

Calendar Updates

October, November, December & January.

1

We are just about at the end of October 2023. The Judahite received from the Second Heaven a calendar review date for October. The given dates in the review are features; we can better look back to discern the month's highlights because, as a living God, we can move forward and backward as indicated by the calendar dates—time markers of events for us to follow.

About the end-times sequence of events, the world multiplies confusion 24/7. For this reason, the Ten Tribes receive tag-light dates to follow along on the transitional road back to the Promised Land without being misguided by enemy forces.

Naturally, all eventful calendar dates are only seen by some for different reasons, but the essentials will be unsealed and known to all over time as related to one's involvement as a successor or predecessor in appreciation for an elevated view; otherwise, those who seek to know everything in the totality of each calendar day will have data that they cannot utilize.

Many processes occur on different levels, open to some and closed to others. Still, the calendar dates allow everyone to build a personalized database to draw theological clarity and prophetic validation. Some people need more repetitive reminders than others based on their organizational experiences in civic activities and community work around political issues; for this reason, the significance of calendar dates is at one's fingertips, with the requirement to focus on studying for complementary knowledge.

Already, historical events are moving too fast for some, so fast that they cannot mentally understand the chaotic world. They think and wish for a return to yesteryears, but such a desire is impossible.
