Since the first week of January, I have encountered Internet problems, either offline or other issues. Delayed postings are coming over the following weeks. So, when you see past dates, you know why.

A Review of the January Calendar dates up to the twentieth.

For many of us, we can see foretold events clearer by looking backward. The Heavenly Courts have given us 6, 5, and 13 dates to review within January 19, 2025, Updated Calendar Regime above. 6, 5, and 13 were pulled out from the rest because they are tied to [ 27 ] for a complete understanding of the events that took place on 6, 5, and 13. NOTICE, we see the same dates within different Calendar updates in January but with a different numeric character, that is, a different operand that permeates the Calendar Dates Regime, giving the dates their principal character.

In addition to going back to examine each calendar date, a brief discussion on each date will supplement our understanding and sharpen our eyes knowing what to examine in the review as well as going forward. Remember, the numeric dates are presented within the biblical context and prophecy; thus, we have parameters.

Six

Numeric six comes to mind about the sixth day of creation when God created man. Genesis 1:31. The theme of Genesis 1:29-31 is seeds. Reproductive seeds of their kind just as the LORD created all live forms of self-images.

And on the seventh day, he rested, for all he created was good, wonderful. He did not go back to make any improvements to his creation.

A historical milestone in planetary history came when the Serpent misguided Eve to eat of the Tree of Good and Evil with an intellectual, rational argument for disobeying the LORD's Command neither touch nor eat fruit from the tree.

Six is the number that depicts man's birth, the birth of humanity. There is more about six and man that must be examined and understood regarding calendar dates. In Genesis, the LORD was delighted with the creation of man (Adam). Technically, Adam followed the LORD's instructions not to touch or eat from the tree.

The serpent knew that he could not tempt Adam with a rational argument to disobey his divine creator because Adam's affinity of love with the divine automatically would have rejected the notion.

Therefore, the Serpent approached Eve with the relative position of adopting a simulated physical form of the LORD, who wore clothing and acted in an elevated civilized manner.

The LORD adjudicated the disobedience violation based on the cause and effects. The trial is called the Edenic Judicial Decree.

After the fact:

Adam ate the fruit given by Eve; thus, preserving his birthday DNA. On the other hand, Eve's DNA changed to accommodate both Adam's gene and the Serpent's gene. At no point was Adam spiritually deficient, Adam was immature and had not learned the spiritual basis on which to reject Eve's worldview, including herself, in the omission of Adam's divine side. Eve's genes processed the physical as a necessary component of life to the exclusion of balancing the spiritual with the physical.

Adam made an immature mistake by listening to Eve; a mistake that would become universalized for thousands of years, including our present day. Consider the consequences. The "sons of God took the daughters of men" who were fair in marriage. A metaphor for the attractive, inviting forewarned fruit. As a result, God reduced the cosmic cord of life to a life span of one hundred and twenty years.

The daughters of men are none other than the Serpent's gene in human representational form. The Serpent's genes are programmed to evolve deceptiveness, physical features to always restrict Adam from exercising his divine spirituality.

Hence, Adam's descendants will always be in a reciprocal, mutual conflict with the Serpent's descendants. "I will put enmity between thee and the woman and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head. And thou shalt bruise his heel."

Every day and throughout the day, Adam's descendants are forced to realize that they cannot unite with the serpent's genes without establishing spiritual parameters.

Consequently,

- a) Numeric six denotes spiritual imperfections and destitution.
- b) The Sixth Commandment lists murder as the worst sin.
- c) Spiritual deprivation is the worst sin that man can commit.
- d) After man's creation, the Lord completed his work of creation. In sum, six is Man's Labor Day given to follow the LORD's work pattern of creation each week and to rest on the seventh day. Briefly, man's labor is his planetary constitution to subdue the Earth and enjoy all the richness gifted to him. In so doing, humanity learns God's planetary science of creation through his Chosen People to always unite the spiritual with the material to prevent going after what always seems attractive to the senses.

- e) Proverbs 6:16 lists six things that the LORD hates.
- f) 666 is the number of the Antichrist in Revelation 13.
