given you these abilities to do what you do is just nuts...

Swede: Hey Star ..what you don't believe in God?

Dan: Go to sleep guys before Godzilla hears us.

SCENE ?

That night Dan was either in a dream or a vision he didn't know for sure. He was walking by a stream with Jeanette and out of nowhere a beautiful, handsome angel wearing a purple colored suit of armor comes down and walks between them. They weren't scared but amazed at the power that this being radiated from his body. It was like a glowing liquid light that shimmered as a purple aurora all around him.

Jeanette: Who are you?

Ouriel : My name is Ouriel. I am an Archangel who has command over demons. God wanted me to tell you that there are two things that He wants you to do for the Kingdom before Jesus returns to earth to set up his kingdom.

Jeanette: I saw you in a dream that day the towers fell. You saved Dan in that fire fight.

Dan: You saw me in a dream... in a fire fight? What is it angel that God needs from us?

Ouriel: Dan you and Jeanette will soon be separated for God wants you to be a recorder of time. You will chronicle the past present and future, so all mankind will know the truth about the Amazing Grace He is going to pour out on all mankind. I will answer your prayers for your two friends John and Lars.

HELL WEEK HAS BEGUN

Standing outside on the PT yard was Edson

Edson: Good morning Tadpols. Take a good look at the bell over there. Over half of you shit heads are going to ringing it today because your a bunch of loser pussy's. LOL Run your sorry asses down to the beach and jump into the ocean. I want every inch of your sorry asses soaking wet. The last guy in will be doing 100 pushups as the rest of you maggots are rolling around in the sand. Your going to become my Sugar Cookies. When I get there I want to see every inch of your bodies completely covered in sand.

It was about a quarter mile to the beach

All 200 men took off like bats out of hell. When they got to the beach Gillespie was there waiting for them.

Gillespie: Get you sorry asses in that ocean. Well, well, look who is the last to get here- Swede. Finding it hard to move that big ass of yours Swede? Drop and give me 100.

As Swede is pumping off his push-ups the rest of them are all soaking wet and rolling around in the sand. They have to keep rolling as long as Swede is pumping away.

When Swede is finished he runs into the ocean and comes out and starts rolling in the sand. After about a minuet he comes and stands at attention with the rest of the group.

Gillespie: Get into groups of 6 tadpoles each about the same size and run up to the top of the beach and stand by one of these logs up there.

The groups form and run to a pole. This is the famous 550LB pole Dan knew was going to be the greatest test for the men. Edson walks up to them.

Edson: Pick-up you log over your heads and take it down to the water.

Dan was in the group of bigger men along with Swede. Swede was still breathing hard from the push-ups and sprint run.

Dan: Swede...try to do your best until you get your breath back.
I'll help you.

Swede: Thanks brother I owe you big time.

Swede was able to catch his breath and started to pick up his part of the load.

Edson: Take the log down to the ocean and lay in the surf with the pole on your lap.

I need to have Lew help me with this part

Trainees are constantly in motion; running, swimming, paddling, carrying boats on their heads, doing log PT, sit-ups, push-ups, rolling in the sand, slogging through mud, paddling boats and doing surf passage. Being still can be just as challenging, when you're standing interminably in formation, soaking wet on the beach, or up to your waist in the water, with the cold ocean wind cutting through you. Mud covers uniforms, hands, faces - everything but the eyes. The sand chafes raw skin and the salt water makes cuts burn.

Students perform evolutions that require them to think, lead, make sound decisions, and functionally operate when they are extremely sleep-deprived, approaching hypothermia, and even hallucinating. While trainees get plenty to eat, some are so fatigued that they fall asleep in their food. Others fall asleep while paddling boats and have to be pulled out of the water by teammates. Teamwork and camaraderie are essential as trainees alternately help and encourage each other, to hang in there and not quit.

Kandahar in 2002 Forward operating base (FOB) Rhino, also known as Camp Rhino, was the first US land base established in Afghanistan during Operation Enduring Freedom. March 2002 a group of CIA Paramilitary Officers tempted to destroy Al-Qaeda and Taliban forces, just received orders to go on a search and destroy mission into a group of caves in the Kandahar Mountains.

In 2002 increasing signals and human intelligence indicated a strong presence of Taliban and Al-Qaeda fighters in the Shahi-Kot Valley.

Approximately 150 to 200 fighters were believed to be wintering and possibly preparing for a spring offensive in the valley. The signal intelligence also raised the possibility that high-value targets (HVTs) were present in the valley among which were Jalaluddin Haqqani and Saif Rahman.

Plans were drawn up to assault the Shahi-Kot Valley using Afghan military forces (AMF) advised and assisted by U.S. special operators. Major General Franklin L. Hagenbeck, Commander, Combined Joint Task Force Mountain, was put in command of the operation. The plan called for an attack on the valley, along with units positioned in the mountains to the east to prevent escape into Pakistan.

The expectation was that fighters, as in the case of Tora Bora several months earlier, would flee in the face of an assault and that blocker groups would simply be able to round them up.

SCEAN 1 Right before sundown

They received a report of a massive cache of explosives and arms inside a number of caves.

A group of seven heavily armed Special Forces operatives are in a prayer circle outside of a UH-60 Black Hawk helicopter, being led by the Team Commander named Captain Dan Murphy AKA Preacher.

Preacher: Alright men circle up.

The team forms a circle and hold hands. He leads his team into the 23rd Psalm and in unison they all start to recite the psalm

Precher and team: Father God. In Jesus name we pray.
 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green

One by one they enter the Black Hawk and took a seat.

SCENE 2

As the Black Hawk lifts off we get a good look at each man.
All 6 are extremely tough and fit looking individuals.

Dan "Preacher" Murphy: 6'1 215 lbs with thick dark scruffy black beard

Zeus: 6'5 heavily muscled 260 lbs ox with a mini gun.

Rhino: 6'0 thickly built 240 lbs explosive expert.

Star:: 6'1 185 lbs ripped build. Looks like an NFL wide receiver.

Swede: 6'2 225 lbs blond hair with blond beard

Bolt: 6'2 215 lbs blackman with world class speed

Quake: 6'6 300 lbs of a mountain of a black man.

SCENE 3

Quake: Hey Preacher. I need to be carrying the Mini, why did you give it to Zeus?

Mini is the G.A.U.-1000X Gatling Gun

Preacher: Quake I need you free to push open a very large door that is reported to be outside this cave, so Zeus get the mini.

Bolt: A door? What kind of cave is this Preach.

Preacher: I'm not sure but the intel boys say that there is a story from the locals that there is writing on the door that is of a language unknown to them. They feel that there is some kind of mojo spiritual stuff connected with the cave. Probably just some rumors to keep out the curious.

Rhino is taking out his canister of dip and put a pinch under his lower lip.

Swede: Hey Rhino, let me get a pinch of that dip.

Rhino: How many times do I gotta tell ya to buy your own...man...I have to buy for two. I might as well adopt you.

Everyone laughs and then quiets down and stare out the windows at the approaching snow capped mountains.

John " Star" John " Star" Starky:
Hey Preach...were not going to going up to the snow level are we?

Preacher: No Cheet, Intel says the door is at about the 4,000 ft level. We're going to be dropped at about 3,000 ft so we will only have to hump up about 1,000 ft.

Pilot: Alright Preacher were almost over the landing zone.

Preacher: OK you goons lets hook up.

SCENE 4

The team is grappling down 2 by 2. It takes about 15 seconds to get the whole team down and into a defensive position.

Preacher: OK light up your night vision. Cheet...take the point. There seems to be a goat path heading in our direction due north. Were deep inside Taliban country men so keep your eyes and ears peeled.

The team head off up the path in single file. After about a hour they come around a corner in the path to a cliff face with a massive 20 ft high wooden door. It had what looked like some kind of ancient writing on it.

Preacher: This is amazing. These are ancient Samarian writings. Ancient Sumeria was the first writing society known to man Swede: How do you know what that is Preach?

Preacher: You guys know I got my Doctorate in Bible History before I joined up after 9/11. I got to study with one of the foremost Sumerian and Bible scholar in America, at Liberty University.

Zeus: Can you read it Preach?

Preacher: I can make out some of it. "Destroyer of the Seed" Enter and Die." I can't imagine how the locals could have written these words. There is no way someone from this area of the world would be able to write this. Rhino...place a charge on this bolt.

Rhino: Aye aye Preach.

Preacher: Quake...get ready to see if you can swing this open when we blow the bolt.

Quake: 10-4 Preach.
BAM...the bolt come flying off.
Quake get a grip on the edge of the massive door and with all his strength he slowly starts to open it. All the men have assumed their positions to attack in case there is trouble.

Bolt: Man...do you smell that? It smells like rotten dog crap.

Quake: Bolt...You have kept dog crap around long enough for it to rot?

Bolt: No man but this crap really stinks. I don't know if I can go in there.

Preacher: Take your scarf and wrap it around your noses. Move out... They enter in in single file with guns at the ready. Quake took the Mini from Zeus and took the point.

SCENE 5

After about 5 minutes of walking into the deep cave.

Bolt: Man this is really starting to stink in here. The further we go in the worse it gets. What the hell do you think is making this stench?

Just as Bolt finished his statement a huge rock came flying over Quakes head, skimmed Preachers left shoulder and glanced off the side of his head almost taking off his ear. Breaking his collar bone. Smashing into Bolt and Starky squashing them instantly.

Then all of a sudden out from the darkness came a massive form of a human and impaled Quake straight through with a huge sword. With one hand it lifted him 20 ft off the ground over its head. It was a monstrous giant with red hair and beard.

It was built like Quake but 15 ft tall. Quake just pulled the trigger and the mini was shooting all over the place hitting Zeus in the chest and Rhino in his left eye killing them both. The giant moved with unbelievable speed picking up Swede in one massive hand crushing him instantly.

Staggering to his knee, Preacher was able to empty his full clip into the chest and head of the beast. It staggered from the furry of bullets but kept coming. Preacher pulled out his side arm and emptied all 10 rounds into the beast face where it finally fell dead on top of him..

Preacher was pinned down with a 2000 pound giant on top of him. With his shoulder broken it took him 15 minutes to free himself. The stench was over whelming. Preacher saw that his whole team was wiped out. He checked each man and then fell and started to vomit. He fell to his knees and cried out to God Preacher: What is going on... How is this possible???

SCENE 6:

Facing the doorway from the outside Preacher comes staggering out. He falls down and gets out the SAT Phone.

Preacher: Did you see it? Did you

Medic: Yeah Preach ...We saw it all.
Your men are gone. You killed the monster. They are evacuating you team now. I never saw anything like this in my life. Its like a nightmare.

Preacher: It is a nightmare. A nightmare from before the flood of Medic: Before the flood of Noah???

Preacher falls asleep again from the morphine.

his head and shoulder wrapped. He Nurse: Doctor Loscher...Dr. Loscher. Captain Murphy is awake.

Dr. Loscher: Back from the dead Captain?

Preacher: Doctor...what have they done with my men?

Dr. Loscher: After they got you safely out of there another Black Hawk came and picked up what was left of your team. I'm so sorry Captain but the whole team was KIA.

Preacher: I know that. I was able to check them all out before I lost consciousness. What about the monster?

Dr. Loscher: They sent another Huey with a cargo net to the cave. It took 10 men to drag that beast out of the cave. Spooks from Langley showed up when it came back to the base and they put it on a C 130 and flew out of here with it to God know where.

Preacher: They took it out of here. Is there any proof they took it?

Nurse: I saw it when it came in. It had to be about 20 ft long laying down. It was massive. They took a lot of pictures of it. Then, chased everyone out of the area. They had to use a bucket loader to put it into the C-130!

Dr. Loscher: I'm going to give you another sedative Captain. You lost a lot of blood from the head wound. We put 26 stitches in your head. I don't know how your head didn't crack open.

Mr. Peterson: Good morning Captain; are you feeling a little better today?.

Preacher: They tell me I should have died with all my men so just waking up is a gift.

Mr. Peterson: Captain, Do you feel up to giving me a briefing n what happened out there the other day?

Preacher: And who are you again?

Mr. Peterson: My name is James Peterson. I work at Langley with the Advanced Research Projects Agency known as DARPA. We are interested in what you experienced out there with this giant.

Preacher: All I can tell you is that that thing smelled like it came directly out of hell. It was faster than any human I have ever saw before and as strong as 20 men. That bolder he threw at us had to be 500 lbs and Quake is a 300 lb man that he picked up like a rag doll with one hand. He crushed Swede with one hand like you would crush a frog. I put 30 rounds of 5.56 into it head and chest and ten rounds of 9MM into its face before it fell over onto me. That is all I can tell you.

It all happened in about 10 seconds. He killed my whole team in about 5 seconds. That monster is the most dangerous beast known to man. Did they find any traces of other giants out there?

Mr. Peterson: So far Captain all we found was the one we got.

Preacher: Do you have any ideas as to where this giant came from?

Mr. Peterson: The only time I ever heard that giants existed was in the old testament of the bible. You know David and Goliath. Your giant was much taller than the biblical giant Goliath. He was only 9.5 ft tall and 900 lbs. Your monster was 15.5 ft and 2230 lbs.

Preacher: I need to get back to the states so I can go to my men's funerals. Am I allowed to go now?

Mr Peterson: That my friend is up to your doctor. I am leaving for America today and will be examining that monster when I get there. I'm so sorry about your team Captain Murphy may God rest their souls.

SCENE 10:

Preacher is on a commercial airline heading back to the states. He remembered in his studies of the ancient bible histories that He has a laptop and is looking up everything he can find on giants in the bible. Being a Christian he remembers in his studies that there many references to giants in the Old Testament. He thought that was only some kids stories but now he knew that he had to revisit the giant info. He was just scratching the service when the plane landed at Lynchburg Regional Airport. In Lynchburg, Virginia.

As he was walking off the plane he was met by his beautiful wife Jeanette who was his high school sweetheart, who he married 15 years ago. Jeanette ran up to him and gave him a gentile hug because she didn't want to hurt him and a very deep passionate kiss.

Jeanette: Oh baby you look like hell. Are you feeling any better?

Preacher: Well considering I had been attacked by a 15 ft giant with a 500 lb rock and have lived to tell you about it I couldn't feel better.

Janette: Oh baby you know what I mean. I have been worried sick about you. I get depressed every time you're deployed to fight humans...now you're fighting giants. Sweetie this is just too much to comprehend. And the team...I'm so sorry honey I know how much of a family you guys all became. I love all of them too sweetie...and their wives and kids...it just unbelievable.

Preacher: I know honey...I'm just having a hard time dealing with this whole thing. It is like living in a nightmare.

Jeanette: Come on...lets get you home and into bed so you can rest up from the flight. We can talk tomorrow about it. We need to plan on going to the funerals. They are all going to be eulogized and buried next to each other at Arlington on Saturday in 4 days.

They both turn and walk to the car and drive away Him with his arm around her shoulders.

SCENE 11

That night Preacher was starting to have a bad dream. He was dreaming of the whole attack. He was screaming for his men to not go into the door. They didn't listen and he was freaking out screaming. He ran into the cave and they were already all dead and the Giant was just sitting there in all his mighty stinking hulking monstrosity. He say "hi Preacher" "What took you so long?" Don't you remember that Jesus said it will be as in the days of Noah?

Monster: He say "hi Preacher" "What took you so long?" Don't you remember that Jesus said it will be as in the days of Noah? Preacher woke up screaming in a cold sweat.

Jeanette: Dan Murphy are you ok ? You were screaming "As the days of Noah" As the days of Noah ...over and over.

Preacher: As the days of Noah. What does that mean? Jeanette where is the bible?

Jeanette: Down stares in the book shelf.

Preacher ran down the stairs and found the bible. He looked up "In the days of Noah and found it in Matthew 24:37 As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. Jesus is telling the Apostles that when he comes back the world will be like what it was in the days of Noah. God flooded the whole earth and killed everything except what was on the Ark. His family and two of all animals. What does this have to do with giants???

SCENE 11

Dan and Jeanette got into the 328i BMW and headed out to Arlington. A 3 hour trip from Lynchburg VA. Dan took his laptop and let Jeanette drive as he began doing a search on giants in the bible.

Dan: Hey GG (an affectionate pet name he called Jeanette since high school.) Check this out. I found where the giants were first mentioned in the bible. I always thought Goliath was the only giant. It seems that there were thousands of giants and many tribes of different giants.

I never knew that!!

Jeanette: Did you find anywhere that the giants first were written about?

Dan: Not yet but I'll do a Google search and see what I can find. Dan Googled "first place giants are mentioned in the bible" Up popped a whole list of articles about Giants. Finding a listing of "36 Tribes of Giants: In the Bible and Around the World/ Alternative

Dan: Hey check this out. Goliath was one of 22 giants mentioned in the bible. Here is the place giants are listed in the bible. It say something about giants all the way back in Genesis 6:4 it says
4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown. What the heck does that mean? The sons of God went into the daughters of humans. Who are the sons of God??

Jeanette: Google sons of God.

Dan: This is crazy...it says "Many interpreters see the sons of God as angels who had fallen from their heavenly estate. They were enticed by the women on the earth, cohabited with them, and produced offspring (half-human, half-angels). This offspring, the Nephilim, corrupted the earth, causing God to send a Flood to wipe everyone out except Noah's family—those who had not been tainted by the angelic sin."

So according to the bible that monster I killed was a son of an angel? They call it " The Fallen Angle Interruption.

Dan: What do you mean go on with my life? How do I just forget the savage destruction of my team and then just go on with my life.

Mr. Peterson: Captain...you have a very beautiful wife. Have a bunch of kids and do all the things any dad would do and just forget about this event. It never happened Captain...it never happened. Believe me captain, you will be doing yourself a great disservice if you ever mention this to anyone...ever.

Dan: Dear Father in heaven... in Jesus name I commit these great men into your kingdom. I know each of them were good Christians and knowing you could call us home at any time, they were ready. I know they are with you now and are at peace. Amen

Jeanette and Dan walk hand in hand back to their car and drive off.

SCENE 15

Dan is very quiet during the drive back to Lynchburg.

Janette: Are you hungry Dan?

Dan: Yeah...let's stop in a diner and grab something to eat.

Jeanette: OK...that billboard say that there is a diner a few miles down the road. Do you want to go there?

Dan: OK...if you do.

Jeanette: 10-4 Preacher

SCENE 16

They walk into a typical dinner and jump into a booth by the window facing the parking lot.

Waitress: How are you guys doing tonight?

Jeanette: Were fine. Can you start off with 2 coffees?

Waitress: Sure sweetie; I'll be right back for your order.

Dan: I just can't get that guy out of my head. What did he mean that all those people who saw the giants and attended to me have been taken care of?

As Dan was looking out the window into the parking lot a black SUV pulled in to a spot. One man got out and came inside and took a seat at one of the counter seats. He had the look of military about him. He carried himself with purpose. Something about him made Dan edgy. Dan always carried his SIG 9 MM inside his jacket. Jeanette saw the apprehension in Dan eyes. She knew something was wrong. She turned to see what was putting Dan on edge and looked directly into the eye of the man at the counter. All of a sudden the man jumped up and shot Jeanette in the chest. Before he could get off a shot at Dan, Dan already put one into his forehead.

Dan: Jeanette!!!!...Jeanette!!!

As he lifted her from the floor he knew she was gone. They killed my wife because they didn't want to risk us talking about the giants?? Knowing that these spooks always had a backup Dan picked up Jeanette and ran out the dinner and into his car and drove like a bat out of hell. He knew they would never stop until he was dead. He was thinking "I don't have anything to live for I should just wait for them and have a final shoot out and be done with this life.

Out of nowhere a large very handsome man just appeared in the back seat and told him to take a right hand turn down a dirt road and drive until he told him to stop.

Dan drove down to a farm house and the man told him to pull into the barn door that was opened. Dan was devastated. He kept his gun trained on the man when he became recognizable.

Dan: Ouriel...where have you been? Why were you not here to save Jeanette. You're an Angel? Why didn't you stop that demon that killed my wife?

Ouriel :The Lord has other plans for her Dan. You will be united again with her in Gods timing.

Ouriel: He was not a demon. He was a man. The Lord is sovereign knowing all things. He took Jeanette home into the Kingdom because He has a mission for you and she would have been a distraction. Dan, God knows you are a strong Christian. God knows your faith and you are a man after his own heart like King David. A warrior who will do anything for truth and Justice. God has a mission for you and took your wife home to be with Him.

The great deceiver Satan has one final plan he thinks will save him from the final destruction he is cursed with because of his rebellion. God has chosen you to be the one to expose this deception and bring millions of lost souls into the Kingdom before the return of Christ to finally set up His Kingdom on earth.

Ouriel: You need to run and keep off the grid. Find a safe place and you will be contacted.

Dan: What about my wife. Am I just supposed to leave her here in this barn?

Dan is flying down the highway and thought of the only place where he would be safe and get answers. His old Bible Scholar friend and teacher at Liberty University back in Lynchburg..

Dan got back to Lynchburg at about 11 PM. He knew he had to dump the bike because they would be looking for it. He threw the bike into the James River and then ran up to Professor Bart Ehrman's house in the Madison Heights section of town. Dan rang his bell.

Bart: Dan Murphy...what are you doing this time at night. I saw you on the evening news. They said you're a killer and are looking everywhere for you.

Dan: Professor. I have been framed and I need to talk to you about what going on. I am living in a horror story and I need help...guidance.

Bart: Dan you got God and he sent you and angel to assist you. Did he say how he was going to contact you again?

Dan: No...he just said I will be contacted.

Bart: Well that can mean many different ways. He could reach out to you in a dream or vision. Or just pop back at any time. Did he tell you anything about how you're going to accomplish you mission?

Dan: No... just that millions of souls will find the truth and become convinced God and Jesus are the only way to heaven.

SCENE 18

Bart and Dan finally went to bed at about 2:20 AM Dan was totally exhausted from all that transpired that day. As Dan drifted off he began to dream or have a vision, he couldn't tell.

He was all of a sudden high up in the air and began to fall untouched through these very large and leafy trees. He landed into a garden that was so beautiful that his eyes had never seen anything like it. With sounds, colors and smells he never experienced before. He could never have even imagined such a totally indescribably beautiful place. There were beautiful rivers and lakes. There were mountains and hills that had hundreds of waterfalls streaming through patches of the most beautiful trees, plants and flowers. Butterflies and birds of every color in the spectrum and even some colors he never saw before.

He saw the most beautiful structure on the top of the mountain that had the river and streams flowing down it. The river flowed right out from the base of the structure. It was a massive golden pyramid that was as high as it was across the 4 corners of the base. Dan had never imagined such an amazing structure could have ever been built by men.

As Dan started to walk towards the mountain he saw a flock of birds fly out of one of the doors. They flew straight towards him. When they got about 1,000 feet away from him he noticed that they had arms and legs. When they were close enough to see them clearly he saw they were flying men with wings.

Dan was so transfixed by the sight of this angelic host that he was frozen in place where he stood.

They were the most perfectly beautifully build men he ever saw. Each of them were wearing what looked something like purple armor. With different shaped helmets and Shields that all had different emblems on them. They all look different but you knew they all were from the same kingdom.

There were oriental, black, white and brown skin in appearance. Each were the most powerfully built handsome men Dan has ever seen. They were all different sizes from about 5"8 to 9"5 in stature. All were in tremendous physical shape. Some built like Olympic sprinters while some were thickly muscled and every shape in-between. They were all extremely handsome.

Then the largest most powerful of them stepped out in front and said,

Michael: "Welcome Dan Murphy"

Taking a knee and bowed before him. He said

Michael: "you are a most favored prince of the realm".

Dan: Am I dead? Did I die and come to heaven?

Michael: You are in heaven Dan but you are very much alive.

As Michael was speaking another angel came forward and Dan recognized him as Uriel, the angel that he met in the car after Jeanette was killed.

Uriel: Welcome prince Daniel.

Dan: Uriel...what's going on? Why am I here if I'm not dead. And why are you all calling me prince and bowing before me?

Uriel: Prince Dan. All humans that surrender their lives to Jesus and commit to the kingdom of God is a prince and princess of the Kingdom of God. Your brothers of Christ and are so regarded in the realm.

Michael: Uriel... please escort Prince Dan up to the Courts of Heaven so he can receive the message that the Father wants to give him. As you know there has been a another revolt down on earth and the host needs to crush it.

As Dan and Uriel were standing there the host of heaven led by Michael all took off and flew up through the trees that Dan fell through and disappeared...

Uriel: Come with me Prince Daniel.

SCENE 19

All of a sudden Dan was airborne and heading towards the top of the mountain. He didn't have wings but was flying nonetheless. As he flew upward he was able to see the whole landscape as far as the eye could see. It was the perfect most beautiful vision he ever saw before.

As they neared the top of the mountain he could see that the structure was massive. It had 12 layers of beautiful gemstones as its base. As he was approaching the city Dan remembered the verse in Revelations 21:10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the holy city of Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, 11 shining with the glory of God. Its radiance was like a most precious jewel, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 The city had a great and high wall with twelve gates inscribed with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel, and twelve angels at the gates. 13 There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south, and three on the west. 14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations bearing the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and its walls. 16 The city lies foursquare, with its width the same as its length. And he measured the city with the rod, and all its dimensions were equal—twelve thousand stadiad in length and width and height. 17 And he measured its wall to be one hundred forty-four cubits, by the human measure the angel was using. 18 The wall was made of jasper, and the city itself of pure gold, as pure as glass. The foundations of the city walls were adorned with every kind of precious stone: The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, with each gate consisting of a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, as pure as transparent glass.

SCENE 21

As Dan and Uriel started to walk up the road, he was totally taken back once again at the beautiful architecture. The roads was a seamless ribbon of pure gold and every building was a magnificent structure of pure white marble. Everything gleamed from a radiance that had no source. There was no sun and no lights. Everything just seemed to glow from some all-inclusive light source. It was like everything was given a power to prevent any darkness. There were no shadows. It was like everything was living light!

Dan: Uriel ...how is everything so perfectly lit up when there is no light source?

Uriel: The light in Heaven is not from an independent source, but from God the Father and the Son together. It is a radiant light unlike anything you know and permeates heaven, while not shining from a "source." Come Daniel the Father wants you to meet Him.

SCENE 22

The Throne Room

The throne is established in the midst of heaven and one is seated on the throne. It is the Almighty God who sits on the Great White throne.

God has the appearance of diamond being clear as crystal. He is as if gleaming, as a living diamond as a fiery red stone. Around the throne is a rainbow that has the shine or glimmer of deep green, that like an emerald.

At His right hand there sits on a Great White Throne, One as the Son of God... Jesus. He has the appearance of a man. A Tall strong man with a white tunic down to his feet and a golden sash wrapped around His waist.

Not only is the green rainbow around the throne, but there are 24 thrones around the throne. Seated on those 24 thrones are 24 elders who are clothed in white garments and have gold crowns on their heads. The 24 elders are another group of spiritual beings. They seem to form part of the heavenly council as they are before God's throne.

From the throne comes flashes of lightning, rumblings, and peals of thunder. The throne and the one who sits on the throne is very active with angels coming and going. There is much action with rumblings, and peals of thunder representing judgment as God sends forth his judgments from his throne. I see the seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God. I can see that the throne room pictures the Spirit of God at work.

Before the throne there was something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Again, the splendor, beauty, and majesty of the throne room of God is beyond imagination it is just so glorious

There are four living creatures around the throne as well. The four living creatures are amazing with 4 faces. A face of a lion, ox, human, and eagle. The four living creatures have six wings and are full of eyes all around and within. These are amazing spiritual beings that are difficult to visualize and grasp let alone describe.

Ouriel: Come Daniel ...meet your Father.

Daniel slowly walks up to the throne of God.

The whole room becomes silent and every being stands and then bows as Daniel walks past them. He keeps his head down and stops before the feet of God. All of a sudden Jesus stands up and steps down to Dan. Dan falls to his knees. Jesus then takes him by the hand and lifts him to his feet.

Jesus: Father...may I present to you your son and prince of the realm Daniel Murphy. He became your son the day his grandmother taught him as a boy about Me and My sacrifice for the forgiveness of sin. He accepted my free gift and has been your faithful son ever since.

God stands and steps down to Dan and grabs him and gives him a big bear hug.

God: Welcome my son. I have always loved you even before the creation of My universe.

God takes a position on one side of Dan and Jesus the other. They grab his hands and lift them high... the whole throne room of heaven starts to cheer and sing in one voice HOLY... HOLY ...HOLY God and Jesus take their seats and the four living creatures begin to sing "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!

Ouriel: Come with me Dan. I have to show you why the Father brought you here to the throne room of heaven. He has a most important mission for you to complete.

SCENE 23

Ouriel took Dan out from the Throne Room and back into the streets of heaven. They walked over to a beautiful mansion that was Ouriel's home.

Dan: Your home is most beautiful Ouriel. It seems like one home is more beautiful than the next.

Ouriel: Yes Dan. Jesus Himself built everything you see in the universe. He actually holds everything together with his mighty power. Nothing that is created was not created by him. He created everything by his mighty word. He speaks and it is created. He is building one for you and every son and daughter of God. Designed by what he knows would be most pleasing to you. Some love huge palatial mansions while other would prefer a small beautiful cottage by a river. Whatever He prepares for you is exactly what your heart's desire wants. You don't even know what it is you want. He dose and when you first see it, your completely happy and at home forever in your house.

Dan: Ouriel God said you were going to show me what my mission is to be for the Kingdom.

Ouriel: Yes Dan. What God has prepared for you is something He has never done before with man or angel. There is on earth a Great Deception that He will allowed the Great Deceiver to perpetrate on humanity. He has created you as the person He will use to bring that great deception to the light and destroy all the works of the Deceiver...Satan the Devil.

Dan: Why does He need me? He is the all-powerful...all knowing God of all that exist? Why not just destroy Satan once and for all.

Ouriel: Because Dan God doesn't want robotic animations that have no free will. God only wants those in his kingdom that love Him perfectly in their hearts.

The only way that can be accomplished is through believing He is God and we are His children. Those who love Him enough to want to get to know him. Take time to search out what God loves and then live accordingly. That is why God created man in His image. He loved each and every one of you as you love your own flesh and blood...your children. He can only have those who love Him as He loves us, through a personal relationship with Him. Those who freely love Him will spend all eternity with Him. God created Satan with a free will and he turned against God. God will use Satan to turn man back to God.

That is where you come in. God is going to empower me to show you vision from my eyes that I witnessed through time. These visions will allow you to traverse the ages from creation of Lucifer who became Satan to Adam to the first and second appearing of Jesus. Your to Chronical Satan's activities and how God has counter them. Every deceptive move Satan makes he will allow you to witness personally, how God counters Satan's moves.

Satan will be permitted to bring the whole history of man to a point where man will be willing to surrender totally to him; but in the end everyone will know who he really is because you're going to be able to expose this evil to the world.

You will be witnessing through encountering every evil Satan devises, in his demented mind. You're going back to the beginning and you will be a witness all the way to the return of Jesus, when He sets up His Kingdom on earth. You will witness Michael bind Satan in chains and throw him in hell forever.

All during this time you will be bringing the lost into the kingdom by exposing the evil and shining the light of God onto their hearts and souls.

Dan: Why me... billions of people who have lived and God has chosen me for this mission?

Ouriel: There is a bloodline of humans that started with Adam and will end with you. You're from the bloodline of Adam and it was your bloodline that was attacked by satan with many different monsters throughout history. The reason that giant attacked you was because we are entering the time of the end and satan has awakened the sleeping giants of old just as Jesus said they would be. Remember when asked by the Apostles what would be the sign of the end and His return?

Dan: It was in Matthew 24 No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark...

Dan: You said I was from the bloodline from Adam. Doesn't that mean that Jesus had children that I came from?

Ouriel: No ...Mary and Joseph had other sons and daughters after Jesus.

Dan: Yes I know that was in the bible. Mark 6:3

Isn't this the carpenter? Isn't this Mary's son and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon?
Aren't his sisters here with us?"
And they took offense at him.

Ouriel: Yes Mary and Joseph were both from the pure royal bloodlines that came from Adam. Joseph's second son Joseph is the father of your bloodline. You're from Jesus brother Joseph. I have been tasked to show you from dreams and vision how Satan has tried to attack the true Blood line from Adam until the second coming when Jesus appears with the Army of God in the soon coming future. You will write down everything I show you so that when the time is at hand God will release that written word onto a lost world. Once the world understand this truth there will be the most amazing revival in history where tens of millions of lost souls will receive salvation in one day.

Ouriel: Dan you have been chosen before the creation of the world for this wonderful mission your about to go on.

Dan: When do I start?

Ouriel: Now!!!

Ouriel reached out and touched Dan's head and he was instantly sent through a vortex time portal and becomes invisible and stands at a corner of the throne room of heaven. This time it totally different. It is just a throne with God and Jesus sitting side by side. Nothing else but the sea of glass spread out before them as far as the eye can see.

Scene 24

Lucifer was such an enjoyment to the King. He would cover His throne with his mighty wings. Play the most beautifully orchestrated music that made the King love him even more than possible.

When the King was not on the throne and busy elsewhere speaking all different wonders into creation, Lucifer was going into the Vault of fiery stones and picking out millions of different stones to bring into the light of God, to become a part of Gods angelic host. Lucifer would bring them before the King one at a time so the King could get to name and bless them. Imparting His individual gifts to each and every one of his beloved angels.

SCENE 25

Lucifer on the first time going into the Vault of fiery stones found four very large stones that were the same size but had different colors floating about 6 ft off the floor.

All four were flaming hotter and brighter than all the others. Lucifer took out the first of the large stones and when he placed it on the golden alter and spoke the words that God taught him, there was another super nova blast of radiant light. There stood a six winged man shaped creature who had four faces. The face of a lion. The face of an ox. The face of an eagle and a face of a man.

The creature was covered with eyes. Lucifer took the first of them to be presented to God. As the creature was standing there before God, God: "you are a Serph"...called my Seraphim. Stand beside me and fly above the throne. You must cover your feet and your face with your wings because your face is too close to my glory and your feet are unclean.

The Serph's two middle wings started to beat and it was lifted above the throne where it started to sing

Serph: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole Kingdom is full of his glory."

God: Lucifer your to bring out the other three one at a time. We will repeated the whole proceeding until all four four of the living creatures are hovering over the throne.

SCENE 26

Lucifer went back to the vault and this time there seven fiery stones that were hovering in a circle over all the others. Lucifer started to bring them out to the golden altar. The first hovering fiery stone was place on the altar and another super nova light blasted and there stood this mightily built creature that had the appearance of God but was not as glorious. He stood about 8 ft tall with a massive chest, thick muscular arms and massive shoulders. He was squared jawed with shoulder length curly golden hair with cobalt blue eyes. They were like the reflection of the azure pools that the river of life ran down into, at the bottom of the mountain city. He was covered in a purple armor with a mighty sword in a scabbard.

Lucifer brought this angel to God,

God: Lucifer this is your brother Michael, who is a warrior class angel. He is assigned is to be the protector of heaven. Michael you will be empowered with unlimited strength. A ruler and protector over all of heaven. You are to answered only to Lucifer and myself.

SCENE 27

Next Lucifer brought all the other archangels out of the fiery stones and God named them Gabriel, Raphael, Uriel, Raguel, Remiel, and Sariel. God bestowed all of them with mighty powers that no other angels could match in power, speed and wisdom.

Lucifer and the mighty seven archangels were all brothers who instantly admired each other and loved each other as the supreme warrior angels of the kingdom.

Lucifer spent an eon of time bringing to God, all the many millions of angels that made up all the heavenly host of heaven. Lucifer loved being with God in the throne room of heaven when he wasn't bringing the fiery stones to life. He would play the most beautiful soulful music ever heard before. The music would never be the same but would always be praising God who he loved above all things.

There was a new spirit that started to become very evident in heaven. God was in a creative mood and was planning the greatest event in the history of anyone's memory. Each of the brothers commanded an army of millions of angels that were always busy building all throughout the universe.

SCENE 28

Once a year they would all come back to the Holy Mountain to spend seven days with the Lord God, enjoying the family reunion. It was the best time of the year for the host. They would muster at the base of the holy mountain where they would have games of sport and test their many different skills.

No matter what the games or the competition was, it would always come down to Lucifer and Michael. At this time the event is a flying for speed and agility competition. They had assembled a course of obstacles that took supreme flying skills to get through the course without going out of bounds or missing one of the challenging obstacles. As the brothers were speeding around the universe in pursuit of the championship, they would goad each other with brotherly love and affection.

All the brothers love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honoring each other at all times. They did have a healthy competitive nature. These encounters were always done in respect with love, but humorously. They always loved to make each other laugh as often as they could.

Scene 29

At the Great hall where God was holding a banquet for every angel in His Kingdom. These yearly banquets that were always the most special times of the year. God would always point out some of the successful achievements the angels accomplished over the past year where everyone would celebrate each other's successes.

SEANE 30

At the end of this year's Feast God made an announcement.

God: I am going to do something that nobody thought was possible. I am going to create over the next six days the most beautiful creation of all His creation. No other place in the universe was going to be like this.

So with all the host of heaven all in one place, in one mind, witnessed The Lord God Jesus, of the God head, stood before all the host and said ...

Jesus: You have all my children seen that I created the heavens with all the billions of suns and planets. They are all formless and empty. I know you all are wondering why I created all this vast universe. Now, you will over the next seven days be witness to the reason I created all of this majestic wonder.

Jesus: "Let there be light"

There was this small planet that was situated directly in the middle of the universe that went around a small sun called earth. God's glory in itself shined out and lit up the universe. The earth stood out in the glorious light. It was a beautiful ball of blue water. All the angels rejoiced at what God was doing.

SCENE 31

The next night after the festivities Jesus stood before the host at the banquet and said,

Jesus: "Let there be a vault between the waters to separate water from water."

So God made the vault and separated the water under the vault from the water above it. And it was so.

Jesus: I will call the vault "sky."

And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day. All the host rejoiced with the anticipation that God was going to do something great for all to enjoy.

SCENE 32

The next day the assembly was now just the massive crowd of angels standing in the hall.

They could not even care about the feast they wanted to see what God was going to do now. Jesus stood before the host and said

Jesus: "Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the vault of the sky."

So the King created the great creatures of the sea and every living thing with which the water teems and that moves about in it, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them and said,

Jesus: "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth."

And there was evening, and there was morning—the fifth day. The host could not believe their eyes. God created such a vast array of creatures that nobody could have ever imagined. The host was now incapable of moving. They spent the whole day and night just kneeling and praising God for His glorious majesty. They sang

Host: "Holy Holy Holy Lord God almighty, now heaven and earth are filled with your glory"

SCENE 33

The next day Jesus stood and held up his hand to quiet the host. He commanded and spoke the word..

Jesus: "Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: the livestock, the creatures that move along the ground, and the wild animals, each according to its kind."

And it was so. God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

The host fell on their faces and were praising the King because of what He was doing. They could not even comprehend what it was that He was doing. After all these amazing animals what could He do to top this last glorious creations? They praised Him continuously over the whole day and night. They were in a frenzy of anticipation as to what God was going to do on the last day.

SCENE 34

Day six has arrived ...never in the history of time and space was this day so joyous. God was saving this day to reveal His glory like never before. The host was going to witness the most amazing event in the history of time... this was the creative crescendo of epic proportions... nothing was ever going to equal this in all of Gods creations. Jesus come forward and raised His hand to the sky. The host all stood with hands raised and not a sound could be heard. Then Jesus spoke the most incredible words of all creation.

Jesus: "Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them and said to them,

Jesus: "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground."

The host went wild in praise and jubilation for they were witness to God recreating Himself.

Man in his image to live forever and ever in the most wonderful paradise.

God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day. All heaven was overjoyed with excitement. The great hall was filled with merry angels and were feasting on the greatest that heaven had to offer.

The next day they all rested. The day after they all went back to their assignments with the greatest respect for the King. All were looking forward to finding out what their part will be in to interact in the new creation.

When Lucifer found out what God had planned for the man ...His heart became hardened towards the man...

Dan: Ouriel...I would like to go down to the new earth and observe Adam and Eve. I know what happens and I need to see it happen, so I can understand how this all happened.

SCEAN 35

Dan is transported through the portal from heaven to earth. He lands in the most beautiful garden. He thinks he is still in heaven because it looks just like the heavenly gardens. The same unimaginable beauty. He is in the presents of a man and woman who are the most perfect looking people he ever saw in his life. He can see them but they have no idea he is there.

Dan: I there. Can you see me?
Hello!!!

They have no Idea that Dan is there. They can't see or hear him. As Dan is observing them he follows them where they go. He watches them playing with Tigers, Lions and huge grizzly bears. They run as fast as gazelles and chase after them as well as the cheetahs. They have amazing strength and speed.

They swim into the 4 rivers in the garden and dive off high waterfalls. They never have to worry about eating. They graze on fruits and vegetables that are growing wild everywhere.

Just before the sun goes down and the evening is cooling with a faint breeze, they walk into a beautiful clearing with all kinds of beautiful flowers and birds. Huge butterflies with 5 ft wing spans as well as amazing dragonflies with 6 to 10 ft wing spans are flying from flower to flower.

They drop to their knees and start to pray. All of a sudden this amazing bright light appears and Jesus walks out of it. He stands there and Adam and Eve get up and they have a group hug. There is so much joy and love between them. They begin to walk and talk when Jesus turns and looks directly at me and gives me a wink. Jesus turns and starts walking and speaking about all these different things that they will be doing in the garden all throughout eternity as the children of God.

They stopped in the middle of the field and Jesus pointed to a tree in the middle of the meadow.

Jesus: Adam tell Eve about this trees.

Adam: "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die."

Eve: Yes my Lord.

She said with a bow of her head.

SCENE 36

Dan had noticed that Lucifer would show up and watch when God would walk with his children in the cool of the evening. Lucifer was starting to become angry when he saw how much God loved to be with the man and woman.

One night when God went down to Adam and Eve, Lucifer went into the Great hall and summoned his brothers to attend a meeting. As the seven arch-angels were wondering why they were summoned to the Hall, Lucifer walked into the hall and stood before his brothers.

Lucifer: I called you here because I want to discuss the alarming events that have taken place here in the Kingdom. It is my understanding that The Father is going to populate the earth with millions and millions of these men. It was His intent all along to have one of us from the host to be assigned to spend all eternity being in servitude to these flesh men made of dirt. It is obvious that the King only created us so we can be at the beckoned call as to serve the dirt man with every request he makes. We're nothing more than servants to the dirt man

Michael: Lucifer my brother why talk of such things. If it is the Kings will that we become ministering spirits to the humans then that is a great honor to follow the will of the King. The King has always know what is best for us at everything He has ever asked of us, has been a tremendous benefit to us. Being obedient to the King will always produce unknown benefits to us who loyally serve Him. The man has been made a little lower than the angels. Being of service to them is a great privilege. They are very beautiful beings, with a heart like God's. Why are you so upset to serve God by serving the children He loves so much? The Kings loves us as much as ever. We have not been put into such an unpleasant position as you have described.

Lucifer: Why are you so blind Michael? Can't you see what's going on here? They are to become as God. They are the children of God. We're not the real sons of God...we were created to be slaves to these dirt men.

Michael: I will not take part in any of this rebellious talk.

Remiel turns and says to Sariel,

Remiel: Did you see the look to meet with us without them.

Sariel: Yes I saw it brother. I don't think we should have anything

Remiel: I don't know what he wants us to do but, I believe he might be correct in what he is saying about us being created to serve the men the King created on earth. I'm going to see what he is thinking about doing. I'm not looking men for all eternity.

Sariel: I don't think that is what

Lucifer might know something we don't. Let's see what he wants to said to them.

hall after the King goes down to Remiel: I too agree to listen.

Lucifer: I want you two to go down into the earth and observe the Dirt man and his woman. Watch to see what they are doing with the King when He visits them every evening. If you feel like they are just an object of God's love and nothing else then they are no threat to enslave us.

Let the King see you in the garden as just observing His amazing creation. If he commands you to do some kind of servitude for the man, then my suspicions are correct.

both bow to Lucifer and say...

Sariel and Remiel: at your command my prince.

Sariel and Remiel arrive in the garden. They are flying around and taking in the wonders of Eden. They fly over where God is walking with Adam and Eve. God looks up and calls them down to Him. They land at God feet and kneel before Him.

Once you are finished with the first crown bring it up to me.

Sariel: Yes my Lord. It would be my honor to show Adam the abundance of gold you have created in the river and the many things that can be created with it.

Both the angels fly off into the garden and the Lord continues His walk with Adam and Eve.

SCENE 41

The angels arrive together in the Great Hall where Lucifer is waiting for a report as to how their spy mission went.

It is very evident that God loves them tremendously but besides that, they are very nice and friendly beings.

Sariel: Yes...the King asked me to take the man to the river Pishon tomorrow. It is the one of the four rivers flowing through EDEN that has all the gold in it. The King has asked me to show the man how to extract the gold and then craft it into ornaments. The Kings asked me to show Adam how to make a crown.

Lucifer: A crown? For who is this crown being made for?

Sariel: For Adam I think...and Eve. I don't know. All the King asked me to do is show Adam how to make crown for human heads.

Lucifer: Interesting...The King is going to crown the heads of the dirt men.

Remiel: I don't see what is so terrible about showing the man how to mine and work with gold?

Lucifer: Sariel...do as the Lord commands you to work with the man and the gold. If you are to be a teacher of how to mine and fashion the gold objects that is being creative. We are to be creative for eternity. But if you are just being used as a slave to the man I want to know about it.

Sariel: I don't believe that is what the Lord God has intended for us to be. If things change I'll let you know.

SCENE 42

The next morning Lucifer went to the Vault of the Fiery Stones. There were 24 stones that were floating above the others. As he took the stones out one after another to the golden altar with a bright flash of intense light the stones turned into an elderly looking man.

Lucifer walked each man being before God. The King ordained each of them as elders of the throne room and gave them a small throne that was part of 24 thrones that surrounded the Great White throne of God. It took 24 days to fill all the 24 thrones with elders. Each elder was given a gold crown that was made by Adam from the gold that was mined and fashioned from the river Pishon and delivered to God by Sariel each day.

Jesus: Sariel... I am well pleased about how you have taught my son Adam in the mining skills and the fabrication of the gold into crowns. I will need you to produce 24 crowns in the next 24 days with Adam. Make them all as beautiful as you can imagine and all different. A new crown every day.

Sariel: Yes my Lord. It is my pleasure to train the man in the arts of goldsmithing. There is so much gold in the river my Lord that we can use it to build buildings here in heaven. We can use it to build roads. It is so easy to work with and so beautiful.

Jesus: Yes Sariel...that is what I plan to do with much of the gold. I created it for the heavenly host to use as the material they will need to fabricate much of what will be built here in heaven for their homes. That is why I wanted you to teach Adam the skills needed to undertake such a grand work project. You will be assigned to Adam as his assistant, in the creation of all the gold objects to be mined and fabricated for the building of heavenly dwellings.

Lucifer: So brother how was your day today with the man?

Sariel: It was a good day brother.

The man and I had fabricated the first crown for the Elders that you are bringing out of the fiery stones. The Lord was pleased with the man's creation. He told me that we are going to be using the gold from the river for a large building project in heaven. All the host of heaven will begin to build their dwellings where much of the materials will be gold and white marble.

Lucifer: So the crowns are not for the dirt man? But for the 24 elders I am bringing out of the fiery stones?

Sariel: So it seems my prince. So it seems. The King said that we will be undertaking a large construction project to build the heavenly dwellings for the host and gold will become one of the major building materials. He wants his man son to become an expert in the mining and fashioning of gold objects.

Lucifer: So the King will be sending the man out to the river Pishon every day to work with you on these projects?

Sariel: So it seems my prince.

Lucifer: What is the King going to be doing with the woman while the man is at the Pishon?

Sariel: I don't know my brother. I suppose she will be tending to the garden and spending time with the animals. She loves to play with all the different animals. Adam meets up with her at the end of the day. The Lord then comes and breaks bread with them until late evening. It seems that the King prefers the company of these children He has created. They are in His image and they are so loved by the King.

Lucifer: Yes so it seems...they are so loved by the King.

SCENE 44

Lucifer is obsessed over the relationship the King has with the man and woman. He has developed a true dislike for the two beings that were created out of the dirt. He is overcome with jealousy because he feels that the building project that includes all the angelic host, now gives Adam a higher standing in the eyes of the King.

They all have to report to Adam so he can assign them their work at the Pishon River Gold works area in the garden. Lucifer has slowly gotten into the minds of many of the angels. Whenever he has a chance he will insinuate that they have abandoned their freedom to create as they please, to now have only the build out of the heavenly abodes and being direct by Adam in the gold production platform.

As more and more larger gold components of building material are produced, the Lord developed huge flying cargo ships that would transport the larger components through the dimensional portals up to heaven to be expertly placed onto the buildings to cap off and highlight the building made from the white marble.

There were many different sizes of these flying machines. They flew from some antigravity system and were completely silent.

Up in heaven they were used to lift into place all the walls and roofs of massive building. They are air cranes that lifted large slabs of materials with a tractor beam. Fly into the precise position and then lower the slab into the perfect placement. They never had to use sand and mortar in between the slabs because they were so precise. You couldn't even insert a razor blade between the building blocks.

Heaven has become a place where the most beautiful buildings are being built with Jesus Himself directing and building the buildings Himself. Each building is more elaborately built than the last. They are constructed with the most beautiful white marble and have every precious stone imaginable supporting the building at the foundations.

Every building has gold trim that highlights the contours of the buildings. All the architectural motifs are of pure gold, the lattice work, the arches, the spires that top off the highest buildings, the columns, the statues, the roads are all of pure gold. Millions of angels are totally dedicated to the most amazing building project of the universe.

They are building homes for every angel and another billion or so for all the humans that will eventually become citizen of the realm.

Lucifer sees all this building and has become an instigator towards the angels that are building the homes for the future humans that are not even created yet. Day after day Lucifer is whispering disparaging and traitorous accusations against the King for making all these angels slave over these building they are building for the men that the King loves more than them.

Lucifer has now created a movement of rebellion within the ranks of the host.

Lucifer really started to make headway with his rebellion when he was told by the King that He was going to assign to every human ever created a guardian angel that will be a ministering angel for the life of that human and that was for all eternity. He equated it an assigned slavery. The righteous angels saw it a supreme honor to so serve the Kings children.

SCENE 45

As time went on the heavenly construction project was in full throttle. There were millions of angels now in heaven doing the creative construction of all the beautiful buildings. There were also millions of angels down in the garden at the gold works on the River Pishon.

The King only came down to the garden to spend time with His children in the evenings, so Lucifer started to come down to the gold works during the day. He spent many hours of the day speaking guile and duplicity, by searching out the hearts of the working angels.

He would work side by side with the angel and start the conversation by complaining out loud about a certain task that the unsuspecting angel was doing. He would listen to how the angel would respond to the negative complaint. Working side by side with the Prince was a honor. To have the prince humble himself to actually do the same work as a regular angel of the host of heaven was so unexpected that the poor angel was very open to Lucifer's underhanded negative mind set. Lucifer worked on this skullduggery towards undermining the honor of serving the King until he had every one of the angels working the gold works under his treacherous spell.

One day before Adam came to work at the gold works Lucifer was able to assemble the millions of angels into a massive crowd. He started to give a speech about how all the angels in heaven have so much more favor in the eyes of the King.

That they are all reaping such tremendous blessings of favor and blessings while they who slave down in the gold works on earth get nothing but a chance to serve this man...this man of dirt. All the angels start to grumble amongst themselves. Remiel stepped forward and turned to the crowd and said.

Remiel: The prince is telling the truth. We have been down here for over 25 years and all we ever get is more work while our heavenly brothers get every imaginable blessing.

Sure, every year we get to go up to the mountain of God in the Kingdom, for the soon coming great yearly feast but, as soon as that is over, we are sent back down here again to slave over these golden treasure that go into building the heavenly structures.

All of the crowd started to murmur even louder amongst themselves.

Lucifer: You all know that we are to all become ministering spirits to these humans as the King starts to let them reproduce. He calls us the Guardian Angels. This whole planet will become filled with these dirt creatures and do you think that the King is going to make the heavenly angels become their guardians?? NO...He is going to keep us down here after the heavenlies are all built up. We are not going to be the ones to live with the King in all of the heavenly pleasures. We're going to be cast out to watch over these dirt people for all eternity.

Sariel steps out of the crowd and says

Sariel: So prince...what is it that we should do?

Follow the Kings edicts and remain as slaves? Or do we free ourselves?

Lucifer is thinking how easy is this to put myself into a position to become god. These fools will do anything I command now.

Lucifer: The Great Annual Feast is in 12 days. This gives us time to prepare for an assault on the Kingdom. I am all powerful. I alone have walked on the fiery stones. I am the morning Star. You will follow me up to the heavenlies. I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the angels of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. You will earn a seat at the great hall. I will be fair in ruling over you and all the kingdom as a truly righteous King. You will never work in slavery again!!!

A thunderous cheer goes up.

SCENE 46

Lucifer sets up his army into thousands of centurions, of 100 angels in each. The host on earth was a third of all the heavenly host. In the next 11 days the golden works angels still went to work, so not to draw attention as to their intentions. On the twelfth day Lucifer told the army to keep working and keep Adam busy. At the end of the day they would abandon their estate and ascend up to heaven for a surprise attack. Taking the city and the throne of God. When the King comes down to spend the cool of the evening with his dirt people, is when we will be breaching the city of heaven.

Lucifer saw Adam show up at the gold works. He knew he had to work fast. He flew over to where Eve was petting a beautiful black panther.

SCENE 47

As she was frolicking through the field of flowers and butterflies, she sits by a tree with the cat snuggling up beside her. The large cat was purring with delight when all of a sudden a serpent dropped down hanging from a tree branch.

Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman,

Lucifer: "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden'?"

The woman wasn't surprised at the serpent's speaking because Adam and Eve had free conversation with angelic beings that often appeared in the form of men. If this is true, it wasn't so strange to Eve that an angelic being might appear to her in the form of a beautiful pre-curse serpent. A shinning one...

Eve: "We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.'

Lucifer: "You will not surely die. For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. Lucifer was amazed at how easy it was for him to trick the woman. He took such delight in this ability to trick the unsuspecting dirt people.

SCENE 48:

About an hour later Adam can back into the field to spend the night with Eve and eat and talk with God. Eve walked over to him with the fruit. She was eating another piece of the forbidden fruit, then held it out for him to eat. So he ate it too.

Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

Then they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. Then the Lord God called to Adam and said to him,

Lord God: "Where are you?"

Adam: "I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself."

Lord God: "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?"

Adam: "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."

Lord God: "What is this you have done?"

EVE: "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Lucifer had left and was leading his army up to heaven as this exchange was being played out.

Lord God: "Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every beast of the field; on your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel."

This is the first prophecy in the bible. God is telling Lucifer that there is going to be a constant war being waged on earth between the seed of the woman and his seed. Lucifer was going to have a seed or offspring that will become the archenemy of the offspring of the woman because the seed of the woman will eventually become the source of his destruction. Lucifer knew he had to destroy the seed of the woman or his prophesied doom was inevitable.

Lord God: "I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception; in pain you shall bring forth children; your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you."

Then to Adam He said,

Lord God: "Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it': "Cursed is the ground for your sake; in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life. Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you, and you shall eat the herb of the field. In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for dust you are, and to dust you shall return."

Also for Adam and his wife the Lord God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.

SCENE 49

As soon as the woman took the bite of the fruit Lucifer just disappeared and shot over to where the rebellious army was all assembled and ready to attack the heavenly host.

Lucifer landed where Sariel and Remiel were standing over the host readying them for the assault. There were over a million angels that took off towards heaven as a snarling horde.

As they started to arrive it became evident that their plot was found out.

Prince Michael was waiting at the base of the holy mountain with the whole host of heaven fully armed and with swords, shields and armor. While the rebel horde had only gold tipped spears and clubs.

The Lord God is a sovereign God that knows all things. He created humans and angels with free will. He knew that with free will that evil could enter the hearts of those who allowed pride to seep into their souls. The Lord knew that with free will that, the true hearts and thoughts of angel and man would eventually become evident. He only wanted to spend all eternity with those whom were dedicated totally to Him and his Kingdom. All others will be eliminated for all eternity.

There was a massive clash of armies with the heavenly host standing firm. The earthy host being instantly halted in their tracks and begin to fall back. Lucifer was in the lead of his army and met Michael headlong into battle. The Lord God took what power over Michael Lucifer had and transferred it to Michael. Now Michael was the supreme Commander of the host of heaven.

Michael and Lucifer met with the power of an exploding hydrogen bomb. Every move by one was countered by the other. After what seemed an eternity Lucifer's face showed a sign of fear. The harder he fought, Michael seemed to be in total control of his body and mind. Michael was gaining strength while his was draining.

His confidence final broke. The pride of Lucifer was his downfall. In one swift move Michael had Lucifer in a choke hold, where he was totally incapacitated. When all the strength was drained out of Lucifer, Michael flew up over the battle while holding the defeated Prince of Heaven so all could see. When the invading army saw their champion...their god totally defeated, they all surrendered in place. The raging battle for heaven was ended. The Lord God was heartbroken for what He was now about to do.

SCENE 50

Back on earth the Lord God was walking Adam and Eve out of the garden and into the wasteland.

And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever"; therefore the Lord God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Adam and Eve were weeping with a wailing that came from deep within their souls. They never experienced such sorrow. As they walked off into the wilderness they noticed that the animals started to flee from the Garden too.

To their horror the larger animals like tigers, lions and bears started to run down the smaller animals like deer and antelope. When they caught them they started to tear them to pieces. Death was something that was never experienced in the Garden. Now it became the way of life.

The Lord God gave Adam a satchel of seeds from the plants that he could eat. He was to start planting the seeds for food. It would take a few months for the food to grow so he had to become a hunter to survive. He fashioned a spear from a tree and shaped a stone into a pointed head of the spear.

They survived in the wilderness by killing their old friends and eating their flesh raw. The Lord God did not give them any fire. They knew not of fire.

Adam found a cave up on a narrow cliff about 20 ft off the ground. They had to climb up and down the cliff so that they would be protected from the large carnivorous animals.

And so they lived for the rest of their lives in this cave about 2 miles from the entrance of the garden.

SCENE 51

The battle was over in heaven.

Meaning "enemy" or "adversary"

Michael took Lucifer and bound him along with all the rebel angels. The King came into the host and told Satan and the fallen that they are banished forever into the pit of hell in earth.

As He spoke and proclaimed their punishment Satan and the rebel horde started to painfully shape shift into the most grotesque, horribly disfigured monstrosities.

They were the most beautiful of all creation and now were so hideously deformed that you could not look upon them without being sickened.

They were all bound together into a massive ball of hideously grotesque hate filled monsters. God commanded Michael to throw them down into a place prepared for them in earth called hell.

All the fallen angels were bound in the pit of hell. Satan was now the king of the earth. Adam freely surrendered it to him when he disobeyed God. God put a hedge of protection around the people of earth where Satan could not physically harm them. He could however still influence them telepathically to inspire them to do evil and sin.

You have served me faithfully along with your righteous angels. I now have charged you with the supreme commander of the Host of Heaven and Earth.

Your charge is to protector of both realms. Adam has surrendered his position of King of all the earth to Satan. Satan knows that I have planned for the seed of the woman to eventually destroy him forever. In his deluded mind he still believes that he can out smart me and become king of heaven at some point.

He knows the seed of Eve is the only thing that can destroy him forever and he will try with all his twisted mind try to accomplish that task. Adam and Eve as well as every first born of each new generation in his blood line are in mortal danger of being destroyed by Satan. He is like a roaring lion wondering the earth looking for whom he can destroy. I need for my children to reproduce into the billions.

I want to have as many of my children live life and love me as much as I love them with their free will so we all can enjoy eternity as one happy and loving family: enjoying all of the perfect creation I have designed for their pleasure.

Now that satan knows that he has to destroy the seed of Eve, he is going to be on the constant look out to destroy as many of my children as he can throughout time. I need you to assign as guardians for Adam and Eve two of your best and most loyal of the host to protect them from the wiles of satan now.

I will also have to begin sending down to the earth a guarding angel for as soon as my children are conceived in the womb of their mother. Each pregnant mother will have two guardian angels looking over them until the birth of the child.

As soon as a baby is conceived I need an angel to bring the spark of life from the fiery stone vault. These angels will guard my children all the days of their physical lives. Because death has now become an eventual reality for my children, I need the guardian angels to guard them from satan as long as they are in the flesh. As my children die and pass on then, and only then, will the guarding angel be released from their charge of guardians?

SCENE 53

Michael goes down to the golden road of the heavenly city and walks into a new building that was just being finished. He walks up to a pair of very powerful angels.

Michael: Cassiel and Gadreel.

They stand at attention and tap their chest with their right fisted hand and say in unison

Cassiel and Gadreel: Yes your prince.

Michael: The Lord God has given me a task to send down to the man and woman two of my best guardian angels to be assigned to the protection of the two fallen children of God. You're not to be seen by them unless the Lord give you specific instruction to do so.

You will have to be on a constant guard over them where they live. Never leave their side because Satan is allowed to put sinful and rebellious thoughts into their hearts. He is permitted to attack their spirit if they are not keeping a close relationship with the Lord by living a moral and just life. If they continue to sin then Satan is to actually be permitted to attack them physically and with disease.

Cassiel: I know I speak for the both of us. We are honored to be chosen by the Lord to take charge over the safety of the Lords children. Satan will never have a chance to cast his evil spells over our humans. We will defend them from all the wiles of the devil. In unison both angels thump their massive chest and say.

Cassiel and Gadreel: To God goes all the glory .

They turn and descend down to the earth through one of the many dimensional gateways to in heaven that go to an earthly location. They land where the Guardian Angel Sentniel stands with the fiery sword stands outside the entrance of the Garden of Eden.

Gadreel: Greetings Sentniel.

Sentniel: Greetings my brothers. What mission has the Lord God sent you to do on this sad planet?

Cassiel: The Lord God has assigned us two to be the Guardians over the fallen children of the King.

Sentniel: I was wondering what the King was going to do to help them down here.

Gadreel: Yes we must hurry. We know they have taken refuge in a cave on the mountain across the valley at the bottom of Eden.

The angels said their good-byes and departed from Sentniel and flew over to the cave entrance.

SCENE 54

When Cassiel and Gadreel landed at the entrance of the cave they walked into the cave to find their charges. What they saw sickened them and upset them. Both Adam and Eve were filthy dirty and covered in bloody animal skins of the goat and sheep.

They were huddled in a corner of the cave and eating raw flesh of some animal. Cassiel picked Adam to guard and Gadreel Eve. They both took up guard at the cave entrance. They had just arrived at the cave in time to turn satan way from his discovery of the humans.

SCENE 55

Cassiel: Where do you think you're going satan?

Satan: Stand aside you two or I will crush you both.

Then you can only use your powers to influence their minds with your evil thoughts. You will never be able to physically touch a human...ever. Only the Lord God Himself can give you that permission to physically hurt a human.

Satan tried to walk past them into the cave. They grabbed his arms and lifted him off the ground and threw him off the cliff face. He spun around in the air and flew off..

Satan: I will find a way to destroy the woman. You will have to be ready for an attack at any time. You have crossed me and will suffer defeat at my hands. I will kill the woman or her seed. I will win this war. I will destroy the seed!!!! I will rule over this planet forever. There will never be a savior born from this dirt woman's seed.

SCENE 56:

The Lord God appeared to Adam

The Lord: You he will need to do a burnt offering once per year to cleanse their sins. You are to cut the throat of a lamb. Collect the blood and cut it in equal halves. Put it on an altar of wood branches and logs and burn it as a sweet savoring for me.

Adam: Lord...I spent many years at the furnace at the gold works at the River Pishon but your angels provided the fire for the smelting of the gold. I know nothing about making fire.

The Lord: Adam to come to the front of the cave.

He pointed to a bush below the cave. All of a sudden a bright flash of lighting came streaking down from heaven and blasted the bush that instantly started to burn. The thunder that followed the lighting was so loud that Adam almost fainted from the terror of the event. The Lord God told Adam..

Lord God: Go Adam to the bush before it goes out. Gather up tree branches and keep that fire going. Don't let it go out because it is holy. You will use this fire for your burnt offering. Then the Lord just disappeared.

Adam: Eve...come with me to gather up wood for the holy fire. We need to keep it going until the Lord God tells us otherwise.

They both climbed down the 20 ft cliff wall and began collecting tree branches and sticks from all over the valley floor. They took some of the coals onto a flat rock and into the cave where they were able to keep the fire going all day and night. They went down to the fire below with a lamb the next day. They stacked a large pile of logs into a pile. Eve found a hard flint rock on the cliff wall and noticed it had a sharp edge to it.

She gave it to Adam and he cut the throat of the lamb and collected the blood in a skin bucket Eve made from a goat skin that they ate raw. Adam cut the lamb in equal halves and laid them on the stacked logs. As the fire burned the meat started to cook. They never smelled this before and their mouths began to water. The Lord appeared telling Adam

Lord God: Adam...I am satisfied with this sacrifice.

SCENE 57

Adam and Eve collected wood all day to keep the fire going inside the cave. This was a tremendous blessing to have a running fire all the time going in the cave. Adam took a stick and some wool from a lamb. He poured the collected fat from the sacrifice onto the wool and lit the torch. They were only able to see as far into the cave as the sunlight would reach. About 40 ft in. Now he began to explore deep within the cave. After about 200 ft down a winding path about 5 ft wide, with walls going up to a rock ceiling 20 ft up.

He entered into a cavernous room about 300 ft in diameter with 50 ft high ceilings. Off to the side near the back wall there was a small fresh water stream with a 10 ft diameter pool about 5 ft deep that emptied into a hole in the wall leading out to God knows where. Adam and Eve took a whole 5 days of collecting wood so they could keep a small fire going at all times in the huge cave. The Angels took up guarding at the pathway that emptied into the cavern.

They both went into the pool and for the first time in a few weeks were able to wash off all the blood and dirt that was caked onto their bodies. It was the first time they have been clean since being expelled from the pools of Eden. They created tools from the flint stones they found in the walls of the cave. They made knives and crude hatchets. Adam was able to cut down trees and make a bow and arrows as well as bowls and wooden buckets for hauling water.

SCENE 58

One day Adam took a torch and decided to follow the water through the hole in the cave wall. He was floating down the stream on his back for about 300 ft. Cassiel went before him to see where the stream emptied out at. All of a sudden the stream picked up speed. He was caught in a fast moving current and did everything from going under and killing the torch.

He heard a rushing waterfall about 50 ft down the stream.

He tried to grab rocks but kept being pulled off from the strength of the current. Dropping the torch he was now in the darkest of dark. Then he was falling through space and landed into a deep pool on the outside of the cave. He fell about 30 ft into the most beautiful sky blue pool on the other side of the mountain from his cave entrance.

There was a flat plain with good dark earth. He found his place to grow his crops. Adam didn't see Cassiel standing at the top of the water fall but he was waiting for him so he could watch him fall over the side. Cassiel was laughing at how foolish the man was. He like that the man was brave but, knew he would have to really be on his best to keep this man from being killed.

Adam ran back around the mountain to his cave entrance and went back inside. He wanted to go through the cave stream again. This time he saw a ledge as soon as he went into the hole in the wall. He grabbed a rock and climbed out of the stream. He was able to walk down the ledge all the way to the opening where the water fall fell into the pool.

He dove from the top of the waterfall into the deep blue waters of the pool. As he was floating in the pool he noticed that there was a series of rocky outcrops that went from the edge of the pool nearest the wall that he could climb the 30 ft back up to the opening with the ledge. He had a back way into the cave.

Life in the mountain home of Adam and Eve was much better after the sacrifice.

The lord: You are going to have to do that blood sacrifice once every year as to prove your devotion to Me and to receive My blessing so I can provide for you.

They had shelter, food and fresh water. Adam still had to fight everyday working to keep everything going. He had to dig out a large garden, constantly he needed to be pulling weeds, build a small hut near the back pool, and keep the holy fire going all the time.

It never went out from the day God struck the bush with lightning. All these daily functions were accomplished with flint stone tools. Life was hard but not as hard as they were right after the fall.

SCENE 59

Adam knew Eve and laid with her thirty years after they went forth from Paradise. That same night when the seed of Adam reached the egg of Eve, two fiery stone in heaven floated up to the Golden Alter. There were two angels that were waiting for this moment of time and touched the stones.

They burst into a bright light. The angel took the light in their pouches and flew down the dimensional portal arriving when the seed entered the eggs. They took the lights and inserted them in to the womb of the woman and stood by Gadreel Eve's guardian angel.

Gadreel: Hello my brothers Haniel and Dumah. So it is you whom the Lord God has chosen to guard over the new humans in the womb of Eve.

Haniel: Yes brother Gadreel. We will be alongside of you until the boy and girl are old enough to leave the mothers side. What is it like to be with the humans?

Gadreel: As our first order of business with guarding these beloved of the Lord is to keep satan from destroying the seed. Your man baby is the new seed. Satan will try with every attack he can think of now to destroy your man baby. Your arrival here has relieved me of being responsible for protecting the seed. That is now your charge.

Haniel: I know as long as the boy man stays faithful to the Lord God there is really nothing to worry about.

Gadreel: You will have to be on constant guard from the wiles of the devil. He never stops trying to find a weakness in their character.

And Eve conceived and brought forth Cain and Lebhûdha, his sister, with him; and Eve conceived again and she brought forth Abel and Kelîmath, his sister, with him. Their angels were Gadreel for Able and Hadraniel for Kelîmath.

And when the children grew up, Adam said unto Eve,

Adam: "Let Cain take to wife Kelîmath, who was brought forth with Abel, and let Abel take to wife LebhÛdhâ, who was brought forth with Cain."

And Cain said unto Eve his mother,

Cain: " I will take to wife my twin sister LebhÛdhâ, and let Abel take to wife his twin sister Kelîmath "; now LebhÛdhâ was beautiful.

When Adam heard these words, which were exceedingly displeasing unto him, he said,

Adam: "It will be a transgression of the commandment for you to take to wife, your sister, who was born with you. Nevertheless, take with you fruits of trees, and an unblemished young sheep. Go to the top of the mountain and offer up to the Lord God a burnt offering and pray, then you shall consort with your wives

As Adam, being the first priest, along with Cain and Abel, his sons, were going up to the top of the mountain, Satan entered into Cain to kill Abel, his brother, because of his disobedience towards the council of Adam, Cain was open to the evil influences of Satan. He was not going to give his sister LebhÛdhâ to Able. Being that his heart was not in a righteous condition Cain decided to give of his Sacrifice to the Lord God inferior fruits and his young sheep was lame. Able brought up to the mountain top the finest lamb in his flock along with beautifully ripened first fruits of his harvest.

As the fires were lit and the sacrifice was being ministered the Lord came down upon the mountain top. When He went to Abel's sacrifice he said.

Lord God: Able my son. I am well pleased with the sacrifice because you did not hold back from the best of your flock and fruits. I will continue to bless all of the work of your hands, your flocks and vineyards. I will bless the fruit of your loins with many healthy sons and daughters. Your increase in the land is my bond.

The Lord turned from Cain's sacrifice and just walked away without a word. Cain was enraged with jealousy and pride. Satan was now allowed to enter into his heart. He whispered death to Able. Adam stayed on the mountain top to commune with the Lord God.

Cain and Able along with their wives were climbing back down the mountain when all of a sudden Cain rose up on Able, took a stone of flint and slit his head open, killing him instantly.

Cain went back to his fields where the Lord God appeared to Cain.

Lord God: "Where is Abel your brother?"

Cain: "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" 10

Lord God: "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying to me from the ground. 11 And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you work the ground, it shall no longer yield to you its strength. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

Cain: "My punishment is greater than I can bear.

all pains...even the loss of sons.

Time went on. Adam and Eve lived with the constant struggles and burdens of life, kept them very busy all the time.
Survival in the fallen world was a true physical burden. They did have some good times when they could take a rest from their constant work. During these times they could spend time in the pool and under the waterfall.

Adam: Eve; come on into the water, it's so cool. You have been working so hard my love, let the cool waters take the heat off your body from the burdens of today's work.

Eve: I have so much more to do today Adam. I need to make bread and clean the fish you caught. If I don't do this who will?

Adam: I will clean and cook the fish. Just come and take a break. We both have been working so hard trying to take the burden from our souls by keeping so busy that we forgot about ourselves. We are still to find joy in our lives. Let's just take some time out to enjoy each other like we used too.

Eve: OK my love let's play...

She dove into the pool and he dove under to come up behind her where he but her into his arms and gave her a deep kiss. They played...

Adam laid with Eve again.

SCENE 60

Up in the heavenlies a Guardian angel named Eremiel was called to the fiery stones where a stone rose up for him to touch, turning it into a bright light that was the light life of God. He put it into his pouch and took the dimensional portal down to the cottage of Adam and inserted it into Eve's womb and stood guard with Gadreel and Cassiel.

Cassiel: Welcome Eremiel. I see you're the chosen one to protect the most sacred seed of Eve.

Eve gave birth to a baby boy named Seth. They were so overjoyed with the second chance God gave them to bring another royal seed to be of the chosen bloodline.

Eve: Oh Adam the Lord has blessed us with another man child. You must take him to the top of the mountain and offer a sacrifice to the Lord for His protection over Seth. Bring up the fatted calf for this sacrifice. We will hold nothing back and give to the Lord our best.

Adam: I have already packed the donkey with all the wood I need.

First thing before sunrise I will take the boy along with the fatted calf to the mountain top to praise and worship the Lord. Committing Seth to the King of heaven.

SCENE 61

The night Seth was born Satan went into such a rage that he actually tried to break through the Guardian Angelic protection, that was hedged around the cottage.

Satan: You three will step aside or I will destroy you forever.

Satan took a few steps toward the angels and stopped. They did not budge.

Satan: Your time has come.

Fearlessly Satan launched into a horrific attack. He was throwing everything he could muster at the 3 Guardians. Before the fall Satan could destroy them at will. God had now provided the angels with the ability to fight much faster and harder than Satan. Every move Satan did there was a counter move from the one of the 3.

There raged all night a battle between the three Guardians and Satan. At the end Satan was subdued and beaten. The victorious Guardians were also very beat up and bruised from the battle.

Satan went off into the night to begin a new plot to take out the royal seed of Seth and the Angels rested from the battle.

SCENE 62

The clan of Adam was now well into the thousands. By the time Adam was a few hundred years old he took other wife's. Only through Eve was Seth the chosen seed. All the first born men of the bloodline, who were born from the first wife were the Heir's to the royal bloodline.

Adam had hundreds of children who had hundreds of children. All the women had a baby every 9 or 10 months. Many twins and triplets were born to women of all different appearances. There were no races then...only the human race. There were Black, White, Brown, Yellow and mixtures of them all. All the men and women were beautiful, healthy and strong. Adam lived to be 930 of age. All of the children of Adam lived to be 900 years old or older. By the time Adam died there were millions of humans that were spread out across the land.

Seth continued to advance the royal bloodline when he took a wife. Seth's wife bore him a son called Enosh. Enosh was taught and took very seriously the purpose of his birth as the next in the royal bloodline. Until the times of Enosh, there was no need to preach about God; everyone was already aware of His presence and power. Adam taught all the people about how to worship God and keep from doing evil.

It was in his times that this knowledge slowly started to diminished. It became necessary for those who properly worshiped God to preach about His existence and the royal bloodline that the coming savior will reconnect them to God and the supernatural Kingdom.

Enosh loved and worshiped God all the time. He would fast, pray and go to the mountain top once every year to offer up a burnt offering to the Lord.

Enosh taught the people in the clan to do the same and worship God. Satan's constant whispering of rebellion was bringing a negative attitude. There was starting to be a discontent in the people. A few refused to go kill one of their best calf or lambs. They stopped sacrificing to the Lord.

Satan was making headway into the people but was still very angry with the fact that there were literally millions of people who lived righteous lives and ignored his temptations and worshiped God. During Enosh's life there were many of the people praised and worshiped God, so they were rewarded with the blessings God promised to bestow on the people who loved Him.

Enosh took a wife and laid with her. She became pregnant with a boy Kenan. Seth, Enosh and Adam took Kenan to the mountain top and did sacrifice of a fatted cow. God blessed Kenan as the heir of the bloodline. Satan knew he could not physically destroy the child because of his past experiences, so his new plot was to cause the people to sin and fall into his darkness.

Now it came to pass that Cain and his clan were also growing on the other side of the mountain in these days. Cain's clan did not worship God. The inevitable happened during the years after Enosh's son Kenan was born. The two clans started to intermingle and as usual the righteous people stated to be influenced by the non-righteous.

Kenan took a wife and beget Mahalalel. Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan took Mahalalel to the top of the mountain and dedicated him to the Lord God with a burnt offering of fatted calf as the next seed of the royal bloodline.

Mahalalel took a wife and begot Jarad. Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan and Mahalalel took Jarad up to the mountain Top to dedicate him to the Lord with a burnt offering of a fatted calf as the next in the line of the royal bloodline. Jared was loyal to the Lord and served him all the days of his life. It was during Jareds days that Satan was finally able to make a major play in his scheme, to try to destroy the royal bloodline and seed of Eve.

And Jared continued to teach his children eighty years; but after that they began to transgress the commandments he had given them, and to do many things without his counsel. They began to go down from the Holy Mountain one after another, and to mix with the children of Cain, in foul fellowships.

Now the reason for which the children of Jared went down the Holy Mountain, was because of Satan's influence in their rebellious and sinful hearts. The children of Jared began to transgress his commandments on his 895th year. The priest Adam was dead now for 395 years. It is now 1355 years after creation. And his children began to go "down" and had intercourse with the children of Cain.

SCENE63

West of the valley and Mountain of Sacrifice is another Mount called Mount Hermon. It is a mountain peak of 9230 feet. This is where the headwaters of the River Jordan begin. As the sun was setting over the western sky there was a cluster of shooting stars that came crashing down onto the top of the mount. It was another spot on the earth that had a dimensional portal from heaven down to earth.

200 Watcher class angels landed there.

During the time of Jared the people were all becoming more and more evil? They no longer worshiped God and sin was taking over the whole earth. There was no more clans. There were just millions of people who were being taken over by their wonder lust. Doing whatever they could think of without any morals. Stealing, Murder and rape were common place. Satan had taken a hold over the hearts and souls of mankind. Only the direct bloodline of Seth was still in a righteous relationship with God.

It was during this time that the people were in such a horrible condition that the Lord God decided to create and send down to earth a mighty class of angels called Archons. They were sent down with 200 Watcher Class Angels. They were a special elite order of angelic beings created by God to be earthly shepherds of the first primitive humans. It was their task to observe and watch over the emerging human species and report back on their progress. . At first they were very helpful to the humans. They felt bad for them in their retched condition.

However they were confined by the divine prime directive not to interfere in human evolution.

Unfortunately they decided to ignore God's command and defy his orders and become teachers to the human race, with unfortunate repercussions for both themselves and humanity.

When the two hundred of the 'Watcher angels' descended from the heavenly realm on to the summit of Mount Hermon, they were so smitten by the beauty of human women that, using their new material bodies, they had sex with them. This further incurred the wrath of the Lord Gods. The consequence of this miscegenation between the Fallen Ones and mortals led to the creation of half-angelic, half-human offspring.

These children were called the Nephilim. They were the giant race that inhabited the whole Earth. The fallen angels taught their wives and children a variety of new technological skills, magical knowledge and occult wisdom.

They taught man how to use psychic abilities and magical powers. These black arts are an ancient inheritance from the angelic realm and taught to early humans. In the Satanic tradition this is known in spiritual and metaphorical terms as the 'witch blood', 'elven blood' or 'faery blood' that is possessed by witches and wizards.

The leader of the fallen angels was called Azazel. He taught men to forge swords and make shields and breastplates (body armor). Azazel also taught them metallurgy and how to mine from the earth and use different metals. To the women he taught the art of making bracelets, ornaments, rings and necklaces from precious metals and stones. He also showed them how to 'beautify their eyelids' with kohl and the use of cosmetic tricks to attract and seduce the opposite sex. From these practices came much 'godlessness' and men and women committed fornication, were led astray and became corrupt in their ways.

The fallen angel Shemyaza, another form of Azazel, is said by Enoch to have taught humans the use of root cuttings and the magical art of enchantment; the fallen angel Armaros taught the resolving (banishing) of enchantments; Baraqijal taught astrology; Kokabiel, the knowledge of the constellations (astronomy); Chazaqiel, the knowledge of the clouds and the sky (weather lore and divination); Shamsiel, the signs of the sun (the solar mysteries); Sariel the courses of the moon (the lunar cycles used in horticulture and agriculture and the esoteric lunar mysteries); Penemuel instructed humans in the art of writing and reading; and Kashdejan taught the diagnosis and healing of diseases and the science of medicine.

It is obvious from these descriptions of the teaching abilities of the Watchers that they were cultural exemplars and the bringers of civilization to the early human race.

Samyaza is the leader of the Watchers that are consumed with lust for mortal women and become fallen angels after they took an oath that Samyaza made them recite.

Shemyaza: "I fear ye will not indeed agree to do this deed, and I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin." And they all answered him and said:

200 Watchers: "Let us all swear an oath, and all bind ourselves by mutual imprecations not to abandon this plan but to do this thing."

Then swear they all together and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it.

I need to create this into SCENE 's

The 20 Generals of the 200 spread themselves and the fallen 200 all around the world and set themselves up as gods among the people of those lands. They became the god and they each took 10 watchers with them to serve under them. They mated with any women they chose and over a time of about 25 years they each created about 500 giant children.

The giants were from 20 ft tall all the way up to 50 ft tall. They enslaved the local populace alongside of their giant children and put them to the task of huge building projects. All over the earth in every culture the sons of the fallen angels were busy building huge buildings. They used angelic technology to build massive temples and pyramids found all over the globe today.

Everything the fallen angels built was a copy, a counterfeit of heaven. They built and used the flying craft that was used for transportation of building materials and the tractor beams that lifted the huge blocks precisely into place. They had access to heavenly technology.

The humans were easily deceived into thinking that these fallen ones were actually gods. They were huge and they could fly in crafts that defied all logic with the abilities to maneuver at impossible speeds and angles.

The 20 Archons positioned themselves as gods in all the different parts of the world. They were Zeus, Hercules, Apollo, Achilles, in the Greek lands. Swede, Odin, Balder, Tyr, Loki. In the Norse lands. For the Aztecs there was Tlaloc, Huitzilopochtli, Quetzalcoatl and Tezcatlipoca. In China there is Guanyin, Jade Emperor, Yan Wang, and Long Wang. Egyptian there was Nun, RA, Atum, Amun, Mut, Osiris, Isis and Set.

They all produced the mighty giants of old. In Greek mythology they were known then as the Titans. They killed each other off in a massive civil war (known as the Clash of the Titans) within 500 years of their birth, which concluded 700 years before Noah's Flood. But still the Nephilim returned - both before and after the Flood.

The human race was subjugated and tormented by these fallen ones. Satan was also still very much in the mix. The gods knew of the deep things of the creation. They knew about DNA and cloning. They knew of anti-gravity machines, they had science far superior than anything we have today. They built for themselves massive temples and buildings dedicated to their glory. It was the golden age of the ancient times.

At the Mount Hermon world headquarters of the Watchers, Shemyaza was building a laboratory and nursery for the transhumant half man and half animal army that he was going to lead against all humanity. He used black arts to mix the DNA to create millions of giants 10 to 20 ft tall. Used black arts creating creatures that were half man, half animal.

Through the black arts he mixed the DNA of man and bull to create tens of thousands of Minotaurs. Man and horse to create an army of Centaurs. Half goat and man the Satyrs. Man and fish he filled the oceans with Mermaids and mermen. Hundreds of Wolfmen and those who were cursed with an insatiable lust for drinking human blood. He took birds and gentile large reptiles to create flesh eating Dinosaurs. Man and lions.. Men with bird heads and many different monstrosities.

He manipulated lion DNA to create the saber tooth killing machine. Altered the snakes DNA to create poisoned fanged killers.

He made from the black sciences every creature on earth that had some kind of poison that would harm humans; jellyfish, frogs and lizards. He made earth completely the opposite of Eden. Creatures that were friendly to humans were now deadly.

Satan use the fallen 200 to created these monsters, to totally pollute the bloodline of man in the hopes that they would be able to at some point in time finally destroy the bloodline and seed of Eve.

Cut to a scene where the transhumant creatures are grown in a massive hatchery and nursery that is as dark and ominous as this "Battery" scene in the Matrix. Instead of babies there are Minotaurs, Satyrs, Mermaids and mermen. Hundreds of Wolfmen and all of the above monsters. As they are hatched they are taken down to the nursery where they are supervised by and nurtured by human slaves. After about 6 months they are released onto the world usually in packs of like kindred monsters. Their nature is to go and murder as many of the humans they can come across. They are to seek out the royal bloodline and try to destroy it.

<https://youtu.be/IojqOMWTgv8>

Shemyaza built with heavenly technologies flying machines that they used to arrive in these different lands, to deceive the local primitives in to believing they came from another world. To bring them a better way. All the while they deceived the humans and subjugated them to slavery and to do human blood sacrifices worshipping them as gods.

Each one of the royal bloods had to fight off attack after attack from the monsters created by the Watchers. These were the warriors who along with the holy angels were able to fight off every attack Satan could muster against them

Agent: Home Land Security miss.
Who's in charge here?

Policewoman: That would be detective Kelly over there by the Agent: Damien ... Devon Daimon. Because this man here is one of our agents. Dennis Zagarese. He is a friend of mine and told me that he was dating the ex-wife of a crazy Navy SEAL and that he was in fear of his life. He said that the SEAL Dan Murphy came back from Afghanistan and discovered his wife had left him for my friend. He came into their apartment unexpected and found them together. He had told him he was a dead man. Was there any witnesses to this killing?

Kelly: Yes ...that waitress over there was the only person in here at the time of the shooting; besides the cook in the back.

Agent Damien Did you take her statement yet?

Kelly: No not yet. I just got here a little before you. How did you find out about this so fast anyway?

Agent Damien: I told you I don't just work with Dennis...I'm best friends with him. I was supposed to meet him here tonight to pick him up after he went to a movie with Mss. Murphy.

He walks to the back booth were the waitress was sitting drinking a cup of coffee.

Agent Damien: Did you see the killing Miss ahh

Brenda: Brenda...Brenda Conway.

Agent Damien: Miss Conway can you tell me what happened here tonight.

I fell to my knees and then heard another shot. I peeked over the counter and saw the man with the lady pick her up and carry her out the door and into their car and drove off that way down the road. The man there was dead just laying where he is now. It was the most horrifying thing I have ever been through. It all happened so fast that I don't know how it started.

Agent Damien: Did you see who shot who.

Brenda: No...like I said when the first shot went off I freaked out and dropped the hot coffee and hit the floor.

Agent Damien Are you OK mam?

Brenda: Well no. I have two burns on my ankles and I'm really shook up.

She hold out her and it shaking like a leaf.

Agent Damien: Well you can go home now and get something for these burns and rest. I will contact your if we need to ask you anything else.

As they are about to get up, another 2 SUVs pull into the parking lot. 8 men get out and come into the dinner with FBI on the back of their jackets.

Agent Damien: All right Kelly. This is a federal investigation we will take over from here.

Agent Damien: Are any of our men there yet?

Caller: Yes I got a team there now.

Agent Damien: Good. Have them secure the crime scene and send the local cops home. I'll be there in a few minutes.

He turns and says to the head agent.

Agent Damien: Keep this place secured until we take the body out of here.

Agent Damien get into his SUV and heads down the road.

SCENE 62

Dan is asleep on Professor Bart's couch. He has been asleep for about 5 hours. Dan suddenly wakes up in a sweat. He looks around to get his bearings. Then remembers he is at his old professor's home.

Bart: Hold on son your safe...Your safe Dan.

Dan: Jeanette...my Jeanette. Oh my God my Jeanette is gone!!

He puts his face into his hands and cries.

Bart: Dan. I have been keeping an eye on the news to hear if anything is being reported. Son...I'm so sorry. They are reporting a state wide manhunt for you. There saying that you killed your wife and her lover for leaving you when you were away in Afghanistan. They were saying you lost your mind over there with strange stories about monsters. Your considered mentally insane and with your SEAL background extremely dangerous.

Dan: Professor. You know that I wouldn't do such a thing. I loved Jeanette more than life. She was my everything in this life! She would never cheat on me. She is a devout Christian woman with very strong conviction and a rock solid personal relationship with Jesus. She would never do anything to jeopardize that love.

Bart: I know Dan, I've known you two since you were my star pupil and freshman at Liberty U.

Dan: Professor I had a dream or vision when I fell asleep. I met with God and he told me that I was supposed to chronicle this vision. Write down all that He has shown me. Professor have been to the very throne room of God and He had shown me everything since the creation of the angels.

God told me that I was from the bloodline of the brother of Jesus. Jesus brother Joseph is my direct ancestor. I am to record everything I see in the vision because when the world finally get to understand the truth about the real history of time and not the Great Deception that Satan has developed over the last 6000 years;

God said millions will come to the understanding of His love for us as children and the amazing future that He has prepared for them all. He said that Satan will try to destroy me continuously until Jesus comes back for the final battle of Armageddon.

The professor gets up and takes his laptop and sits down next to Dan.

Bart: Well Dan. If God told you to write down what He is showing you then I will be your muse. The Teacher becomes the student.

Dan begins to tell everything he experienced in vivid details. It took a few hours to describe all that he witnessed all the way up to when he woke up just at the time of the creation of the Giants and transhumant monsters that were constantly hunting down the righteous bloodline of EVE.

SCENE 63

Professors Bart wrote down everything that Dan described. He was totally blown away with what God had allowed him to witness. As he was writing down the history it occurred to the professor that Dan was in great jeopardy. Satan was going to do everything in his power to stop the true story leading up to the salvation of mankind and the coming Kingdom.

Professor Bart's many years of Christian studies at Liberty University had been a tremendous blessing. There were like Dan; many very strong and dedicated Christians that pass through his classes. He had developed strong relationships with some of the most accomplished men in every field of work. Christian Billionaires, Captains of industry, FBI, Scientist, CIA, High Government positions, Supreme court Judge, and in the house and senate. They all understand that our fight is not against people on earth. We are fighting against the rulers and authorities and the powers of this world's darkness. We are fighting against the spiritual powers of evil in the heavenly places.

But the most noble of all the people who were in the group are the Christian warriors. A small but highly skilled group of Christian Navy SEALs and Special Forces operatives that do the bidding of this group. This is a top secret organization of Christians that have infiltrated every organization on the planet. It is a righteous network of saints that understand that from the beginning of the church there were to be the protectors of the Gospel, by being the eyes, ears and fist that countered everything they could find that the global Satanist would launch on mankind. This group is very powerful but yet unknown. They have been protecting the world from evil since the fall of Jerusalem on 70 AD. They are known as The Templar Titans.

When Dan started to explain what he witnesses with the ancient Transhuman activity, the professor finally knew what Jesus meant when he was asked by the Apostles "what it will be like right before His return to set up the Kingdom", destroying Satan and his hordes of evil.

Jesus: But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

The professor had to get Dan under the protection of the Templar Titans. The Templar Titans had to destroy the transhuman along with the scientific activities that were underway now in creating them. With the giant now in their possession there will be a greater need to stop the DNA manipulations that are now being done with CRISPR DNA Editing.

Were already here with the abilities to create these monsters read this <https://www.wired.com/2015/07/crispr-dna-editing-2/>

Bart: Dan, what you're telling me is so important in destroying the Great Deception that the Bible talks about in 2 Thessalonians 2. This deception has gone on for so long. Now it seems will be escalated in these days. I can get you protection from the Globalist. I'll bringing you to the secret home of the Templar Titans.

It is the secret location where the Templar Titans run their covert operations. Being a SEAL will only make you feel that much more at home and secure. I believe I have been born for such a time as this, so I will accompany you and be of assistance to you until the mission is complete. Even if that is at our end here on earth or when Jesus returns to set up the Kingdom...I'm your huckleberry as Doc Holiday would say...I got your six.

Dan: Professor, I don't know what to say. As my brother in Christ I am honored to become a part of this great end time mission God has put us both on.

Bart: We have a Titan deep inside the CIA. He has the highest security clearance. I will contact him to inform him of the giant and see if he can find out where it was sent and what they are doing with it.
