

About CLUK

At CLUK, we specialize in high-end dry hire solutions for the audiovisual industry. From cutting-edge lighting and rigging gear to innovative AV technologies, we provide top-tier equipment to rental companies and production houses worldwide. We proudly collaborate with leading brands like Elation, L-Acoustics, Minuit Une, Follow-Me, Columbus McKinnon, AED Audio, beMatrix, Next Truss and more.

More Than Just Gear

CLUK is a mindset. Our philosophy - "Connecting the Dots" - is all about bringing together the right tools, talents, and technology to elevate your project from concept to reality. Whether you're creating bold stage designs or managing complex show logistics, we think ahead, act fast, and stay closely connected to your vision

Certified Expertise

As the official distributor of Columbus McKinnon chain hoists, we not only supply industry-leading rigging equipment but also offer certified servicing and maintenance to ensure safety and performance.

We're also proud to be an official beMatrix BePartner - giving you dry hire access to premium LED panels, backed by 24/7 technical support and our in-house content creation team to power up your visuals.

Cluk It – Why not?

When the stakes are high and the vision is bold...

Trusted by Creators Worldwide

From international tradeshow and immersive experiences to massive festivals and corporate events - CLUK is the silent partner behind the magic.
