

40 DAYS & COUNTING RESTORED RELATIONSHIPS

*After they had finished breakfast...
Jesus asked Peter: Do you love me?
John 21:15*

Four simple words in the form of a question: Do you love me? That's what the Risen Lord asked Peter—not once—but three times!

Those four words implied some unfinished business. Just several weeks prior Peter denied that he has ever even known Jesus. Not once—but three times!

During Eastertide we continue to examine the various things Jesus taught his disciples (Acts 1:3) before his Ascension into heaven.

In our third message in the series FORTY DAYS & COUNTING we come to the monumental implication entitled RESTORING RELATIONSHIPS.

If Jesus' resurrection means anything to God's people for daily living it is about forgiveness and the healing of relationships.

Believe me, there was some 'heavy lifting' in that conversation between Peter and the Risen Lord. And that goes for us as well.

Check out John 21:15-19 and you'll see what I mean.

Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!
