

Updates

In many of The Judahite's presentations, he does in draft intending to do a biblical anthology with a staff of a hundred or more people.

The Judahite is active 24/7 receiving and processing data from the heavenly realm with the only priority to post information to the 144k and the Firstfruits timely. From time to time, updates are done when time permits, and in a few cases, new versions. Therefore, as prophecy accelerates, The Judahite will continue to do drafts with no time to waste.

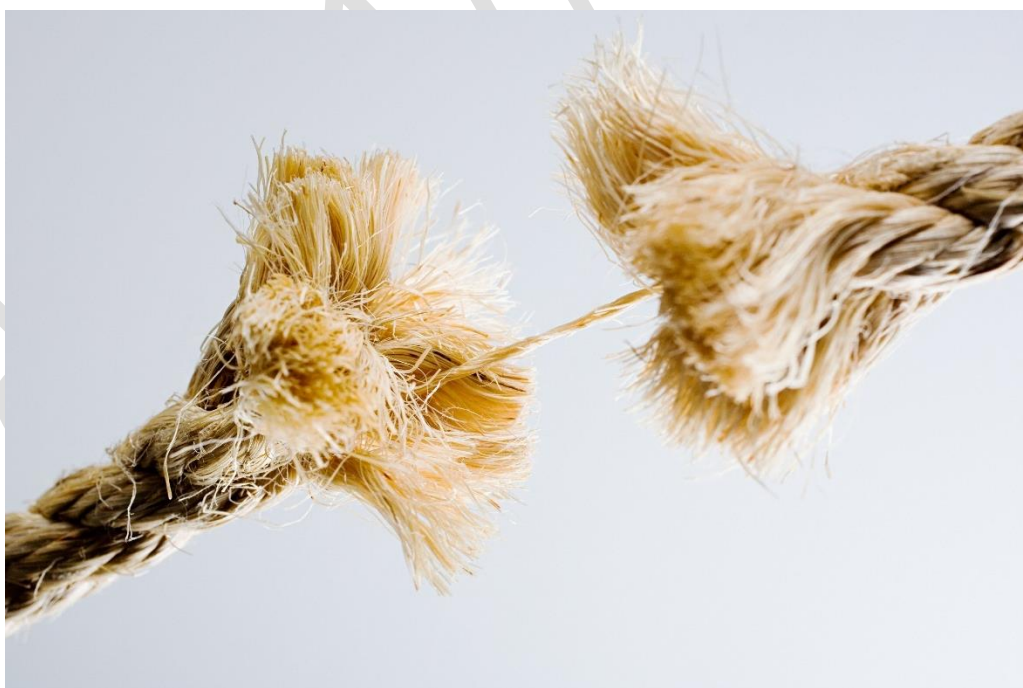

In review, there are times when The Judahite sent out topical memos for immediate actions within the Congregation of Israel. Such will continue.

December 31 Update

The Judahite received an anthropomorphic image with a head and legs intact, and the lower part of the body disintegrated yet with a string attached that allows the upper part to pull the useless remains.

Within context, The Judahite understood the proper interpretation. Many weeks ago, the top pantry shelf supernaturally collapsed inwardly, a signal for crushing the lower part of the back.

The meaning. The Armies of Heaven operate on levels that are not readily visible to many people worldwide. As a global system, imperialism is halfway disintegrated yet held together by a prophetic thread. Still, The Judahite received a Year-end Report on the global economic collapse progression from the Second Heaven.

Hanging by a thread

Global disintegration will continue throughout 2023. Prepare for a prolonged hardship as the Commonwealth of Israel starts the process of re-fashioning the global economy in the interest of Judah and the Ten Tribes. The Executive Body of Israel will administer the restructuring process.

A domino effect, country after country will experience social collapse. The global supply chain will fall into disrepair. Wars will multiply among countries.

January 1, 2023

The Judahite awoke, went into the kitchen, and opened the pantry to experience the exhilaration of having focused attention on the mulled wine bottle directed by the messenger. Mulled wine is a holiday season favor of The Judahite. What a delightful supernatural eye-opener for the start of the New New Year.

Next, the New Year's Spiritual Message Received By The Judahite

The pantry door remained opened.

The Judahite opened the Refrigerator

After taking selected items out of the pantry and refrigerator, The Judahite closed the doors to the surprise of finding the messenger confirming the year of plenty.

Looking back, the year 2022 carried an undertone message of urgency. Like in Sodom, the city self-declared its wickedness. Michael took Lot and his family by the hand and levitated outside the city gates without touching the ground due to the degree of depravity throughout the city.

Coming off the Festival of Lighting, the sent message was very inspirational. As seen in biblical history, God gives plenty of time for people to make suitable adjustments. Thus, it is never a question if the day and hour of judgment are coming. The only question is when.

We give special thanks to Yeshua's Mission Statement for securing our food needs and safety in 2023. From now on, 2023 and 2024, and out-years with no lights seen at the end of the tunnel.
