

Let all that you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:14

Very Truly Yours

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to that which is good.

-Romans 12:9-10

Going out on a limb, I would venture to guess that the Apostle Paul was not a romantic person.

Yet it is fair to say that some of the most profound statements on LOVE come from his pen. The 'love chapter' from First Corinthians 13, read at weddings, is a case in point.

As we continue our series CHRISTIANITY 101 from Romans 12, we are given some deeply searching insights on the meaning of love. Quite bluntly, he reminds us that love must be sincere (verse 9).

In today's world LOVE's meaning is pretty much a picked over carcass. There may be a lot of memorable songs and sweet poems on the subject. But sparse on content.

This Sunday, we'll put some meat on that carcass as Paul challenges us with practical ways on how love must be sincere. Hence, the title of the message is VERY TRULY YOURS. It's a timely run-up for St. Valentine's Day.

And gentlemen: February 14 will get here before you know it. Forewarned is forearmed. Think Hallmark Cards and Whitman's Samplers just might be good starters. See you in worship this Lord's Day.
