Day Five

God has no limitations on his forms of communication. God created everything on the earth with design purposes, giving us knowledge about his planetary biodiversity. Without fail, those who study and mediate on nature's design patterns bridge the mental gap by walking into a different perspective and realizing society is part of nature with a divine purpose. Indeed, humanity has a spiritual and a physical side. The spiritual side constitutes the soul that allows humanity to transcend physical constraints.

The Judahite receives diverse forms of communications from the administrative systems of heaven to increase his understanding of the statutory laws of judgments. The Elohim or the Holy Spirit dispenses data to different categories of people. There are several categories of oracles with various missions assigned with durations. The Judahite doesn't regard himself as a prophet, yet he fully understands the distribution of prophetic communications.

The LORD's methods of communicating with his servants:

Similitudes

- parables,
- allegories,
- and symbolism.

“And I have spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and I have used similitudes in the prophets' prophets.” Hosea 12:10

December 27

What does it hold?

In anticipation of the unfolding day, The Judahite turns to biblical 27, which states oaths and promises that are solid and real. The best symbolism of 27 is the cube; look at the three points. $3 \times 9 = 27$.

December 27's Theme is Walking

- And he heard my prayers and brought me out of the pit of misery and the mire of dregs. And he set my feet upon a rock and directed my steps. Psalms 40:2

The Judahite awoke to find his eyeglasses resting on his socks, a sign to start with the right foot orientation. The eyeglasses were placed supernaturally. The symbol of foreknowledge gives the Man-child assurance of being on the correct course of history—the prophetic road of safety and protection.

Three additional supernatural signs occurred in affirmation. The Judahite will cite one.

While in the kitchen reheating tea, the tea started to boil. Turning from the sink to the stove, The Judahite immediately saw a tiny roach appearing out of thin air walking on the rim of the hot pot. Illogical, yet the reality could not be altered—the roach walked along the hot edge of the boiling pan when the steam forced it to fall into the tea.

What is the meaning? The illustration is about walking with focus and do not go to the right or left, stay focused and walking. However, the spiritual significance is that we wrestle with the invisible principalities and the other meaning: we have a dedicated mission in life, a soul purpose.

Living in the latter-day prophecy, everything is intensifying, becoming hotter and hotter. Many will seek to join the departing Congregation to the Lands of Promise under pretenses, but the steam of the Holy Spirit will reject them by causing their fall, but not in hot tea.

Additional details with emphasis
