Re: Tribal Verification Results; the 5/12 Oath Update; God has pardoned the conduct of some from the apocalypse damnation.

Between 1:58 & 1:59 am December 25, The Judahite awake by two sounding tones. What tones? An association can be made with a telephone, though the phone did not ring. A supernatural sound awakened The Judahite.

The Judahite awoke to an electromagnetic frequency wave best described as having the head inside a globe where the soundwave distributed itself evenly in background very, very low volume pulsating sound a few hours.

The Judahite assumes the Holy Spirit visitation appeared similarly to all tribal members of the twelve tribes. First, the two-tones' sound followed an electromagnetic frequency wave. Lots can be said about electromagnetic frequency waves, though time will not permit a lengthy discussion. Still, when considering the origin of the two-ringtones, the point of singularity best explains the imprinted characters of the osculating curves. With confidence, the two tones came as a greeting of the electromagnetic osculating curves surrounding the head of each tribal member, reading the cellular level DNA properties imprinted at Mt. Sinai.

Not everyone received the two tones awakened sound; everyone should have experienced the osculating sound wave. Two situations account for the variant: (1) some people sleep through the hour of visitation. (2) some people brush off the osculating sound for whatever reason.

On December 25, everyone who received the electromagnetic frequency sound wave, knowingly or unaware, can now claim ownership in the nations of Israel. Hallelujah! The hour of Rebirthing tribal affiliations!!! The Rebirth is the good news and our season gifts from the Holy Spirit.

An Operational Illustration of Tribal Reunification

Around 10 a.m. on December 25, The Judahite used an electric shaver to shave. After shaving, The Judahite applied homemade shaving crème (Aloe Vera, Sweet Almond oil, and vitamin E oil). After scraping out the remaining mixture, about 1/8 of a teaspoon, and applying it to the face, a sizeable drop fell onto The Judahite's ring finger. Supernaturally, the ring finger became the focus, no other way possible to account for the appearance. Inter-dimensional appearance is common to The Judahite with accompanying messages.

The mixture of cream oils placed on the face verifies tribal identification; simultaneously, the drop of cream oils on the ring finger appeared as the anointing tribal reunification. Hallelujah! The symbolic message: the hair that has covered the face for thousands of years, through the electrical power of the Holy Spirit, came off, revealing the true identity of the tribal nations.

Within eight days, tribal names should match their members. Noting, some people either confirmed their tribal families or have an idea. Don't be concerned about not having explicit confirmation because if the frequency soundwave struck your head on December 25, knowledge would come to you about your tribal family. The Festival of Gala Lights ends on January 2, 2022.

The Soundwave25 receives all the glory for certifying the identity birth of the tribal nations of Israel.

5/12 Oath Updated

On December 25, the Archangel certified the updated message: 10 (ten) comes as a double portion; hence 10/12. Hallelujah! The blessings come non-stop.

God has pardoned the conduct of some from the apocalypse damnation.

God has illustrated his pardoned conduct for some people. There is nothing else that needs to be said. However, the forgiven will be revealed in the ongoing escalating events of the apocalypse because they will be protected.
