

Gilgal

Josh 5:8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. 5:9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, this day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day.

The Host of Heaven and the Face of God

When invoking the Face of God, like Moses, we beseech his grace for remaining under the Father's protective wings to separate us from the world's population of unbelievers.

Moses wanted to see the Glory of Yahawah. In translation, he wanted to personalize his association with the Elohim. While understandable to become acquainted, the LORD wanted to enlarge Moses' vision and to show him personalized connection through the Spirit of Grace. Listen to the dialog in Exodus 33.

- “Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. 33:18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. 33:19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.” 33:20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.”

The interpretation. No man will ever live long enough to see the Face of God, for his face is cosmic. However, he showed Moses Israel's completed history. Yes, the glory of God always goes before the Congregation because it is the Spirit of Grace. In contrast, Moses realized his authorship of the Five Books of the Bible would endure for thousands of years and that countless people would come and go at each Age seeking and knowing God's mercy and grace.

Look. Satan took Jesus to the same place where Moses stood, a time portal, and showed him all the kingdoms of the earth with the proposition of ruling them on the condition of falling to worship him. Moses was told where to stand to see in formatted video Israel's history, including A.D. 2022.

July 9, 2022, comes as Israel's Day To Transverse

Joshua gives us a semi-model for crossing Jordan. Today must be thought of as a transitional date. After forty years, the Congregation crossed Jordan and made Gilgal the base camp. The angel food, manna, of heaven ceased. On the fourteenth day of the month, the Congregation observed the Passover, the night that the death angel passed throughout Egypt, killing all the first born, and in the same hour, they departed.

Archangel Michael introduces himself before the fall of Jericho.

July 9 presents a transitional step for relocation. Ruben, Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh forty thousand armed men crossed the Jordan River before the Congregation prepared to fight according to the instructions of Moses.

Michael appeared to Joshua at the edge of the camp. Not knowing the Archangel, the protector of Israel, Joshua assumed he could be anti-Israel; then fell upon his face upon learning his identity. Michael went before and defeated the enemies with the host of heaven.

July 9, 2022, covers the overall transitional schema given on July 4. Likewise, Judah will establish a transitional Gilgal today. It might or may not be known to many. Still, today going into tomorrow, work will start on organizing the base camp.
