

January 18, 2023 Proclamation

Days before January 16 and 18, The Judahite knew what to expect on the 16th and 18th, linked to the 30th when nations would be shaken.

While working online from personal notes, The Judahite read from a particular page as he scrolled down, came upon Jeremiah chapter 25, and read verses. A while later, The Judahite returned to the spot for additional clarification from Jeremiah. The cited reference was nowhere to be found. What? The Judahite looked all over the page finding no reference to Jeremiah 25. What? The Judahite looked at his research notes with no connection to Jeremiah.

Reading from Jeremiah 25

Truly, Jeremiah 25 is a verifiable reference to 16 and 18.

January 17 Dates

The posting on January 17 will be updated because there is too much information to be digested without having time to give insightful data to convert into meaningful information. However, for now, read Jeremiah chapter 25 and use the 17th's dates for interpretation.
