Biblical seven deserves more expositions than given now; indeed, the core exposition will come shortly. However, sufficiently for meditation, Archangel Raphael gave The Judahite the following on this 7th day of October.

God ordained friendship, fellowship, and delight in the amphitheater of the cosmos before the world came into being. Before the earth was formed and even after formation, before human wisdom manifested itself, divine knowledge of friendship, fellowship, and delightfulness existed as sacred zones.

We stand today within biblical seven full of appreciation of the divine zones as we elevate our own conceptual being as a personalized vow representing a design within a living Tabernacle not made of stones and wood.

The Divine Zones are seen as a theme before the world came into existence. Consider:

- John 17: 5-24
- 1 Peter 1:19-20
- Titus 1:2
- 2 Timothy 1:9
- 1 Corinthians 2:7

Delightfulness. Based upon the Scriptures, Yeshua is in his divine form; he drinks no water—no need for water. Yet he is the spirit of Delightfulness in which we display celebration seen as animated spiritual joy. Concluding “Three denotes divine perfection; Seven denotes spiritual perfection.”
