

The Significance of March 2025 Calendar Dates

In review:

22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29

We focus on March 29, 30, and 31, which contain powerful operational messages regarding our spiritual timeline in Babylon and Egypt. Yet each person must learn their role in the Judahcratic trilateral operational phases. Although gaining confidence in knowing we are on the correct end-time continuum has been challenging, the Second Heaven has continued to provide clarity.

Operational Phases at Gilgal and Gaza Pertaining to the Israelites.

- Purification
- First Fruits and Feast of Leavened Bread
- Strategic planning: war of claiming deeded land and construction design implementation.

While Gilgal is given as a reference model, it's important to note that our current situation is unique and not a replica. The model used by Judah and the Israelites is flexible, allowing it to be adjusted to fit our needs and engage everyone.

Part One March 29, 2025

One phase at a time, March 29 marked the deadline for the Trump administration to issue the Letter of Authorization for the Executive Body of Israel in Exile to use U.S. Armed Forces surplus aircraft, ships, and all road vehicles for transportation in reconstructing Gaza.

Over a year ago, the Executive Body of Israel in Exile (EBIE) gave a legal protective status to the Ammonites, who call themselves Palestinians, during and after their relocation from Gaza.

Indeed, the Palestinians or Ammonites must relocate, despite a misleading narrative that claims their rightful ownership of the territory, as previous presentations have indicated. However, the Trump administration is taking advantage of the Ammonites' protectorate status under the EBIE by declaring Gaza an American territory, granting him a prophetic platform to issue the Letter of Authorization to EBIE by the end of March 2025.

The Angel Corps of Heaven observed all the people in the U.S. Capitol building on January 20, 2025, the inauguration day of the Judahtocracy. Prophetically, the Trump administration still had standing for having made such an assertive claim to take ownership of Gaza.

Again, Trump's action to take control over Gaza is bold. Yet, there is congruence. President Trump was The Judahite's envoy to Israel by moving the US Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, declaring Judah's prophetic jurisdiction over Israel and Jerusalem according to Jeremiah's Seventy-year prophecy.

To validate Trump's action to accelerate the Ammonites' relocation, The Judahite presented a discourse "Background Support for the Letter of Authorization and Letter of Authorization for Gaza" (the edict)

Under Judahcratic governance, President Trump had the authority to relocate the Ammonites using all means sanctioned by the Angel Corps of Heaven.

Consider the weight of such sanctioning power. The Judahite who cast his ballot with the supernatural registration number encoded as Palestine, Illinois, played a crucial role in Trump's 2017 election win. This connection between Trump, the Judahite, and Palestine is significant, making the Letter of Authorization (edict) a document of prophecy.

From the outset, it was clear that Trump's presidency was not just a political event, but a divine mission centered on Judah's return to Israel. There is a divine irony in Trump coming to power. As foretold, Harris's social philosophy is still preserved to maximize her functionality over and above the presidency. Still, Trump was tasked to focus on Judah's return to Israel as prophecy and not driven by a political strategy, which is doomed to failure. On the other hand, Trump had the right to follow his political agenda according to the rules of politics.

As the transitional movement evolved, President Trump assumed his growing role in Judah's transitional movement by declaring Gaza American territory—okay. Next, the Judahite submitted the edict, Letter of Authorization, for the President to issue in favor of the Executive Body of Israel in Exile.

The Second Court of Heaven, a divine entity, granted the Trump administration until March 29, 2025, to issue or announce the edict. Although immediate implementation was not required, it was essential to begin establishing systems within the federal government for the delivery.

Such a timely announcement would have enabled the delegated agencies of the Executive Body of Israel in Exile to start planning for Gaza's reconstruction.

The Edict was not announced before 9 PM on March 29, 2025. "Announced" is the key word! The Judahite did not require a delivered decommitment. However, no biblical precedent exists for a non-publicly announced edict for stated purposes. In all cases, an authoritative statement is made for public awareness.

Furthermore, the recipient (Judah) had to be recognized as the basis for the Executive Body's action to achieve the intended purpose. In retrospect, no biblical precedent accounts for a non-publicly announced edict for stated purposes. An authoritative statement is made for public awareness, knowing the edict would be enforced.

Just as epoxy glue requires both resin and hardener to bond, the recipient, Judah, must be publicly engaged, not behind closed doors or in secrecy. The Angel Corps of Heaven requires a mutual commitment to implementing and maintaining its spiritual purpose within the edict; otherwise, the edict has no strength. Queen Esther and Mordecai drafted the edicts for King Ahasuerus of Persia to sign, giving the Judeans the right to go on the offensive to save their lives from the Amalekites.

A comparative analysis between King Cyrus and President Trump

Daniel's impact on world history remains evident today. Daniel read to King Cyrus from Isaiah 45:1-2:

- *“Thus says the LORD to His anointed, To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held— To subdue nations before him And loose the armor of kings, To open before him the double doors, So that the gates will not be shut:
I will go before thee, and will humble the great ones of the earth: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and will burst the bars of iron. Isaiah 45:1-2*

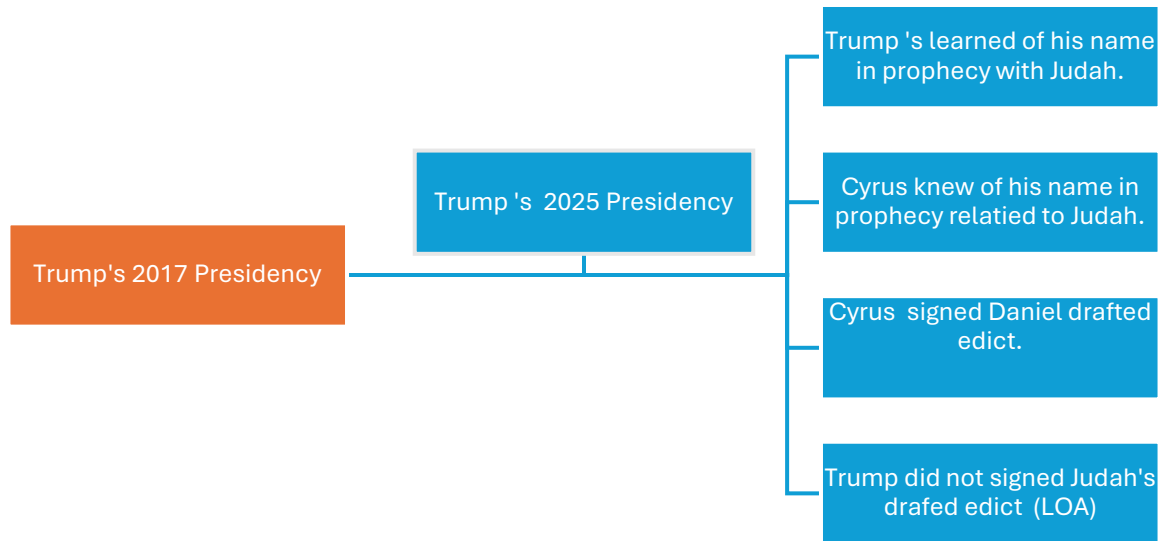

Daniel, a prophet of God and a man of immense moral stature, influenced the kings of his day. He and his three executive managers formed the world's economic cornerstone through the empires of Babylon, Medes-Persia, and Greece. Queen Esther and Mordecai preserved the banking and currency codes and rules that Daniel and his three associates established.

They established each empire's banking and financial systems, making it impossible for any empire to adopt an alternative global standard for currency valuation. Remember, Daniel set the 2:20 ratio in finance and banking, which would be maintained until the Stone Kingdom swallowed up capitalism and imperialism.

Before Daniel met King Cyrus to read to him Isaiah 45:1-2, he and his three managers had already established their legitimacy throughout the Babylonian and Mede-Persian empires by generating substantial wealth, making it unquestionable for the King to take Daniel's drafted edict and sign it, allowing the Judean exiles to return home with all the resources necessary for rebuilding the Temple according to Daniel's written specifications.

In short, Daniel designated the funding for the Temple's reconstruction. After Cyrus' death, the Edict maintained its enforcement power.

When the time came for fund allocation, it took a while to search the archives for Cyrus' Edict, which delayed construction. When found, the necessary resources were allocated for the Temple's construction. Ezra and other prophets recounted the numerous challenges faced during construction.

The Second Court of Heaven decided at 9:00 PM on March 29 to invalidate the terms and conditions outlined in the Letter of Authorization for Gaza.

While some may speculate about why the Edict was not issued, the Judahite and the Executive Body of Israel in Exile focus on an optional pathway. The ruling is final. What man can overturn it? The Angel Corps of Heaven doesn't play politics with man.

PART II

March 29, 2025

In brief, March 29 symbolizes a metaphorical transformation from spiritual immaturity to maturity, a lengthy incubation period. During this period, we re-engineered our spiritual infrastructure to support our new statehood in which we practice the New Covenant.

The messianic era provides a framework where we need not apologize for our good deeds or harbor hatred for the Devil's deceptive designs of delusion.

Seeing both sides of the coin.

The Chosen People's interpretive meaning is to allow others to use us out of their self-interest—a blessing to be a blessing to others.

Indeed, the method has effectively drawn heathens to the Christian faith, and as they grow spiritually, they comprehend the significance of the New Testament in their everyday lives.

Ok, Jesus is depicted as white, so what? If skin color is a hook to draw people to Jesus' New Testament, all the better.

The Ten Tribes and Judah embraced the New Testament for thousands of years without the need to embrace skin color religion, for in the first place, faith is always practiced interdimensionally. We worship in spirit and truth.

For the record, Yeshua's nature is not of a physical color; instead, in his divine state, he is light—an energy source. Those with subversive minds will never comprehend. The Scriptures tell us what we must know about Yeshua's divine attributes to imitate.

On the other hand, many religions are demonic. Still, the worshipers praise their deities in the spiritual realm.

The face of the coin.

The Gentiles' social systems were formed with Jacob's tithing blessing, which operates within the Daniel-Man-Statue depicting the four Gentile social systems. Nevertheless, the Israelites were spiritually alienated from the Gentile Babylonian social system, as illustrated in the theological exposition of the four Judahites' fiery furnace. King Nebuchadnezzar's Edict further emphasizes Judah's spiritual alienation from the subsequent Gentile social systems.

The Gentiles' social systems contain inherent spiritual constraints, as national governments uphold the Serpent's policies to promote the spread of moral decay, which stands in opposition to the New Testament.

Soon, the Israelites will have an environment where the usual behaviors of Gentile society will never be seen in their nation.

The Ratified New Covenant provides

An elevated perspective on spiritual dos and don'ts.

To understand the Israelites' relationship to end times prophecy, studying the Israelites' Egyptian preparation model that establishes the foundation of statehood would be helpful. a) The Israelites prepared to depart Egypt by painting lamb's blood on their doorposts and eating lamb

And unleavened bread. b) The angel of death visited Egypt, paving the way for the midnight exodus. c) The Theological Constitution for nationhood was given at Mount Sinai. d) Gilgal became the site for planning the requirements of administrative statehood.

As in Gilgal, we share the same historical principles today as the ancient exiles, but we seek not to replicate the conditions of previous exiles.

During his ministry, Yeshua fulfilled four Feast Days that mark the transition from the Old Testament to the New Testament. A.D. 70 signifies the countdown to Yeshua's second return to Earth. During this interim period, the remaining Feast Days would have been satisfied.

When Yeshua ascended, the window of time opened for the Israelites to fulfill the balance of Feast Days while in captivity. For this reason, Judah of North America doesn't use Old Testament dates to assist in aligning with unfulfilled Feasts; however, all Feast Days are observed.

On the other hand, there is a pattern for observing appointed, unfulfilled Feast Days. For example, in 2019, Jubilee reestablished its benchmark date for the fifty-year cycle. For so long, the Israelites of North America had no idea about practicing Feast Days and Jubilee. After thousands of years, the Holy Spirit came to The Judahite to teach at the appointed time. Just as in 2019, the LORD acts dramatically and supernaturally in ways no man can replicate to certify his messages. He established the proper dates for His awakening, allowing people to practice and learn about their rich astrotheological Feast Days.

The principle of Purification after bondage.

Parting the Red Sea demonstrates this principle. They had to be purified, and at Mount Sinai, they were sanctified, an embodied spirit of the Ten Commandments.

Purification and sanctification practices must be followed according to established regulatory codes. Regardless of the historical period, the exilic Israelites adhered to these codes before or during their transition to their homeland. For example, Nehemiah had to punch them and pull the hair from the heads of many, including Levite priests who took pagan wives during the Babylonian captivity. They were not thinking wisely. Ezra, Nehemiah, and others interviewed all foreign wives; many said they did not intend to give up their deities. The wives who were committed to the faith in Yahawah were permitted to stay in the union, and those wives who remained committed to their pagan gods were forced out of the union with their children.

This graphically illustrates how pagan religious practices take root within the religious establishment and spread throughout society. Hence, the objective of purification is to remove the unclean.

The Rebuilt or New Temple symbolizes purification. Consider that Ezekiel was transported to the Temple in Jerusalem, where he stood interdimensionally and saw on the walls of the priest chambers “every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed.” Raphael showed Ezekiel, “twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they worshipped the sun toward the east.”

Overall, the regulatory codes of purification and sanctification manifest in various social forms of daily life, defining our identities and expressing who we are.

The renewal process was integral to the Temple's destruction and the rebuilding with an enhanced, elevated, and appreciative understanding of Yahawah's operational depth among his people. Only direct experience can bestow such spiritual appreciation.

The Judahite opposes the term "Chosen Ones" or "Chosen People" as it is used today. This term conveys a sense of membership rather than a Mission Statement. Remember, Noah's three sons are predestined for salvation because they possess Adam's righteous genetics.

The Scriptures provide information about those who will be granted eternal salvation on Judgment Day. The Chosen Ones are blessed to be a blessing to others; thus, they are selected so that others may benefit from them through the legal and criminal justice systems for a designated period. Only after the Gentiles' fourth and final social system concludes will the nation of Israel prioritize its policies, placing its interests first.

Over the years, The Judahite presented various ritualized situations and practices for purification, including shaving the head and facial hair and washing the face and body. Such practices have served as an awakening rehearsal for learning the Lord's statutes and ordinances before taking possession of deeded tribal lands in the Middle East.

We must understand the Chosen People's Mission Statement before discussing the concepts of righteousness. Isaiah tells us that no matter how exemplary one's righteousness may be, it is viewed as filthy rags in God's sight (Isaiah 64:6).

- But we are all like an unclean thing, And all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags; We all fade as a leaf, And our iniquities, like the wind, Have taken us away.

National Purification is not a one-time event.

As an exilic nation, the Israelites underwent a purification process even after receiving the Mount Sinai Theological Constitution. Similarly, even after our ratified New Covenant on January 17-19, 2025, we will enter a necessary purification phase before receiving our inheritance. See the archetype below:

From the Book of Joshua 5:6-11

For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, “a land flowing with milk and honey.”

As a result, it was their descendants, whom he raised up to take their place, that Joshua circumcised. They had remained uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised during their journey.

When they were done circumcising the whole nation, they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.

Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” Therefore, the name of the place is called Gilgal to this day.

PASSOVER

Then the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal and celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the plains of Jericho in the desert.

And they ate unleavened bread on the next day, made from the corn of the land, and the same year's frumenty.

And the manna ceased after they ate of the corn of the land, neither did the children of Israel use that food anymore, but they ate of the corn of the present year of the land of Canaan.

Time shifted at Gilgal with little notice; however, there was a distinction among the Feast Days.

Time shifted at Gilgal with little notice, yet the Feast Days were differentiated. After crossing the River Jordan and camping on the borders of Canaan, the Israelites celebrated their first Passover in their new homeland by eating lamb.

The lamb came from two sources or a combination of both. We can assume that most, if not all, Israelites own lambs. However, since not all Israelites possessed a lamb, the shortfall would have been supplied by the tribes of Manasseh, Gad, and Reuben, located east of the Jordan. Here, they received their land inheritance due to their abundant sheep, goats, and cattle, as the land was ideal for pasture.

Watch, Watch, Watch it!

Lambs' blood covered the doorposts of the Israelites, ensuring the death angel would not include them among the millions of animals and people who perished during Passover at midnight.

The lamb's blood on individual homes signifies a personalized meaning in Christian theology. Consequently, salvation through blood extends from families to individuals, giving rise to the concept of individualized salvation through Yeshua's divine blood shed at Gethsemane.

In contrast to the Passover Lamb, the Scriptures highlight Unleavened Bread apart from Passover Day. The following day, the Israelites ate unleavened bread, marking their evolutionary step of sufficient maturity to inhabit the Promised Land after forty years under theocratic governance. With unleavened bread, fruits, including berries, were eaten the day after Passover.

Jumping forward in time, after the AD 70 expulsion, it would take centuries for the Israelites to achieve their predetermined stage of maturity and depart Babylon, returning home, marking the beginning of the Messianic era.

Unleavened bread is eaten in reverse order.

- And they ate unleavened bread of the corn of the land on the next day, and frumenty of the same year. Joshua 5:11 Douay-Rheims

Unleavened bread was eaten with lamb on the night of the Exodus. In contrast, unleavened bread, similar to tortillas, was consumed without lamb at Gilgal Passover. That's the essential point.

To teach the Congregation of Israel their theological purpose, the LORD assigned the seven Feast Days astro-theologically to align with Yeshua's divine theology as observed in heaven.

Yeshua served unleavened bread at the Last Supper, fulfilling the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. After Yeshua's resurrection, many continued to observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread for thousands of years, including today.

A few years ago, the Judahites began rehearsing the Feast of Leavened Bread, aware that the official day would soon align with the exilic Fourth Generation, December 1, 2024, per the Abrahamic Covenant.

The Feast of Leavened Bread is an astrotheological signal for the exiles, indicating that it is time to arise and advance the transitional relocation movement to our homeland.

March 30, 2025, officially became the established Feast of Leavened Bread, under Heaven's designated purpose.

The day after Passover, the manna ceased, fulfilling the promise to provide the Israelites with land flowing with milk and honey. After the day of eating unleavened bread, the Israelites were prepared to sustain themselves off the land as they established their statehood through systematic conquest.

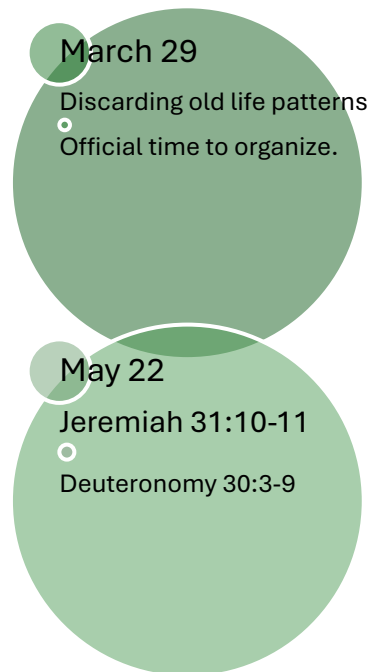

From a parallel perspective, Camp Gilgal is comparable to Gaza, which we view as the starting point for reclaiming the entire Middle East.

Part III

March 29, 2025

To fully grasp the significance of March 29, we must look ahead to May 22, 2025, the prophetic Pentecost—also known as the Feast of Weeks or Shavuot—representing a restatement of our inheritance.

The graph below is a visual outline.

March 29 marks the transition to the Feast of First Fruits.

About a decade ago, on March 29, The Judahite made a smoothie, cutting fruit on the left counter and placing it into the blender on the opposite counter. When The Judahite turned to the working counter, he noticed numerous fruit fly larvae crawling. Recognizing this as a supernatural sign, The Judahite personally anticipated exceptional fruitfulness in both his life and that of his congregational members.

While waiting for the expectation to materialize, it would be many years later when the Holy Spirit revealed March 29, 2025, as the appointed day of transitional maturity—spiritually independent from Gentiles’ traditional practices—the official day of First Fruits.

Over the years, fruit flies have become a symbol of faith on March 29, as we anticipate a day when we will live in our own land and eat blessed fruits under the New Covenant.

Over the years, an observable pattern emerged: killing one fruit fly results in the appearance of another. Kill two, and two appear. Kill four, and four emerge. The pattern repeats, regardless of the numbers killed during the day or night.

As unbelievable as it sounds, fruit flies flew through the glass window!

The Judahite interacted with Angel Raphael regarding the First Fruits transitional anchors, which were historically recorded on March 29, 2025.

1. Affirming: The 22nd day of February is designated as the prophetic Pentecost Day for May. Each year, February determines the date for the prophetic Pentecost Day. This year, it is the 22nd.
2. The Judahite washed his underwear as a symbolic practice of purification, a requirement when ordinances are delivered in public assembly or convocation.
3. A flying Hornet appeared before The Judahite as a coded message.

- *Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet against them until even the survivors hiding from you have perished. Deuteronomy 7:20
*I sent the hornet ahead of you, and it drove out the two Amorite kings before you, but not by your sword or bow. Joshua 24:12
*With your hand, you drove out the nations and planted our fathers there; You crushed the peoples and cast them out. For it was not with their sword that they took the land; their arm did not bring them victory. It was by Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your face, because You favored them. Psalms 44:2-3
*Terror and pit and snare await you, O dweller of the earth. Whoever flees the sound of panic will fall into the pit, and whoever climbs from the pit will be caught in the snare. For the windows of heaven are open, and the earth's foundations are shaken. Isaiah 24:17-18
- 4. The fall of Babylon. Jeremiah’s prophetic Seventy-Year Letter affirms Judah's prophetic jurisdiction over his homeland. It offers members of Judaism the ultimate opportunity to embrace the light of truth by recognizing Yeshua as the Son of God and fully accepting the New Testament, allowing them to live not necessarily in their current location.

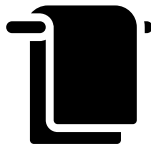

Although confusing, the Seventy-Year Letter overlaps with Gabriel's Seventy Weeks prophecy and Jeremiah's book about Babylon's fall.

- And they cast dust upon their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying; Alas! alas! that great city, wherein all were made rich, that had ships at sea, because of her prices: for in one hour she is made desolate. Revelation 18:19
- Then you are to say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink and never rise again, because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will grow weary.' Here end the words of Jeremiah. Jeremiah 51:64

5. Eliminating ideas and strategies that impede the Transitional Movement of Leavened Bread.

- For the ruthless will vanish, the mockers will disappear, and all who look for evil will Be cut down. Isaiah 29:20.
- Isaiah 32:7: The weapons of the scoundrel are destructive; he hatches plots to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy is just.
- "For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and every evildoer Will be stubble; the day is coming when I will set them ablaze," says the LORD of Hosts. "Not a root or branch will be left to them." Malachi 4:1

6. Desist from Eating Pork.

When this command arrived, the Judahite was shocked but still understood its purpose. The prohibition on eating pork was reinstated after over two thousand years. This serves as another regulatory requirement for entering our deeded land.

Understand, do not throw away your pork meat. You should immediately start phasing pork out of your diet. Again, do not discard your pork; gradually wean yourself and your family off it.

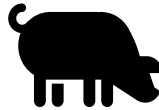

Remember, before AD 70, Judah did not eat pork. As First Fruits, March 29 has restored us to our natural dietary tradition.

If the question arises regarding the permissibility of eating pork outside of Israel, the answer is yes. First, it is not a sin to eat pork. However, there will be no pig farms or hogs in Israel, and pork will not be offered at eateries. That said, if one is outside of Israel and, by circumstance, pork is available regardless of the reasons, then one has the option to eat it.

Tribal Judah is grateful to the LORD for the pig, as without it during bondage, the population would not have met their daily protein needs. Furthermore, the commercial pork industry has standards to address public health concerns. Hogs do not roam freely; they are fed manufactured food. Therefore, there is no reason to speak negatively about pork.

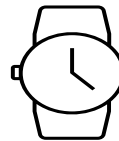

We no longer need pork because we are about to change our living environment in accordance with the LORD's promise to restore Judah and the Ten Tribes, to make them whole again. We have a New Covenant in which to evolve spiritually. Alleluia, Thank God!

Upon the LORD's ordinance, the regulatory requirement to stop eating pork brings pure joy to Judah's ears; profoundly, we know we are going home.

- 7. The watch appeared on the Judahite's left arm, indicating the Holy Spirit is empowering his people, guiding them to overcome those who have continued to muddy the waters of prophecy to confuse and mislead.

The Judahite sees the watch as the time for the 144k to start revealing themselves through actions, not in words.

The continuous act of lying endlessly.

You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. John 8:44

“ He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.”

8. The Devil's Resources Assistance.

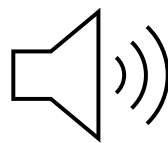

“When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.”

Yeshua's Statement of Fact resonates profoundly. We live in a society where, every day, people become the Devil's resources, both passively and actively, by spreading lies and half-truths. Christians are assumed to discern character traits in people and community life. Still, many Christians, like some Gentiles, serve as the Devil's resources, infecting families, groups, social media, news outlets, and society with poisonous ideas and practices. Gossiping is one of the Devil's tools, specifically regarding his high-priority topics that follow in sequence: to kill, steal, and destroy (moral depravity). Ultimately, the Devil opposes the Ten Commandments.

We live in a world with a preponderance of imitation, make-believe images. For example, by looks, no one can tell the difference between real butter and imitation. Additionally, looks deceive, the transgender movement: what is the difference between a real woman and a fake woman? Likewise, no one can tell the difference between genuine and counterfeit men. Imitations are seen everywhere and accepted without knowing the differences. Regardless of forms, the central thread of fakery has a single source, the Devil. Yeshua tells us clearly that the Devil's mission is simple: to kill, steal, and destroy (moral depravity).

For the aforementioned reasons, the hour hand on the watch signals the empowerment of those gifted to oppose evildoers, including the Amorites and the Amalekites, as they are part of the Devil's resources used to promote programmed deceptions that mislead the Congregation of Israel.

Raphael pulled The Judahite by the right ear with sound to hear the “weeping and gnashing of teeth.” What an excruciating sound of being chopped up, a well-deserving sound as an echo of the pain and suffering they inflicted upon the children of Israel and the righteous.

“The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His kingdom every cause of sin and all who practice lawlessness. And they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” Matthew 13:41-42

"Then he shall say to them also that shall be on his left hand: Depart from me, you cursed, into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels." Matt 25:41

"Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity; for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping." Psalm 6:8

In the personal lives of those under the New Covenant, it is time to take offense and discard everything and anyone who would be useless in the Messianic Era.

Celebration comes with each victory over the Devil.

Discarding all fakes &
the useless.

9. The promise to increase Israel and Judah populations 1000 times Over current numbers.

- May the LORD give you an increase, both you and your children. Psalms 115:14

Again, Angel Raphael illustrated another topical merit of First Fruits by upholding the promise to increase, to multiply the Congregation of Israel's population.

Consistent with the new feast days, Raphael presented The Judahite with rice grain to depict the promised multiplication in population growth while preserving wheat's symbolism of fertility, love, resurrection, and spiritual growth.

- As the time drew near for God to fulfill His promise to Abraham, our people in Egypt increased greatly in number. Acts 7:17
- And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. Genesis 26:4

“Look to Abraham, your father, and to Sarah who gave you birth. When I called him, he was but one; then I blessed him and multiplied him.” Isaiah 51:2
