

THEY HAD A LOT TO LEARN...SO DO WE!

For forty days, Jesus appeared to the disciples with many convincing proofs that he was alive speaking to them about the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:3

Consider: The Risen Lord spent 40 days with his followers speaking to them about the Kingdom of God.

As we journey through the season of Eastertide (those Sundays leading up to Pentecost) those words stick in my mind.

Imagine: Jesus spending forty days speaking and teaching about the Kingdom of God.

That implies that the disciples had a lot to learn.

And so do we!

Last week I pointed out that for too many believers Easter is a one-and-done thing, neatly stored away for next spring. Nothing could be further from the truth.

The current Eastertide series FORTY DAYS AND COUNTING focuses on the countless ways Jesus' resurrection lays claim on our lives. We began last week starting with the basics: Getting the Story Straight.

This Sunday is what might be called its mirror reflection: Doubt. So many professing Christians have been taught that it is wrong to doubt. Yet, it is that very process that God uses to bring many to saving faith.

The message title is a simple one: WELCOMING DOUBTERS. We'll take a fresh look at someone expressing honest doubts—Thomas—and has been paying the price for it ever since! (John 20:24-29) That should not be.

Lest you think Thomas was unique bird in the New Testament hearken to these words in Matthew 28:17. They worshiped him but some doubted. GULP.

You think about that. And I'll see you Sunday.

Christ Is Risen...He is Risen Indeed!
