

CALENDAR UPDATES
RECEIVED JUNE 28, 2024
FOR
JUNE, JULY, AND AUGUST

The Judahite is fully aware that the calendar dates pose a challenge to grasp for many, yet are partially and fully understandable to some people who know mathematical sciences.

Still, the appreciation is in knowing different ways of seeing numbers and their numeric values. We have arrived at a new paradigm of receiving and arranging numbers in the abstraction to comprehend many processes and operations occurring in real-time and definitional values projected to be realized. The regime of numbers is nothing shorter than seeing MOTION IN MATTER AND MATTER IN MOTION—the internal and external forms. Such is the principle of physics; such is the reality of our existence, regardless of forms—life or death. Matter always takes different forms. We all know from high school that matter cannot be created nor destroyed—endless transformations and transitions.

Our world is a world of numbers, and it is impossible change this reality. Consciously or unconsciously, we use numbers daily in some form or fashion. Accepting this truth can bring a sense of peace and understanding to our daily lives.

To approach the new paradigm's regime of numbers, one must count the repeated numbers, adding a total. Such will be the many instances of display, not all at the exact time, not all in the same location, and not all in the exact process or under the same statute.

Patience is key to understanding the new paradigm. Don't try to force comprehension. Grasp what one can and start working in small steps. Not everyone grasps the same observation at the same time. As a rule, take what one can and build on one's understanding.

Understanding the numeric value of numbers can significantly enrich one's knowledge. The Hebrew language, for instance, assigns a numeric value to each alphabet. Online research can provide a general view of biblical numbers. However, it is essential to be discerning, as there are many misleading topical discussions. Remember, biblical numbers and astrology don't mix, so it's crucial to approach these topics with caution and discernment.

The updates are evident in the integrated dynamic process regarding real-time prophecy. The paradigm of calendar numbers reflects fluency, whereas some things have been resolved or partially, and new things have emerged from the resolutions.

The new Planetary Spiritual Science Universality will teach all earth sciences about the Holy Bible. The Israelites have evolved to the degree they need to approach life holistically. The 144K will relate to the teaching staff.
