

Western States Draft Horse Shows

Underage Drinking Code of Conduct

The Western States Draft Horse Show Committee is committed to maintaining a safe, respectful, and family-friendly environment for all exhibitors, participants, and spectators. Underage drinking is strictly prohibited at all Western States Draft Horse Show events, including but not limited to barns, arenas, campgrounds, parking areas, and any associated activities.

Policy:

- No individual under the legal drinking age of 21 is permitted to possess, consume, purchase, or distribute alcoholic beverages at any time during Western States Draft Horse Show events.
- This policy applies at all times while on show grounds, during travel representing the show, and at any affiliated event or function.
- Any violation of this policy may result in immediate removal from the event, suspension from future shows, and additional disciplinary action as determined by the Western States Draft Horse Show Committee.
- Local law enforcement may be notified when appropriate.

All youth participants are expected to understand and follow this policy. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that youth under their care comply fully with this code of conduct.
