

July 7 Jurisdictional Celebration The Opportunity To Re-fashion Tabernacle

We have moved past Pentecost and Trumpet, leaving behind an enriched understanding of the Feast Days. Not to be confused, observant days, 18, should never be mistaken as the features or the resultants, which continue to progress as aggregates, attaching to other feast days.

The month of July deals with parceling or distribution according to the controlling plan of actions and the rewards announced by Trumpet.

This year July 7 is about jurisdictional celebration for the promised opportunity to re-fashion our lives under the New Covenant. July 7 brings forth in earnest, though slight, visible separation from the dominant order of society enough to anchor the jurisdictional tent of Judah for rebuilding the Tabernacle.

Just like after the Civil War, Judah started building churches to worship according to the Astro theological blessings assigned by the Elohim, a blessing to be a blessing to others—the same pattern followed. Thus, jurisdictional separation is the first step in earnest for commencing re-construction.

Jurisdictional Independence

In 2017, according to Jeremiah's seventy-year letter, Judah prophetically took his first step, self-assertiveness, confident of his jurisdictional independence.

On July 7, 2019, the Archangel broke Judah's chain of jurisdictional restriction. The chain-breaking came as an earth-shaking moment, a day of faithful remembrance.

Putting tribal Judah in historical perspective

Judah saved Joseph's life. Except for Reuben, Joseph's brothers wanted to kill him. Judah arose and made the argument by raising the question: what is there to gain by killing Joseph. He is our brother. They agreed. Then came along Midianites merchantmen who pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him to the Ishmaelites.

The transactional arrangement among the parties prefigures the whole seller role of the Chinese Ishmaelites' imperialism. The sequence: a. Judah sold Joseph to Midianites b. who sold Joseph to Ishmaelites; b. the Ishmaelites took him to Egypt and sold him. c. carefully selecting the master, the Ishmaelites sold him to an Egyptian with wealth.

Having learned prophetic lessons from Abraham and Isaac, Joseph rejected Potiphar's wife's seduction tricks despite putting a full-court press on him that led to his imprisonment. Still, the sexual harassment continued during his imprisonment.

Theoretically, Egypt is a dimensional place for testing and demonstrating the true divine character of God's elected leaders. Egypt is the theater where the Hebrew Israelites perform at the lowest levels of human frailties yet have access to the highest spiritual elevation.

From Joseph's own Astro-theologically outlook, he knew Judah would be sold into slavery similar to his slavery and would someday be the savior of Israel. Just as his dream foretold—the entire family would bow down to him for having preserved the whole family.

Joseph was a global ruler, an author, Priest, and a planetary visionary.

History often gives little attention to the fact that Joseph became the ruler of a global empire with vast resources. His coat of many colors foretold international jurisdiction to govern peoples of the world. Still, once in power, Joseph possessed a materialistic view of managing the food crisis and his global kingdom.

A nation must embrace an ideal or religious belief outside and above itself. The Book of the Dead is a product of Joseph's spiritual maturity. He wrote the central core as others would do add-ons to extend the Book after his death. Hence, Joseph invented Egypt's embalming industry to complement the Book of Dead for a cohesive society.

No one decoded why the Egyptians put so much importance on the resurrection, the afterlife. Here is the primary reason. Joseph became well-read in Enoch or Thoth. Additionally, he knew the teachings of Shem and Abraham about the different ages of human civilizations, including the final age, our current period.

Indeed, he had a complete worldview. Enoch points out that at the end of the age and the start of the new, the Congregation would operate under a one-world non-Gentile government. The Congregation of Israel would drive world history as the principal-agent, either actively or passively.

Enoch is the architect of all megalithic complexes on earth.

There is no such thing as a hit-and-miss of milestone events or making a lucky guess about historical events. Enoch gave interpretative knowledge about his design work of megalithic structures worldwide to his family members, who taught Noah about the embedded cosmic codes into the pyramid complexes for reading the universal time of scheduled events. All megalithic complexes worldwide are part of ONE system for reading the movement of our galaxy relational to other galaxies, indicating milestone events from a cosmic perspective. Enoch traveled around the earth in a spacecraft.

Perceptions of the world thru different pairs of eyes.

Gentiles vs. the Congregation of Israel.

Currently, the Egyptologists are delighted to make entombed discoveries, yet they completely miss the mark! They do not understand why Nimrod became a mighty hunter before the LORD. Silliness in thinking, Nimrod went out hunting animals to qualify as a mighty hunter before the LORD. Yes, Nimrod did hunt animals and trained them to be part of his powerful army. Nimrod hunted people, forcing them into his kingdom and for lost religious practices pre-flood. For the uneducated hunters, finding corpses are thrilling, although nothing of any value as connected to the Astrotheology of Joseph. Working with his own Astrotheology, Joseph developed a theoretical construct of resurrection in the afterlife, reflecting the teaching of Thoth. In a word, Egyptian burial is eschatologically rooted in the return of Joseph's sons.

A few words would be in order, given the many Egyptian mystery schools worldwide. We, on the earth, are infants in understanding the workings of space and time interchangeability. The Judahite has seen the overlay of multi-dimensionality of space and time, moving gravity in any direction. The Armies of Heaven are masters of time, which we know as the principle of space and time.

Nevertheless, prophetically, the Egyptians have no clue that they are seeing what will become of themselves as corpses or what will become of the Egyptians once Judah starts the relocation movement to take control of the Lands of Promise, including Egypt. Indeed, the space and time paradox—the activity of the moment will become one's reality.

Being the High Priest of Egypt, Joseph put emphasis on the active agents of history that transcend the different ages of history. Joseph's spiritualized architectural work reflects such as seen in the East and in the West with the centralized theme what to expect as the close of the ages. Joseph planted his son Ephraim in North and Central America. Also, he planted his son Manasseh in the East. Both would live as the walking dead for thousands of years. But in time, they would be resurrected. The Mosaic Curses detail how the walking dead came to be.

Divine monuments always retain their active elemental purpose

Within a designed scheme

Living enshrinements lives for living consciousness, not for those outsiders. Thus, Joseph constructed Angkor Wat and Thom in tribute to Judah because he knew Judah's history would be a living hell. He gave him hope, knowing he would arise with augmented traits at the end of the Age. Therefore, Angkor Wat and Thom hold the embedded global coordinates of the locations where milestones event would signal the end of the Age and the beginning of the new Age. As written, the fire must consume the old order of society. Death and resurrection occur at the same time.

The Naphtalites' death, including George Floyd, timely hit the nail on the head. Indeed, beyond human comprehension, events unfolded as embedded in Angkor Wat and Thom.

What? For thousands of years, Angkor Wat and Thom were concealed by aerial roots. Tree roots emerged from the sky or air and covered the entire complex until the appointed time of revelation.

Consider the Astro theological comparisons
Between the Chinese Ishmaelites and Judah.

The living roots symbolically hold fresh water covering the residing prophecy of Judah's future role.

Metaphorically, the root system extends from the Tree of Life. Hence, Judah's prophecy will never be concealed in the earth and covered by dirt.

COMPARISON

Unearthing the Terracotta Warriors presents a space-time paradox for the Chinese Ishmaelites. The discovery came by digging, which is the precursor of how the Chinese Ishmaelites will fade away from human history as a nation.

There are no indications of a promised future spiritualized life. However, most of the Warriors' faces are uniquely different from the others. Look. The creator designs each snowflake that falls with a unique design pattern. Again, nothing that the Chinese can do to override God's creation.

One Planet One Governing System

God's action plan from the beginning of creation: one planet, one governing system reflecting his spiritual attributes. Like all good and decent fathers, they want their children to reflect the values of their parents throughout life.

Yahawah has declared the meek shall inherit the earth. For Judah, God's declaration is final. Of course, the ungodly take a different resolute position and will fight to prevent wholesomeness worldwide.

Judah's history is written in stone at Angkor Thom

Judah's bondage history started with the Arabs and continued for over one thousand years. The original Arabs blended into the Arabs as seen today—a product of Hellenism. The Arabs of today are considered Ishmaelites. To avoid arguments with little practical value, The Judahite's approach is to look at end times prophecies regarding the nations to be inflicted with God's wrath.

We know that Lots' two sons will be dispossessed, as most still live in the Middle East. There is an unknown percentage of Ishmaelites residing in the Middle East; however, the daily history-making Ishmaelites live in the East, i.e., China.

Truly, the biblical racial groups still live in the Middle East and Asia Minor and constitute a confederacy against Judah, as detailed in Psalms 83. Oil-rich states of the Middle East have enlarged their alliance to include parties worldwide to fight the interest of Judah. Texas is very much a part of the alliance.

Judah's astrotheology is his planetary science. The other tribes of Israel have their own. Granted, on one level, Judah's astrotheology is understood, yet on a different level not apprehensible. For example, Judah's bondage led him to other geographical places tied and anchored with iron chains, the preconditions for the acceptable sacrifice to engender economic rewards on locations either in a state or a country. That said, might sound nonsensical—pain and suffering are the preconditions for economic benefits to the Gentiles. Indeed, on one level, Judah's pain consecrates all the natural resources for profitable manufacturing production.

Social oppression engenders perpetual financial operations for the system of capitalism.

When Jacob-tithing blessing, his ten sons, was offered to the Gentiles to regrow Daniel's global tree to produce financial fruits, it was fully understood that they would be socially oppressed. They would be denied the right to claim a fair share of the social distribution of wealth. For example, they either denied loans or charged high-interest rates. A common practice of being charged high rental rates beyond the going market rates. The illustrations are endless.

Complementary to the Jacob-tithing blessing, Judah's economic exploitation generated capital surplus-value.

Judah had prepared the groundwork of spiritual sacrifice in the Middle East a thousand years before gifting Texas.

Tribal Asher, the Asherite Turner, gave an illustrative view of America's future as dominating the global energy industry with the aid of the military.

Indeed, the Petrocurrency is the global standard interwinding with the U.S. Banknote.

Judah's planetary science is his astrotheology. The other tribes of Israel have their own. Granted, on one level, Judah's astrotheology is understood, yet on a different level not fully apprehensible. For example, Judah's bondage led him to different geographical places tied and anchored with iron chains, the acceptable preconditions for engendering each area with economic benefits.

The Asherite's astrotheology officially announced oil, the energy industry, as America's economic engine pushing the drive toward imperialism, the regrowth of Daniel's tree of financial prosperity.

Judah's prophetic maturity appears correlational to the Amorites' matured iniquity, as stated in Genesis.

In combination, the Petro currency and the Chinese Ishmaelites mark the iniquity of the Amorites. Daniel foretells the fourth and last Gentiles' social system by cross-referencing the end times.

Manasseh of the East conditioned the theoretical framework for the science of Political Economy credited by Karl Marx. As foretold by Jacob, Ephraim America became the ideal place for maturing capitalism. The Asherite Turner gave a model of imperialism through the decomposition of his body parts into illustrative commercial uses. Nat's model profoundly asserts Petro-currency would rest in the hands of America and that Texas would play a pivotal role in internationalizing the Petro Dollar.

The Chinese Ishmaelites re-enter the picture of international trade by copying commodity products of Ephraim/America and stealing intellectual properties used to entrench their global imperialism, i.e., making commodities cheaply without using high-quality standards and dumping them by the billions each year into matured markets worldwide of which Ephraim/America capitalism fostered.

Judah's historical assignment puts the Ishmaelites into a pit hole that would end harmful practices for the planet and the Commonwealth of Israel's interest.

Jeremiah's seventy-year prophecy announced
Judah's Jurisdictional authority over Israel.

On July 7, 2019, the Archangel broke Judah's jurisdictional restrictive chain.

Joy comes in the morning.

The LORD is faithful to his covenants. Considering the numbers: During the Arabs slave trade of the East an estimated forty million plus Hebrew Israelites died at the hands of Muslims. The number gives us a reasonable ideas of the quantity killed over a thousand years.

- In the West, the transatlantic slave trade, estimated, claimed the lives of thirty million to ninety million Judeans.

Having no intentions of disturbing good, estimated total numbers killed, symbolically, the Judahite uses the number of thirty million from the East and thirty million from the West, which adds to sixty million killed.

Now, consider the death tolls at sixty million when the Archangel snapped the iron chain on July 7. Emotions flowed but soon gave way to the real prospects of living with the joy of liberties. NO! Not today's freedoms are associated with spiritual deprivation, but privileges under the jurisdictional theocracy of Yeshua, wherein society will never sleep again due to unlimited personal liberties.

Elohim Establishes his doctrine of Trustworthiness In the distribution of lands and assets.

- “So He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”
- Abram brought the animals to God, cut them in half, and placed the halves opposite each other in two rows; but he did not cut up the birds. Genesis 15:10
- “And it was said unto him: Know thou beforehand that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land not their own, and they shall bring them under bondage, and afflict them four hundred years. 15:13 But I will judge the nation which they shall serve, and after this they shall come out with great substance. Genesis 15:14

God created all life forms and defined them through their behavior. So, when the Elohim uses forms of his creation to swear upon, the Elohim validates his design.

The turtle dove mainly existed in Asia during the time of Abram. The turtle dove symbolizes love, devotion, and friendship. As seen in biblical practices of offering sacrifices, turtle doves represented devotion, purity, hope, love, and peace.

The pigeon symbolizes love, compassion, wisdom, and a sacred messenger from God. Pigeon represents regathering loved ones, family bonds, re-forming social relations, redemption, and transformation.

In the progression of time, the LORD upgraded the life forms used for making the sworn oath by furnishing more details about the doctrine of trustworthiness, which includes procedures for selecting the administrative agents over the land trust and assets gathering for relocation.

For example, as a young lad, The Judahite raised pigeons. Years ago, The Judahite saw mourning doves for the first time in life in Africa without knowing the bird's name. Upon returning home, The Judahite did an online search for the bird's name by matching its looks. The name identified mourning dove identified. Surprisingly the doves common to the area looked nothing like the dove researched!

One morning coming out of the house to start working, the mourning dove seen in Africa flew down and walked alongside The Judahite. Immediately, The Judahite recognized the message sent by the Spirit. From that day onward, the mourning dove would make itself known each morning after exiting the house for work until The Judahite relocated.

Four Cornish Hens Vs The turtledove and pigeon

Four Cornish Hens occupy the ceremonial center of the July 7 service because the Abrahamic Covenant has been replaced on the following accounts:

- Judah has regained prophetic jurisdiction over Jerusalem since 2017
- The birth of the Man-child
- Judah and the Executive Body of Israel were given planetary jurisdiction when Archangel Michael broke the chain on July 7, 2019. According to Daniel, Michael confronts all Gentile governments at the end times. Therefore, we know with certainty that the Archangel Michael broke the chain.

The winged birds' concept transferred to Yeshua.

At Yeshua's baptism, the dove appeared upon his head, denoting the self-reflecting traits of the dove. Indeed, Yeshua, seen in association with the turtle dove, is the historic milestone of Tabernacle. Honestly, the Covenant's trustworthiness depicts Jerusalem as Israel's holy city.

Jacob established the small-scaled model for understanding materialized blessing in combination with the doctrinal theology of Abraham and Issac. When he returned home from self-exile, Jacob found the Exile Doctrine of Tabernacle by honoring his oath to the LORD while on the run.

Nat Turner's doctrinal teaching uses the words of the Redeemer: seek you first the Kingdom of Heaven, and all the rest will be added unto you.

In the history of the Israelites, all returning exiles followed Jacob's Exile Doctrine of Tabernacle and augmented by Turner, who fully embraced the direct words of the Elohim.

As the predecessor for returning home, the Redeemer came and delivered the New Testament to the world, giving us a completed doctrinal theology of Yeshua. Otherwise, what would be the value of returning home bringing wine in the same wine bottle?

Retaining focus, the underlining concept of the Abrahamic Covenant is Tabernacle. The Congregation is the living Tabernacle of God.

- Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you kill the prophets and stone the messengers God has sent you! How many times I wanted to gather together your children, just as the hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not let me! Matthew 23:37.

July 7 Precept Represented by the Four Cornish Hens

- May the Lord reward you for what you have done and mayest thou receive a full reward of the LORD the God of Israel, to whom thou have come to trust under his wings. Ruth 2:12
- How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! Therefore, the children of men put trust under the shadow of thy wings. Psalm 36:7
- But Ruth answered, "Don't ask me to leave you! Let me go with you. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. Ruth 1:16
