

Calendar UPDATES FOR DECEMBER AND JANUARY

A living God that gives future and backward times, enabling us to see and follow time markers. In a world multiplying confusion 24/7, Judah and the Ten Tribes are given trail lights to follow on the transitional road back to the Promised Land.

Naturally, all eventful calendar dates are seen, and when caught, only some understand what they are seeing in real time because many processes are occurring on different levels. Still, the calendar dates allow everyone to build a personalized database to draw theological clarity and prophetic validation.

Some people need more repetitive reminders than others based on their life experiences; for this reason, The Judahite encourages all to keep eventful date records for studying as complementary knowledge.
