Meeting Overview

Executive Director Colton Bailey opened the meeting by reaffirming THE #shift PROJECT's mission and core values. Members were reminded of the importance of promoting mental health awareness, supporting one another, and leading with empathy in both organizational work and everyday interactions.

Volunteer Process Update

Leadership reviewed the current provisional volunteer application process. Members present expressed satisfaction with the system, and no changes were recommended at this time.

Communications & Social Media

Due to the absence of Communications Director Rylee Hollins and social media team members Brooklyn Bailey and Logan Richardson, discussion regarding social media strategy and updates was postponed until the next meeting.

Events Discussion

With Events Director Summer O'Brien absent, members briefly discussed potential spring and summer event ideas. A more detailed planning discussion will take place at the next meeting so the Events Department can provide full updates and direction.

CBSH Kindness Crew Update

Colton Bailey provided an update regarding ongoing activities and collaboration opportunities connected to the CBSH Kindness Crew initiative.

Organizational Image Reminder

Members reviewed expectations surrounding public image and personal conduct, emphasizing the importance of representing THE #shift PROJECT respectfully and positively within the community.

Guest Discussion: Mercer County Schools

Guest Sherrie Jenkins, a candidate for the Mercer County Board of Education, joined the group for a discussion focused on student perspectives. Members shared ideas and concerns about improvements they would like to see within the school system, particularly those directly impacting students' well-being and school experience.

Meeting Adjourned

The meeting concluded after all scheduled agenda items and discussions were completed.
