

Part One

2022 ended with celebrating tribal identity restoration, emerging from the Festival of Lighting. The momentum is now pushing the 144k and the non-stop growth of Firstfruits to use the accumulated seeds for planting in the Lands of Promise.

For those touched by the spiritual purpose of December, we walk conscientiously as institutionalized footprints representative of the Commonwealth of Israel. As such, we shall assert precepts during transitioning to aid against distractions from the focus priority of creating a new environment where sin is no longer dominant.

Apostle Paul's life guides our position on the Jewish religion, Judaism or Zionism.

- For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: Galatians 1:13

Indeed, Saul/Paul chased down Yeshua's Disciples and Apostles as though they were wild game.

Deceitfully removed tribal identities from the Israelites' exiles over thousands of years, the Festival of Lighting restores Scriptural Tribal Identities, which push operational precepts to maintain separation. The old system of the Gentiles' fourth kingdom is without structural integrity for reconstituting the cornerstone of the Stone Kingdom that will have no end.

- The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. Proverbs 11:18

Transitioning According to Jacob's Vow.

Running on the same historical track as Jacob, The Judahite received signals on January 4 affirming the per-established restoration dates, reuniting the Ten Tribes and Judah from the Magistrate's Messengers.

Jacob's tithing-blessing to the Gentile world expired with the Abrahamitic 400-year expiration date for tribal Judah to depart, returning home to his ancestral Lands of Promise.

Jacob returned home after thirty-two years. Yes, thirty-two years, Jacob returned home. Jacob's character displayed strength, resilience, and diligence considering his corrupted Father-in-law. He persevered, returning home with great wealth and a family. He made a vow on an unforeseen journey.

- <sup>28:20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow to the LORD: "If you will be with me and protect me on the journey I am making and give me food and clothing, <sup>28:21</sup> And I shall return prosperously to my father's house: the Lord shall be my God: <sup>28:22</sup> And this stone, which I have set up for a title, shall called the house of God: and of all things that thou shalt give to me, I will offer tithes to thee."

He fulfilled his vow, and King Solomon constructed the Temple of Jerusalem. In time, Jacob's tithing-blessing manifested in building the American Empire, the greatest in the world.

Jacob's vow serves as the template for the current Children of Israel. Jacob demonstrated his vow to his children, whom he knew would be enslaved for 400 years by Abraham.

On January 4, Messenger from the Magistrate came to The Judahite and presented the character template of strength, resilience, diligence, and perseverance.

The Jacob's Family Template.

We enter the divine theology of the family's template. In brief, Rebecca requested an explanation of why she could not get any rest, day and night, because the twin's restless behavior. The LORD told her she would birth two sons representing opposing nations that would always conflict with each other. God loved Jacob and hated Esau.

The New Testament authors framed this conflict as the One of Promise to stand before the Elohim, to be a light to the Gentiles.

Rebecca was responsible for ensuring Jacob received his divine blessing. Indeed, she did. Often trivialized, many believe Jacob's character caused the brotherly conflict. Not so; Jacob was pre-destined to receive God's gifts.

Esau and his descendants symbolize the physical, emotional state of humanity. Remember Esau sold his blessing to Jacob for food. When it came time for him to cash in on his blessing he forgotten he sold it. Jacob cashed out on his blessing before Esau reneged.

Jacob's Troubles

The Character of tenacity. Every preacher that The Judahite heard on this topic misunderstood the essential meaning. Jacob's hour of divine certification came when he struggled all night with Raphael inter-dimensionally, NOT in the physical realm, to validate his character and those of his children. Because Jacob prevailed, he received the name changed to Israel.

The logic is straightforward. Within hours, Jacob would face Lord Esau only after receiving hundreds of animals as gifts, which warmed his heart. After all, Esau possessed an earthly spirit and received the gifts as compensation for his sold blessing.

Then Esau realized during Isaac's funeral that Jacob retained the divine portion of the blessing. At that point, Esau made plans to kill Israel. Indeed, a war between the families took place, and Esau died.

The misunderstanding has led to theological errors

For example, it is often heard when a person has experienced a heartbreaking disappointment that fate will smile upon them and reward them with an even better reward than the unmaterialized.

Such a conditional expression is not Scriptural based. God always tells one's divine right of inheritance in some form or another. Therefore, unmaterialized reward was never blessed. How can a non-divine request be turned into a sacred privilege? Consider that the righteous Gentiles have been grafted onto the olive tree of Judah. Still, nothing changes. Unmaterialized blessings cannot be exchanged for a divine reward.

In sum, Jacob's Troubles signal a divine breakthrough.

The Template of Jacob's Family

As seen, the family of the Hebrew Israelites contains divine and non-divine family members. Yes, within one's household, there are non-divine family members.

Tribal families will return home by answering to tribal identification roll call by name, which is a long-standing tradition. To avoid conflict, adopted nationality names will be cast off.

Remember, the tribes were scattered worldwide by names, and in character, they shall return with the same terms.

The Magistrate's Order on Sanctioning Tribal Personal Relationships

Like all social systems, personal relationships and the family unit conform to the property base of society or character rights of those who own the means of production and control the social wealth.

While the sanctioning procedure is different, selecting a mate is the same. If no one is suitable within one's tribe, look intertribally.

Some relationships have already been confirmed and validated within tribal affiliation; thus, no problems.

The Reapplication of Jacob's Template

In the forefront, divine connections form personal relationships, followed by relationships within tribes. Sacred personal relationships always held designed programming for advancing the Kingdom of God.

The functional role of the Israelites is different than being subject to the Gentiles

The Commonwealth of Israel will be governed under Yeshua's theocracy as soon as Judah, and the Ten Tribes enter the Lands of Promise. As such, the Commonwealth of Israel will determine the world's allocation of social wealth.
